Renewed Cuban Invasion Plan Remains Secret

By BEN F. MEYER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The long-promised attack on Communist Cuba by the Revolutionary Junta, an exile group, appeared today to be something for the future—or a well-kept secret.

The junta, at the end of Cuba's May 20 independence anniversary on which it planned to have men fighting in Cuba, issued a statement which did not mention any attacks by its forces.

Rogelio Cisneros, chief in exile of the junta, told reporters one of the organization's objectives—harassing the Fidel Castro dictatorship—had been achieved, "especially from the point of view of psychological warfare."

A Havana dispatch said the military had been placed on alert, with all leaves canceled.

"The threats of attack have served a magnificent purpose in forcing extraordinary measures upon the Castro regime and doubtless producing widespread unrest and chaos in the already-foundering Cuban economy," said another exile leader.

Attack of Neutralization Faces LBJ in Viet Decision

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Special — At the same time President Johnson is asking Congress for $125 million additional economic and military aid for Communist-periled South Viet Nam, he also is deliberating two potentially far-reaching and diametrically opposite policies.

On one hand — the President is considering extending this gravely critical conflict with powerful air strikes at "privileged Communist sanctuaries" in adjoining Laos and North Viet Nam from which they are mounting their intensifying attacks.

Some 200 propeller-driven Air Force B-26s and Navy Skyraiders are being rushed to South Viet Nam for this possibility. This large reinforcement of light bombers is double the number officially announced.

Broadway Ticket Scalpers Are Stopped by Cops

NEW YORK (AP)—An executive of the 17 Shubert theaters on Broadway is accused of collecting $72,256 in "private, unlawful surcharges" from nine ticket brokers last year.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the nine cooperated in the investigation. He noted that there are 90 to 100 licensed brokers in the city.

Murray Helwitz, 47, of Great Neck, N.Y., manager of the Shubert theaters' central ticket office, which handles all mail orders and sales to brokers, was indicted Wednesday on charges of violating the city code governing theater ticket sales. The maximum penalty is a year in jail and a $500 fine.

Hogan said the nine brokers paid off once a week, and surcharges ranged from 25 to 50 [illegible] ticket.

Crewman Dies, Four Injured in Train Derailment

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — At least one crewman was killed and four others were injured early today when 17 cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train carrying [illegible] liquid nitrogen derailed near this Washington suburb and caused fire.

Although a tank car carrying the liquid nitrogen ruptured, a team of 75 to 100 men from 17 fire companies brought the fire under control some two hours after it started.

Traffic on nearby highways, halted at the time the fire broke out, resumed as soon as the danger of the nitrogen catching fire had passed.

A spokesman for the Prince Georges County Police Department said one crewman was dead and that four had been injured, but that only one of the injured was hospitalized.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's office in Philadelphia identified the dead man as H. W. Edwards.

Prince Georges General Hospital in nearby Cheverly had no immediate word on the condition of those injured.

1,000 Missions A Week Flown In Viet Nam War

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although hampered by the rainy season, U.S. and South Vietnamese air force planes are flying more than 1,000 missions a week against the Communist insurgents, analysis of recent action reports showed today.

There were 1,150 sorties against the Viet Cong last week and just under 1,300 the week before that.

It was clear from these reports that the controversial T28, a propeller-driven trainer converted into a fighter-bomber, still is carrying much of the attack load.

Another plane mentioned frequently in the combat summaries is the Skyraider dive bomber, which by late summer will replace the T28 and become the standard attack plane in Viet Nam.

The reports sketched a composite picture of strikes being mounted against the Communists both day and night.

The missions covered a wide range—close fire support for ground units of the Vietnamese army, escort of troop-carrying helicopters, reconnaissance, troop and supply lift and the bombing of Viet Cong encampments.

Last week alone, there were claims of 112 Communist-occupied buildings blasted in guerrilla havens.

One of the most interesting kinds of missions involved flying "aerial shotgun" for truck convoys and trains along Viet Nam's single north-south rail line.

The technique involves use of three planes—a light monoplane equipped with a radio and two T28s or Skyraiders.

The light plane, acting as a spotter, flies back and forth over and ahead of the truck convoy or the train, looking for signs of Communist ambush.

If signs of an ambush are detected, the spotter plane radioes a message to the fighters which then swoop to the attack.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson pledged today that the United States will continue to defend southeast Asia against Communist attacks as long as the people of the area are determined to preserve their independence.

The chief U.S. delegate charged that the clear aim of the Indochinese Communist party and the Communist leadership of Viet Nam "is to take over control of all Indochina."

Stevenson, who rushed back Wednesday from a European tour, told the U.N. Security Council that the United States has consistently come to the aid of peoples attacked from the outside.

And it will do so again, he said. "Unless the lesson is learned once and for all by all aggressors that armed aggression does not pay—that it no longer works—that it will not be tolerated."

He asserted that the crisis in southeast Asia "has taken a turn for the worse."

"My government takes a very grave view of these events," he added. "Those who are responsible have set foot upon an exceedingly dangerous path."

The council debate originally was sparked by a Cambodian charge that the United States and South Viet Nam had committed aggression in recent border incidents. Both the United States and Viet Nam replied that the violations were accidental and that they wanted to settle the matter peacefully.

Meanwhile, however, the United States plunged into general exposition of the U.S. policy in all southeast Asia.

Stevenson told the council:

"The United States cannot stand by while southeast Asia is over-run by armed aggression. As long as the peoples of that area are determined to preserve their own independence and ask for our help in preserving it, we will extend it. This, of course, is the meaning of President Johnson's request a few days ago for additional funds for more economic and military assistance for Viet-Nam.

"And if anyone has the illusion that my government will abandon the people of Viet-Nam—or that we shall weary of the burden of support that we are rendering these people—it can only be due to ignorance of

Laos Reds Offer Peace Following Battle Success

TOKYO (AP)—The Laotian Communists have offered peace terms to Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma in the wake of their successful route of his neutralist army from the Plaine des Jarres.

Prince Souphanouvong, chief of the Red Pathet Lao, sent the premier a message demanding punishment of the leaders of the April 19 rightist coup and the return of Pathet Lao soldiers to Vientiane, the Laotian capital, which they left eight months ago after clashing with rightist troops.

"If you act on my proposals," said Souphanouvong, "then I myself, the Neo Lao Haksat (Pathet Lao party) and other patriotic forces will support you and help you to settle the Laotian question in a peaceful way."

It was the first Communist proposal for an end to the fighting, which has put the neutralists on the run after heavy losses of men and materiel.

Western diplomats in Vientiane described Souvanna's position as "desperate." They indicated that outside help would be needed to save the Southeast Asian kingdom from a Communist takeover if the 1962 Geneva accords guaranteeing its neutrality fail.

Reliable sources in Vientiane said the Laotian defense committee, which includes the rightist coup leaders, is pressing Souvanna to ask foreign military and economic help against the Communists.

Enfield Named Third District GOP Chairman

ROCKY FORD (UPI) — Former State Rep. Norman Enfield of Colorado Springs won overwhelming election Wednesday as new Republican chairman of the enlarged 3rd Congressional District.

Enfield defeated former Chairman James Romer of Holly 44-17. Romer was an avowed supporter of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., for the GOP presidential nomination. Enfield has refused to name the man he supports.

Most of the votes against Romer, who has held the post for six years, were believed to have come from representatives of the urban Colorado Springs and Pueblo areas and the newly added northern counties.

Enfield also was believed to be a supporter of William Powers in his bid for re-election as GOP national committeeman. Powers is opposed by oilman John King, a strong Goldwater supporter.

Others elected at Wednesday night's meeting were:

Mrs. Nora Bigelow, Lamar, Mrs. Mary Jo Halleck, Springfield, and Mrs. Mary Peyton, Ordway, all vice-chairmen, and Mrs. Mabel Sheierman, Stratton, seretary. The third district is made up of 25 counties.

City Building Permits Set Record Pace

City building permits continue to be issued at a record pace this year.

The total for 1964 through Wednesday now stands at $12,604,109, according to Perry C. Tyree, city Superintendent of Inspections.

The May total for the first 20 days has been $1,804,436, which compares with $1,944,731 for all of May in 1963.

The 1963 city building permit total was $23,751,816, but the city's all-time building high was $24,455,795 established in 1962.

If building permits continue to be taken out at the pace they have so far this year, 1964 should notch another new record in Colorado Springs construction.

Watering Restrictions Reminded by Official

Colorado Springs water customers used 178 million gallons of the precious necessity in a recent, four-day period, according to a statement today by Water Superintendent Jack McCullough.

The official pointed out the heavy use occurred despite the current restrictions which are applicable to all customers of the Colorado Springs Department of Public Utilities.

Highest consumption day in the period, and the highest for the year to date, was last Friday when consumption soared to 47.7 million gallons. Last Saturday consumption was 46.5 million; 42.2 million Sunday and 41.8 million on Monday of this week.

Concurrent with the accelerated activity in watering lawns, trees and shrubs, were a number of reports of persons watering on days not allocated to them under the existing restrictions. McCullough again pointed out that the existing restrictions have been in force for more than a year and "ignorance can hardly be accepted as an excuse for watering on the wrong days."

He again reminded all customers that persons living in even-numbered houses water on even-numbered days of the month; those in odd-numbered houses on odd-numbered days, with no watering by anyone on the 31st day of any month.

Persons planting lawns in 1964 may water daily on an "honor system" but this easing of the rules will be eliminated effective July 1.

Although a tank car carrying the liquid nitrogen ruptured, a team of 75 to 100 men from 15 fire companies brought the fire under control some two hours after it started.

Traffic on nearby highways, halted at the time the fire broke out, resumed as soon as the danger of the nitrogen catching fire had passed.

British Jets Roar Against Arab Bedouins

By DENNIS NEELD

THUMAIR, Federation of South Arabia (AP)—British jet fighters roared into action today in a major operation to soften up the Radfan rebels of southern Arabia.

Royal Air Force Hunter jets pummeled rebel mountain positions with rockets and cannon in an air strike that may last several days.

Planes dropped leaflets before the attack warning tribesmen to leave the area. The leaflets said the strike was necessary because the tribes were harboring "bad men."

The British threw a column of 50-ton Centurion tanks, accompanied by armored cars, into Wadi Misrah, a rebel lair only two miles from the sweltering, dusty campaign base.

"Our intention is to tighten the squeeze in order to reduce the rebels to a state in which they can no longer wage war against us," said Brig. Hugh

Ernest H. Lind Local Insurance Man, Dies at 51

Ernest H. Lind, 1702 Yuma St., vice president of Bennett-Shellenberger Ltd. and head of the commerce insurance department of the company, died Wednesday at a local hospital. He was a member of the First Congregational Church, the Transportation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and served as a first lieutenant in the Army Transportation Corps in World War II.

ERNEST H. LIND

Mr. Lind was born in Moline, Ill., Jan. 18, 1913. He had been a resident of Colorado Springs since 1956. Prior to coming here he spent seven years in Wichita, Kan., as manager of the Finish Division of Du Pont Co. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Phyllis Lind, manager of Mar Ru, Colorado Springs; a daughter, Jayne, a senior at the Wasson High School, and two brothers, Donald R. Lind, of Wichita, Kan., and Kenneth E. Lind, San Francisco, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Law Drawing Room. The Rev. Joseph W. Carroll will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

O'Rourke Urges More Domestic Sugar Production

ST. LOUIS — A beet sugar marketing quota increase of at least 750,000 tons annually would provide more jobs in the United States, ease the balance of payments problem, help shift production away from surplus crops and increase assurance of ample sugar supplies in this country, a leader of the domestic beet sugar industry declared here today.

These points were made by Dennis O'Rourke, of Colorado Springs, President of Holly Sugar Corporation, in an address before members of the Rotary Club of St. Louis at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

The sugar spokesman said that in response to government urgings when a sugar emergency developed in this country last year, the beet sugar industry increased prooduction by a half-million tons and has in prospect another 250,000-ton increase in sugar production this year. This, he said, represented a "30 per cent jump in production in two years."

"The net effect of all this has been to knock prices down from the high levels they had reached, to continue a price level in the United States among the lowest in the world, and to contribute materially to the nation's future sugar security," he added.

O'Rourke said that there still is cause for concern over too great dependence upon foreign sources of sugar. World supplies still are relatively short, brought about by a combination of declines in production and rising per capita demand and growing world population.

Romania Strikes Out on Its Own As Splinter Red

By HANS BENEDICT

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Romania's Communist regime, in a show of independence from the Soviet Union, is telling its people for the first time that they must go their own way to make communism work.

Diplomatic reports today said that "away from Russian domination" rallies which have been held for about a month in factories and universities often result in anti-Soviet demonstrations protesting Moscow's influence and criticizing Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The meetings have the full support of the party, the reports said.

The reports said the campaign is being staged to familiarize the Romanian people with the contents and aims of the April 22 party declaration in which the Bucharest regime pledged a policy of economic in-

Finnish Soldier Killed by Turks In Cyprus Fight

By ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Turkish Cypriots were blamed today for the first fatality in the U.N. peace force on Cyprus.

U.N. headquarters announced a Finnish radio operator, Juhanu Matikainen, 27, was killed Wednesday night in a two-hour battle between Turkish Cypriots and Finnish patrols.

A U.N. statement said Matikainen was hit by three bullets while sitting in his patrol car in fields near the Turkish village of Kanli, six miles northwest of Nicosia.

The car had accompanied a recovery team to aid another Finnish vehicle that broke down while providing an escort for farmers bringing in their harvest.

Turkish positions fired about 20 shots at the Finnish vehicle, the U.N. statement said. Lt. Col. U. Kettinen, commander of the Finnish battalion, rushed to the area with a platoon and two armored personnel carriers in response for a radio plea for help.

Though the Finns called out their identities, the shooting continued. The Finns returned the fire.

Matikainen was struck once in the head and twice in the chest. The firing stopped after he was hit.

Umit Suleyman, a representative of Turkish Cypriot vice president Fazil Kuchuk, expressed "deep regret" at the incident. He said he would conduct a full investigation and report to the U.N. force.

Ice Cream Man Dispensed Too Much 'Cheer'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The friendly ice cream man—dubbed by police as the "ding-a-ling bootlegger"—has been arrested for dispensing too much cheer.

Police said the vendor, Andrew W. Townsley, 22, sold not only frozen goodies but also alcoholic beverages.

Authorities in nearby District Heights, Md., said they had been hearing about Townsley's dual merchandising role for two weeks.

They said a 16-year-old youth, who admitted he previously had purchased liquor from the ice cream man, was given marked money and told to make another "buy."

Wednesday night as two police officers watched from a parked car, the youth purchased a half-pint of bourbon from the vendor.

Townsley was arrested and charged with selling alcoholic beverages to a minor and contributing to the delinquency of of a minor. He was held in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond on both charges.

Policeman Charles R. Gray, one of the arresting officers, was moved to make this comment: "Pints and popsicles don't mix."

UNITARIAN GROWTH

BOSTON (UPI) — The Unitarian Universalist Assn. is perhaps the fastest growing religious denomination in the United States, an announcement from headquarters here said.

The announcement said recent figures show the Association's growth rate to be seven times that of the entire Protestant community, more than twice that of the Roman Catholic Church and far in excess of that of other major faiths as reported in the 1964 Yearbook of American Churches.

Little Rock Was Symbol of Dixie Opposition

By JAMES R. CAMPBELL

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — A swelling rumble of epithets, a rallying yell and the explosion of a mob emblazoned Little Rock's Central High School in the history of school desegregation.

Little Rock became, rather than the name of a picturesque Southern capital, a battle cry of both sides in the struggle.

The day it happened, Sept. 23, 1957, started peacefully enough. A 17-day confrontation between the Arkansas National Guard, called out by Gov. Orval Faubus, and the federal courts had ended. Nine Negro students were to try again entering Central High School under court order. Their first attempt had been blocked by the guard — Faubus said they acted to prevent bloodshed, but there was no violence.

At 8 a.m. when 124 Little Rock policemen reported at the school there was only one white teenager on hand. But the crowd grew steadily and within a couple of hours numbered about 1,000. Its mood was volatile.

Two blocks away four Negro newsmen emerged from a car.

"Here they come!" someone yelled. A crowd of about 300 fell upon the newsmen.

Meanwhile the Negro pupils were whisked into the school. There was another yell.

"Everybody up here. The niggers are already in. Let's go in and get them out."

The crowd, angry at missing the entry of the students they planned to block, surged against the police barricade.

The police line, reinforced by 34 state troopers, held. But the scene was described as "unrestrained hysteria" by the Arkansas Gazette. Finally only removal of the Negroes from the school three hours later quelled the mob.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower was outraged. He sent troops of the 101st Airborne Division and on Sept. 25 the Negro pupils went to school under federal military escort. The National Guard also had been nationalized.

The bitterness did not die quickly, nor is it all gone today, but the mood has changed.

Late in March of this year about 60 members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and the Council on Community Affairs picketed outside the building where the Little Rock School Board was meeting to technically erase segregation at all levels of the school system. A handful of white teen-agers tried unsuccessfully to bait the Negroes into a fight.

The Negroes this year were protesting "token" integration. They said only 123 of the city's 7,000 Negro pupils go to school with whites. A boycott of all schools by Negro students was called for April 6, but was called off at the urging of several religious and civic groups.

Negro leaders say more direct action can be expected if desegregation is not speeded up promptly. They called Little Rock's image "a fraud."

Nigeria has about a dozen major language groupings which break down into some 200 tribal dialects.

Hips Quicker Than Eye, Says Hula Dancer

By DICK KLEINER

WORLD'S FAIR, N.Y. (NEA) —It turns out we should all be very grateful that the pili grass isn't what it used to be.

Loke Helena Linfa Ontai is the source of this horticultural happiness. Her professional name is Loki, and she is one of the world's foremost hula dancers. When she dances, she proves that the hips are quicker than the eye.

She is also a bright girl who has done some studying of hula history. And this is where the pili grass rears its ugly, but happily almost extinct, head.

Loki, who is in New York to swivel through the show at the Hawaiian Pavilion at the World's Fair, says she learned her hula from the old traditionalists on Oahu.

"In Hawaii," she says, "the hula is something every little girl must learn. Like piano lessons here."

And these undulating purists used — if they could get it — pili grass for their skirts. Pili grass, Loke says, was what the ancient Hawaiians used. It was thick and heavy and, when sewn into skirt shape, it hid every curve. The old timers used to wrap their torsos in thick cloth, too. The result was that old authentic hula girls were about as sexy as a modest moving van.

"But then," Loki says, "the pili grass began to die out. And so they started making skirts out of ti grass."

This crop is more flexible, sways better and, when a hula girl works up a good head of steam, it creates a nice motion and lets you get an occasional peek of leg. About the same time, Loki says, the Hawaiian girls began to use an adaptation of a Tahitian lava-lava for their tops. This is the same garment which led to Dorothy Lamour's sarong, so you can see it represented progress.

Loki admits that traditional Hawaiians are shocked at what has happened to their hula, but she feels it's a good thing. "The grass skirt is a happy medium," she says, "between the stuffy traditional dance and the extreme burlesque version."

And it is this happy medium which Loki practices. She grew up wanting to be an artist, and came to New York at first to study art. But whenever she told people she came from Hawaii, she was asked to hula—she finally shrugged and became a dancer.

She is a stirring combination of Hawaiian, English and Chinese. Her great-grandfather was a man named Theophilus Metcalf who arrived from New England, married a chieftess' daughter, and was given a grant of a pie-shaped piece of land.

"Unfortunately," Loke says, "he forgot to pay his taxes and he lost the land. But that's the land on which there is today the University of Hawaii and the Moana Hotel, among other goodies."

Her family's loss, however, is the audiences' gain. Thanks to old Theophilus' forgetfulness and good old ti grass, Loki is in our midst with a hula calculated to make strong men weep.

LAND LIKE A 'COPTER'

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—In the hope of providing something like "instant airports" for future jets which will need no runways, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base engineers are experimenting with such soil hardeners as plastics, varnishes and cements.

If some workable material is found, they say, it could be dropped or sprayed from the vertical-takeoff - and - landing (VTOL) jet. The craft then could land or take off without kicking up engine - damaging dust and dirt which might also obscure pilot vision or alert an enemy.

Preacher Says North Has Race Segregation Too

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Tall, ruddy and Texan, the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Moody—transplanted from the South to an integrated church in New York City's Greenwich Village—believes racial liberalism in the North is mostly skin-deep.

"I just feel that when the chips are down the Northern white man, even though he professes to be liberal, really doesn't react any different than the Southern white," said Moody in an interview.

Moody, 43, has told delegates to the American (northern) Baptist Convention that when the Negro revolution reached into the big cities of the North last summer it caused "the retreat of the white liberal in the North."

The minister practices the liberalism he preaches. He was arrested last summer for kneeling in front of a cement truck in Brooklyn to protest job discrimination.

"The past twelve months have been really revealing," he told a reporter. "It's not saying the North shouldn't care what happens in the South, but our self-righteousness has been exposed."

When civil rights demands tightened in the North, Moody said, it became evident that "there was no great difference in the white northerner and the white southerner."

Northern liberals, he said, always were better prepared for "integration in the South than next door up north."

"The Negro is a little bit fed up with the proclamations of the white liberals."

Moody said the white "backlash" to the Negro's drive in the North has set back civil rights efforts.

"It is going to slow up the pace of the civil rights movement," he said. "It already has."

However, Moody—born in Dallas and educated in Texas, California and at Yale—believes the recognizing of true feelings is a necessary step toward ultimate solution of racial issues.

MISSIONER BECOMES COFFEE EXPERT

MARYKNOLL, N.Y. (UPI)—A Maryknoll Missioner who spent one of his vacation periods studying all about coffee culture established a coffee marketing cooperative in Huehuetenango, Guatemala, that has doubled the income of the people of his parish.

Father Edward L. Doheny, of Milwaukee, Wis., decided to form the coffee cooperative when he found out that the people were losing money because they did not know the differences in coffee quality and did not know the differences in coffee quality and value.

Before World War II there were 500,000 Jews living in Germany; now there are only 30,000.

Laxity of JFK Guard Charged By Chicagoan

CHICAGO (AP) — A Secret Service agent, accused of soliciting a $50,000 payoff, has charged the government with framing him because he planned to reveal the "over-all general laxity" of agents guarding the late President John F. Kennedy.

Abraham Bolden, 29, the first Negro to serve on the White House Secret Service detail, said Wednesday that agents guarding President Kennedy drank heavily before and after hours of duty at Washington and Hyannis Port, Mass. He also said they often reported half drunk for duty or missed their assignments completely.

Bolden was suspended Tuesday after he was charged with attempting to sell a top-secret government file to a defendant in an alleged crime syndicate counterfeiting operation. Officials said Bolden's arrest was the first taint of its kind in the Secret Service.

In a news conference called in his home Wednesday, Bolden denied the accusations against him.

He said the government trumped up the charges because it knew he was planning to tell the Warren Commission of the drinking.

"I'm not trying to [illegible] what happened in Dallas," Bolden said, "but I intend to tell the Warren Commission what I know."

He was assigned to the White House [illegible] periods in June and July of 1961. He said that at one point he told James J. Rowley, head of the Secret Service, of the drinking incidents but no action was taken.

U.S. Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan branded Bolden's allegations as fantasy.

Hughes Blocks Move For 'Favorite Son'

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — Gov. Richard J. Hughes has blocked a move to make him a favorite son candidate for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination.

Hughes said Wednesday night he had vetoed a plan to commit New Jersey's 77 votes to him at the Democratic National Convention.

"I'd rather President Johnson express his own views on a running mate," said Hughes. "In fact, it would not be considered presumptuous I would encourage him to express his own views."

A resolution endorsing Hughes was introduced by Bergen County's delegation to a meeting of New Jersey leaders mapping plans for the convention.

New Roadblock Is Planned At Ole Miss

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The State Senate quickly approved a bill Wednesday which would throw a new roadblock in front of a 17-year-old Negro's application for admission to the University of Mississippi.

The House may act today on the emergency bill rushed through the Senate. It would authorize youth courts to make records available to colleges and universities.

The applicant has a youth court record of arrests for participating in integration demonstrations. An arrest record could be used to close his entry at [illegible], Miss.

Youths Injured When Motorcycle Strikes Culvert

Two boys were injured Wednesday night when the motorcycle on which they were riding hit a cement culvert on Sinton Road, the State Patrol reported. The accident happened two tenths of a mile north of Fillmore Street.

Michael Ray George, 12, of 2917 N Beacon St., suffered bruises and abrasions and was taken to Penrose Hospital. He was a passenger on the back of the vehicle.

The driver, Clifford Hugh Flaxbeard, 15, of 2626 N Main St., suffered abrasions and was released at the scene.

The motorcycle was going south when it went off the road onto the shoulder and traveled for 60 feet before hitting the culvert and throwing both boys to the ground, the State Patrol said. Flaxbeard said an unknown car drove up behind the motorcycle at high speed forcing him to go off on the shoulder.

Nasser's comments were in reply to Khrushchev's Aswan speech Saturday in which the Soviet premier said [illegible] be based on class struggle rather than nationalism.

In a [illegible] impassioned talk about Arab unity, Khrushchev complained it seemed there was no place for the Russians in the Arab world.

Nasser [illegible] Wednesday that the Arab unity movement recognized its ties with revolutionary movements elsewhere in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Khrushchev spoke later and departed from his text to repeat his contention that the class struggle should prevail over nationalism.

But Khrushchev, to placate his host, added: "We wish with all our hearts for you to unite so that you can become a great power and so that you may become strong. Our policies and interests not only do not conflict but go parallel with yours."

Khrushchev conferred Wednesday with Ahmed Shukairy, Palestinian delegate to the Arab League. Shukairy said his talk with the Soviet leader was "of paramount importance."

"Soviet support of the Arab and Palestinian cases against Israel will soon increase inside as well as outside the United Nations," Shukairy said.

Stevens Resigns Canon City School Post

Ralph P. Moneil, superintendent of schools of the Fremont Re-1 School District, has announced that Avery Stevens, elementary schools supervisor, has resigned to accept a similar post in Douglas county.

Stevens will be supervisor for the eastern half of Douglas county, including schools at Parker, Franktown and Cherry Valley, and will report to his new assignment on August 1.

Stevens has been with the Canon City school system since April of 1961, working before that with the Centennial School Supply for ten years. He is a member of the Lions Club, Toastmasters, V F W, and the Victor Elks Lodge. He is also a member of the Canon City Public Library Board.

Anti-Defamation Members Told to Work for Harmony

Members of the Colorado Springs Anti - Defamation League were asked Wednesday night to work a little harder and give a little more so that American adults and children can live, work and play together in peace, harmony and dignity.

The speaker was [illegible] national chairman of the league. He and Benjamine R. Epstein, the league's national director, spoke [illegible] the ADL Appeal.

The campaign was kicked off at a dinner meeting held in the Antlers Hotel.

Dr. Phineas Bernstein, local medical doctor and civic leader, received a certificate of Appreciation from the National Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and from the Mountain States Regional office of the League.

Bernstein was cited for his dedicated and rewarding efforts in the development of better human relations among his fellow men.

The award was presented by [illegible] Steinhauser of the Mountain States office.

[illegible] was not passed [illegible]

He said the nation faces five main problems today:

1. [illegible] rights [illegible]

2. Political extremism, which comes inevitably with presidential election years.

3. Discrimination in education, which now is being attacked [illegible].

4. [illegible] Jewish [illegible] which are getting better.

5. Discrimination in employment and housing.

He said the Pres. Kennedy was the first American president to state that civil rights issue is a moral issue.

What is needed today, Epstein said, is a commitment to break the silence.

He said that a book that has provoked discussion around the world is the play "The Deputy," written by a young German. This play deals with Hitler's extermination of Jews and the position of Pope Pius [illegible].

It accuses Pius of keeping quiet when he should have spoken out against the Nazi policies. Epstein said there was a void when the pope did not speak out and announce his public opposition to the Nazis and their mass murder of Jews.

Jews, Protestants and political leaders as well did not speak out, Epstein added.

"We were all guilty because of our silence," he said.

Likewise, as there was a responsibility in the 1930's to speak out, so is there a responsibility today to speak out for social justice, Epstein declared.

He asked the question from the story in Genesis, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

"All the rest of the Old Testament thunders yes," he stated.

He declared that 1963 was a year of crisis. "Many were frightened. There was violence as many had not seen it before," he said.

"Synagogues were bombed, churches were bombed and negro girls were killed. Medgar Evans, a leader of the NAACP was killed and finally we saw our president, Pres. Kennedy, killed."

"We wondered if we were living in a climate of hate. Then there was an awakening of the American people and pangs of conscience," he stated.

"Now," he said, "we may see positive action."

He urged all to accept a commitment to break silence and be heard in favor of justice and equality for all.

"We must meet the challenge of the issue before us vigorously, publicly and courageously," he declared.

Scultz, less of an orator than Epstein, nonetheless by his intense sincerity held the attention of the gathering like an elder brother home from world travels and recounting his adventure to his younger siblings.

He urged all people to work harder for civil rights and equality for all.

No man's rights are secure unless all men's rights are secure, he said.

[illegible] years [illegible] seen in the Jewish community a unique and [illegible].

"Those of us who work in the ADL have seen people come to these shores who felt at home at once. For the first time they felt like people and their hearts began to sing."

He said that ten years ago when the Supreme Court handed down the decision that negroes were entitled to equal rights, the ADL warned that there would be trouble.

"And trouble looms ahead now," he stated. "When school is out and masses of people begin to [illegible] in recreation areas, we are going to have trouble."

dependence from Moscow and [illegible] ties with the West.

However, diplomatic observers stress that the atmosphere in Romania is far from open hostility toward the Soviet Union. They rule out the possibility of political ferment that could lead to an uprising similar to that in Hungary in 1956.

For one thing, Romania is not occupied by Soviet troops. On the other hand, the regime has to live down its Stalinist past and openly encourages a Communist-type nationalism which a decade ago it branded as treason and Titoism.

The Romanian party declaration published April 25 declared that all Communist parties are equal. It said Romania wants to remain a member of Comecon, the East bloc's economic organization. But it also wants to retain full freedom to develop closer trade relations with the West.

A high-level Romanian mission is in Washington now for talks on political and economic relations.

Bike Rider Hurt In Collision With Car

Rodney Ratzlaff, 2230 Frontier Dr., Security, was taken to the Security Medical Center.

State Patrolman J. McDaniel said the boy was riding east when he veered into the side of the eastbound car of William Ward, 30, of 2417 Ivanhoe Dr., Security. The Ward car was passing the bicycle at the time of the accident.

The Great Gates concerns the histories of passes in the Rocky Mountains of this country and Canada. The Great Gates, filled with many illustrations of the passes, also lists eight hundred Rocky Mountain passes with their locations, altitudes and brief descriptions for the benefit of latter-day explorers.

Sprague, a resident of Colorado Springs, is well known for his books Money Mountain, the history of the Cripple Creek Gold Rush; Massacre, the Tragedy at White River, a factual account of the Ute War in Colorado in 1879, and others.

Virginia Kirkus observes that Sprague offers to the traveler a choice of 800 spots to explore. He tells of the explorers, trappers, gold seekers, scientists, politicians, railroad builders and motorists who have traversed these famous passes in their varied quests. He also gives data on drainage, terrain, timber, and other matters of interest. He has developed a handbook that deserves a place in the glove compartment of the family car next time its tank is full and its nose points West.

A review of this new book by Sprague will appear in Sunday's Gazette Telegraph.

Returning to the specific issue of Cambodia, Stevenson offered these three additional suggestions:

That the [illegible] Cambodia and South Viet Nam [illegible] establish a substantial military force on a bilateral basis to observe and patrol the border and report to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

—That the bilateral force be augmented by U.N. observers and possibly placed under U.N. command to provide an impartial third party element representing the world community.

Justice Fines Driver $30 on Traffic Counts

Emilio Trujillo, 41, 331[illegible] [illegible]bell Lane was fined $30 and costs in Justice of the Peace James F. Quinn's court Wednesday for hit and run and failing to notify the authorities he had changed his address. Another charge of careless driving was dismissed. The defendant was ticketed April 3 on Fillmore Street by State Patrolman J. E. McDaniel.

McDaniel also gave a ticket to William Raymond Leckemay, 43, 2215 N. Cascade Ave., for careless driving on U.S. Highway 85-87 May 10. A $10 fine and costs was imposed.

Driving with expired registration Friday cost Richard Rice Bonner, 19, Slocum Hall, $5 and costs. Police Officer A. W. Dalton gave him the ticket on Nevada Avenue.

Leonard Pegues, 30, 602 E. Willamette St., was found guilty of speeding and fined $10 and costs. According to State Patrolman J. Mathis, the defendant was driving at 70 miles per hour in a 60 zone on Colorado Highway 115 March 28.

Vernon Lee Garnier, 34, 1936 Downing Dr., was also charged with speeding and fined $10 and costs. State Patrolman A. G. Murin told the judge that Garnier was driving on Fillmore Street Saturday at 40 miles per hour where the speed limit was 30.

Socorro Clinic Doctors in Seminar Here

Two doctors from the Socorro Medical Clinic in New Mexico will give a seminar here Saturday and Sunday under the sponsorship of the Society of Metaphysical Arts.

They are Dr. John Aiken and Dr. Louisa Aiken, graduates of Pennsylvania State University and the Kirksville, Mo., College of Osteopathy and Surgery. The former studied a year at McCormick Theological Seminary and served one year as student pastor.

Dr. John Aiken is a member of the executive council of Spiritual Frontiers Fellowship, is an elder in the Presbyterian Church, president of the Rotary Club and served as a member of the Socorro City Council for 10 years.

Dr. Louisa Aiken is engaged in general medical practice with her chief interest obstetrics.

The two physicians are known for their outstanding research in the medical field comparative religion and Oriental philosophy. They are known especially for their research in psychedelic drugs and have contributed valuable information on their findings in this ancient field of drug therapy that dates back to the early Egyptians.

Dr. Aiken will speak at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Modern Woodmen Hall on the subject "The Secret Teachings of Jesus: What is He really saying to us?" The lecture is open to the public free of admission and a reception will follow with refreshments served.

He will speak on "Research in Psychedelics" at 2:15 p.m. Sunday, and again at 7:30 p.m. on "Who Am I? What is My Essential Being?"

Members of SOMA and SFF are cooperating in presenting the seminar in the interest of Colorado Springs residents.

Woman Gets Suspended Jail Sentence Here

Mrs. Sandra T. Holmstrom received a suspended sentence of six months in County Jail plus $8.60 costs from Justice of the Peace H. C. McShane Wednesday after she was found guilty of short check.

Mrs. Holmstrom, 27, 1222 Bristol Ave., was accused of issuing a $24 check March 28 with intent to defraud Millers Super Markets No. 31.

Another defendant pleaded guilty to shoplifting and was fined $25 and $7 costs.

Frederick David Taylor, 34, 425 S. Weber St., stole merchandise worth a total of $2.16 from Simms Super Inc. No. 3 May 1.

[illegible] on a possible political settlement of the grim South Viet Nam problem.

Rusk is vigorously opposed to extending the war beyond South Viet Nam's borders. Supported by Undersecretary Averell Harriman, Rusk is advocating the convening of a Geneva-type conference to negotiate a neutralization agreement that would include Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam. The two State Department chiefs are willing to exclude Communist North Viet Nam from such an agreement.

No decision on these momentous proposals is likely until the middle of June, when the build-up in light bombers and other arms has been completed.

PROS AND CONS

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and the three service members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff strongly favor air strikes at the privileged Communist sanctuaries in Laos and North Viet Nam.

General Maxwell Taylor, Joint Chiefs chairman, is withholding a recommendation pending additional intelligence reports on the strength and disposition of North Vietnamese forces massing on South Viet Nam's borders. Latest intelligence [illegible] that they are now equivalent to two combat divisions.

U.S. commanders in South Viet Nam [illegible] supported by Ambassador Lodge, are warning [illegible] large Red forces [illegible] imminent massive assaults against major South Vietnamese strongholds. They view the situation as extremely threatening.

In preparation for possible air strikes beyond South Viet Nam borders, President Johnson is having a study made of the need for congressional approval.

Administration and congressional authorities have divided [illegible] [illegible] election year.

The President, in a [illegible] bipartisan congressional leaders, disclosed he made a highly significant discovery in reading minutes of the National Security Council under the late President Kennedy.

These records revealed a definite decision had been made to employ U.S. troops to prevent Vientiane, southern capital of Laos, from falling into the hands of the Communist Pathet Lao. This fateful commitment is still in force.

It was agreed on at the insistence of the Joint Chiefs of Staff who warned that loss of Vientiane to the Reds would pose a dire threat to Thailand as well as South Viet Nam and that it would be necessary for the U.S. to employ its forces to save both countries.

In the President's discussion with the bipartisan congressional leaders he gave no indication of his attitude regarding this momentous decision.

However, Pentagon authorities have formulated contingency plans for rushing U.S. troops to Vientiane and Thailand as determined by the National Security Council under President Kennedy.

Note: Defense Secretary McNamara has been asked by the President to keep in close touch with both management and labor in the approaching automobile contract negotiations. McNamara, former Ford president, already has had private talks with Walter Reuther, United Auto Workers head, and has others slated with key motor manufacturers.

MAN TO SEE

If you want to be sure to get a message to President Johnson, the one man certain to do it is his special assistant Jack Valenti.

Authority for that is none other than the President himself.

The President gave this inside tip to an old newspaper friend — an American foreign correspondent visiting Washington. He has known the President since his early days in Congress, and told him he had encountered difficulty in communicating with him since entering the White House.

"From time to time," said the newsman, "I've sent you some things that I thought would be helpful. But since you have been President, these messages apparently haven't reached you."

"That's possible," replied the President. "Hereafter, if you want to communicate with me, do it through Jack Valenti. Any message you send him will get to me. You can be sure of that. George Reedy, press secretary, and some of the others keep things from me. But not Jack. He sees that I get everything."

The President [illegible] the correspondent to keep him informed "of what our ambassadors are not telling me. Let me know the bad as well as the good," he urged.

During the hour-hour discussion the President evinced particular curiosity about President De Gaulle, asking, "What's bothering him? Why is he acting against the best interests of the West? None of the State Department people seem to know. I have yet to get a satisfactory answer from any of them."

"Maybe De Gaulle suspects that the U.S. and Russia are secretly working on terms on Europe and other key areas of the world," suggested the newsman.

The President said nothing but nodded his head as if he had heard that before.

British Jets Roar Against Arab Bedouins

Blacker, commander of the attack force.

British paratroops Wednesday occupied the village and fort of Hajib, a key post from which the rebels had been observing British army movements.

British officers believe they have cut off many rebel supply routes from neighboring Yemen, but the area is such a maze of hidden tracks it is difficult to isolate the tribesmen entirely.

The current action is being pressed at the start of the planting season. Almost the entire arable area has been deserted by the populace. The British hope the prospect of hunger may bring the rebels to terms.

Picnickers Asked To Use Already Built Fireplaces

Residents using outlying city parks were requested today to start fires, if a fire is necessary, in a picnic [illegible] only fireplaces that are already constructed.

Stuart Richter, director of the City Parks and Recreation Department, said it was felt necessary to make such a request because of the dryness of the grass, brush and timber.

He also suggested that if a fire is needed that as small a one as possible be utilized.

This edict applies to all outlying parks such as Palmer Park, North Cheyenne Canon and the Garden of the Gods but also elsewhere in city parks where fireplaces are available.

about sabotage and minor forays by junta forces led by Manuel Ray. But the Havana regime's radio confirmed none of them. Exiles recalled, however, that it took Havana radio 15 hours to confirm last week's attack on a sugar mill by an exile group.

The junta's statement appealed to all Cuban exiles to help the fight to overthrow Castro.

"Popular victory does not come in the form of spectacular invasion," it added.

No action was announced by two other leading militant forces among the exiles, the Revolutionary Recovery Movement, which attacked the sugar mill, and the forces headed by guerrilla fighter Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo.

Various reports circulated in Miami about events purportedly occurring in Cuba but there was no confirmation from Havana.

The reports included:

A broadcast, presumably from Cuba, indicating two boats fired on a lighthouse at an unidentified point on the Cuban coast.

A similar broadcast, reported by Miami radio station WIOD, that a Cuban navy patrol boat sighted two "intruder B26 bomber planes" just off Cuba. The broadcast mentioned no firing.

In New York, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant wrote Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa that he is studying steps he might take to prevent further deterioration of U.S.-Cuban relations over the continuance of U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba. Thant did not elaborate.

with the microphone cable or her side banter.

"Sing, sing!" and "Get on with it," a few shouted, and soon the auditorium resounded with slow, prodding clapping.

The audience's mood wasn't improved when Miss Garland took a half-hour intermission. She sang three more songs on her return, but the lyrics were fragmentary and the customers began drifting to the doors.

Miss Garland curtly left without any farewell, letting the orchestra play "Over The Rainbow"—her theme—by itself. The musicians departed amid howls.

J. D. Thomson, secretary of the Victoria branch of the Musicians' Union, said today that whenever Miss Garland "messed up a song" she blamed it on the orchestra.

Miss Garland's manager, Karl Brent, said the audience should have accepted her apology for being late.

Youths Injured When Motorcycle Strikes Culvert

Two boys were injured Wednesday night when the motorcycle on which they were riding hit a cement culvert on Sinton Road, the State Patrol reported. The accident happened two tenths of a mile north of Fillmore Street.

Michael Ray George, 12, of 2917 N. Beacon St., suffered bruises and abrasions and was taken to Penrose Hospital. He was a passenger on the back of the vehicle.

The driver, Clifford Hugh Flaxbeard, 15, of 2626 N. Main St., suffered abrasions and was released at the scene.

The motorcycle was going south when it went off the road onto the shoulder and traveled for 60 feet before hitting the culvert and throwing both boys to the ground, the State Patrol said. Flaxbeard said an unknown car drove up behind the motorcycle at high speed forcing him to go off on the shoulder.

Cameras, Projectors Missing From Store

Four cameras and six projectors worth a total of $1,039 were stolen from Stewarts Photo Service, 334 Main St., Security, the sheriff's department reported Wednesday.

According to Deputy Sheriff Harry Orvis entry was made by forcing the front door sometime late Tuesday or early Wednesday morning. A number of other cameras were scattered over the floor. Some were damaged and one was beyond repair.

Nikita Given Big Welcome In Alexandria

Egyptian into custody. He tried to bound across the tracks at the railway station to reach Khrushchev, but tripped and fell.

Khrushchev waved from his flag-bedecked car as it was pulled slowly into the station by two engines bearing giant portraits of Nasser and Khrushchev.

Two Russian children stepped forward with bouquets, and Khrushchev wowed the crowd by tossing his into a group of welcomers. Who got the bouquet was a mystery.

In their first public debate since Khrushchev arrived May 9 for his 17-day state visit, Nasser vigorously restated his dream of Arab unity as "a sacred goal" in a speech Wednesday at Cairo's City Hall.

Nasser's comments were in reply to Khrushchev's Aswan speech Saturday in which the Soviet premier said unity should be based on class struggle rather than nationalism.

In all the impassioned talk about Arab unity, Khrushchev complained, it seemed there was no place for the Russians in the Arab world.

Nasser replied Wednesday that the Arab unity movement recognized its ties with revolutionary movements elsewhere in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Khrushchev spoke later and departed from his text to repeat his contention that the class struggle should prevail over nationalism.

But Khrushchev, to placate his host, added: "We wish with all our hearts for you to unite so that you can become a great power and so that you may become strong. Our policies, our interests, not only do not conflict but go parallel with yours."

Khrushchev conferred Wednesday with Ahmed Shukairy, Palestinian delegate to the Arab League. Shukairy said his talk with the Soviet leader was "of paramount importance."

"Soviet support of the Arab and Palestinian cases against Israel will soon increase inside as well as outside the United Nations," Shukairy said.

Stevens Resigns Canon City School Post

Ralph P. Monell, superintendent of schools of the Fremont Re-1 School District, has announced that Avery Stevens, elementary schools supervisor, has resigned to accept a similar post in Douglas county.

Stevens will be supervisor for the eastern half of Douglas county, including schools at Parker, Franktown and Cherry Valley, and will report to his new assignment on August 1.

Stevens has been with the Canon City school system since April of 1961, working before that with the Centennial School Supply for ten years. He is a member of the Lions Club, Toastmasters, V.F.W., and the Victor Elks Lodge. He is also a member of the Canon City Public Library Board.

Anti-Defamation Members Told to Work for Harmony

Members of the Colorado Springs Anti - Defamation League were asked Wednesday night to work a little harder and give a little more so that American adults and children can live, work and play together in peace, harmony and dignity.

The speaker was Henry E. Scultz, honorary national chairman of the league. He and Benjamin R. Epstein, the league's national director, spoke at the opening of the Campaign for the ADL Appeal.

The campaign was kicked off at a dinner meeting held in the Antlers Hotel.

Dr. Phineas Bernstein, local medical doctor and civic leader, received a Certificate of Appreciation from the National Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, and from the Mountain States Regional Office of the League.

Bernstein was cited for his "dedicated and rewarding efforts in the development of better human relations among his fellow men."

The award was presented by Sheldon Steinhauser, of the Mountain States office.

Steinhauser said that Bernstein was a most active leader who could always be counted on for service.

Bernstein said: "We must take a long, hard look at where we stand today, and what lies ahead. We have a responsibility to uphold human dignity and the democratic ideals which we hold dear."

Epstein said that Americans must break their silence and meet the problem that faces the nation today in the civil rights issue.

Epstein reported to the group the words of the late Pres. John F. Kennedy spoke at a meeting on civil rights about a year ago.

The president said that if the civil rights bill was not passed his administration might go, but that was not so important, but what was important was that the United States might go into decline and fail, Epstein said.

"That is the issue. That is the challenge," Epstein declared.

He said the nation faces five main problems today:

1. The civil rights issues, which is the current negro crisis.

2. Political extremism, which comes inevitably with presidential election years.

3. Discrimination in education, which now is being attacked by academic methods.

4. Catholic-Jewish relations, which are getting better.

5. Discrimination in economics and housing.

He said the Pres. Kennedy was the first American president to state that civil rights issue is a moral issue.

What is needed today, Epstein said, "is a committement to break the silence."

He said that a book that has provoked discussion arund the world is the play "The Deputy," written by a young German. This play deals with Hitler's extermination of Jews and the position of Pope Pious on that issue.

It accuses Pious of keeping quiet when he should have spoken out against the Nazi policies. Epstein said thre was a void when the pope did not speak out and announce his public opposition to the Nazis and their mass murder of Jews.

"Jews, Protestants and political leaders, as well, did not speak out," Epstein added.

"We were all guilty because of our silence," he said.

Likewise, as there was a responsibility in the 1930's to speak out, so is there a responsibility today to speak out for social justice, Epstein declared.

He asked the question from the story in Genesis, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

"All the rest of the Old Testament thunders yes," he stated.

He declared that 1963 was a year of crisis. "Many were frightened. There was violence as many had not seen it before," he said.

"Synagogues were bombed, churches were bombed and negro girls were killed, Medgar Evans a leader of the NAACP was killed, and finally we saw our president, Pres. Kennedy, killed."

"We wondered if we were living in a climate of hate. Then there was an awakening of the American people and pangs of conscience," he stated.

"Now," he said, "we may see positive action."

He urged all to accept a committment to break silence and be heard in favor of justice and equality for all.

"We must meet the challenge of the issue before us, vigorously, publicly and courageously," he declared.

Scultz, less of an orator than Epstein, nonetheless by his intense sincerity held the attention of the gathering like an elder brother home from world travels and recounting his adventure to his younger siblings.

He urged all people to work harder for civil rights and equality for all.

"No man's right are secure unless all men's rights are secure," he said.

"Our republic, less than 200 years old, has seen in its Jewish community a unique and wonderful thing," Schultz said.

"I wonder if we Jews who are the sons of immigrant parents who lived in oppression know what this American dream is all about," he said.

"Those of us who work in this (ADL) have seen people come to these shores who felt at home at once. For the first time they felt like people and their hearts began to sing."

He said that ten years ago when the Supreme Court handed down the decision that negroes were entitled to equal rights, the ADL warned that there would be trouble.

"And trouble looms ahead now," he stated. "When school is out and masses of people begin collecting in recreation areas, we are going to have trouble."

"Young Negroes today are anxious to help their cause and unless the civil rights bill now being debated in the senate is not passed quickly, there will be grave difficulties," he said.

Schultz, a lawyer, charged that Alabama Gov. Wallace is misrepresenting the text of the civil rights bill. Wallace has lots of money behind him and plays on the prejudices of the American people, he declared.

There is nothing new and different in the civil rights bill, he explained, saying that it merely represents the mechanisms for enforcing the law which "all of us thought everyone had anyhow in our basic American documents," Schultz said.

He said that passage of the bill is the will of the people, emotionally, spiritually, and practically.

He cited a comparison today with the nation 30 years ago when there was labor discord and new labor legislation was passed that essentially brought harmony to labor.

He said it will take years to work out civil rights, but a start must be made. "It is a beginning which must begin," he declared.

He said that the ADL will be called on for help across the nation as the country attempts to meet its problem in civil rights.

He said that all people who believe in equal rights should help the cause to bring peace, harmony and dignity.

Romania Strikes Out on Its Own As Splinter Red

dependence from Moscow and closer ties with the West.

However, diplomatic observers stress that the atmosphere in Romania is far from open hostility toward the Soviet Union. They rule out the possibility of political ferment that could lead to an uprising similar to that in Hungary in 1956.

For one thing, Romania is not occupied by Soviet troops. On the other hand, the regime has to live down its Stalinist past and openly encourages a Communist-type nationalism which a decade ago it branded as treason and "Titoism."

The Romanian party declaration, published April 25, declared that all Communist parties are equal. It said Romania wants to remain a member of Comecon, the East bloc's economic organization. But it also wants to retain full freedom to develop closer trade relations with the West.

A high-level Romanian mission is in Washington now for talks on political and economic relations.

Bike Rider Hurt In Collision With Car

Rodney Ratzlaff, 2230 Frontier Dr., Security, was taken to the Security Medical Center.

State Patrolman J. McDaniel said the boy was riding east when he veered into the side of the eastbound car of William Ward, 30, of 2417 Ivanhoe Dr., Security. The Ward car was passing the bicycle at the time of the accident.

Autograph Party Scheduled for Sprague Book

Van Peit, trumpet, Tom Ross, clarinet, Jack Geisler, baritone, Bill Patterson, drums, Ab Abbott, bass, and John Paul Jones, guitar.

It promises to be the big literary party of the season for the hefty 468-page volume, "The Great Gates, the Story of the Rocky Mountain Passes," published by Little Brown, and, by the way, of such thorough research and well-told content that it has been recommended "for all libraries" by the Library Journal ($7.50).

As the publishers explain, "in the entire colorful history of the far West, as dramatic a chapter as any concerns the passes, those all-important cuts in the Rockies which enabled trappers and tourists, soldiers and scientists to traverse the forbidding ranges more easily. . . The Great Gates concerns the histories of passes in the Rocky Mountains of this country and Canada. The Great Gates, filled with many illustrations of the passes, also lists eight hundred Rocky Mountain passes with their locations, altitudes and brief descriptions, for the benefit of latter-day explorers."

Sprague, a resident of Colorado Springs, is well-known for his books Money Mountain, the history of the Cripple Creek Gold Rush; Massacre, the Tragedy at White River, a factual account of the Ute War in Colorado in 1879, and others.

Virginia Kirkus observes that Sprague offers to the traveler a choice of 800 spots to explore. He tells of the explorers, trappers, gold seekers, scientists, politicians, railroad builders, and motorists who have traversed these famous passes in their varied quests. He also gives data on drainage, terrain, timber, and other matters of interest. He has developed a handbook that deserves a place in the glove compartment of the family car next time its tank is full and its nose points West.

A review of this new book by Sprague will appear in Sunday's Gazette Telegraph.

U. S. Will Defend Southeast Asia, Adlai Informs U.N.

the determination and stamina of the American people."

He declared there is a very simple way to restore order in southeast Asia and to bring about the end of the U.S. military aid to South Viet Nam.

"Let all foreign troops withdraw from Laos," he said.

"Let all states in that area make the simple decision to leave their neighbors alone. Stop the secret subversion of other people's independence. Stop the clandestine and illegal transit of national frontiers. Stop the export of revolution and the doctrine of violence. Stop the violations of the political agreements reached at Geneva for the future of southeast Asia.

"The people of Laos want to be left alone.

"The people of Viet-Nam want to be left alone.

"The people of Cambodia want to be left alone.

"When their neighbors decide to leave them alone — as they must—there will be no fighting in southeast Asia and no need for American advisers to leave their homes to help these people resist aggression. Any time that decision can be put in enforceable terms, my government will be only too happy to put down the burden that we have been sharing with those determined to preserve their independence. Until such assurances are forthcoming, we shall stand for the independence of free peoples in southeast Asia as we have elsewhere."

Returning to the specific issue of Cambodia, Stevenson offered these three additional suggestions:

—That the council request Cambodia and South Viet Nam to establish a substantial military force on a bilateral basis to observe and patrol the frontier and report to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

—That the bilateral force be augmented by U.N. observers and possibly placed under U.N. command to provide an impartial third party element "representing the world community."

—That an all U.N.-force be established to patrol the border. This would be more expensive, but if this was proved desirable "the United States will be prepared to contribute."

Stevenson branded as "malicious fairy tales, charges made by the Soviet Union on Tuesday that the United States was organizing military action against the people of the Indochinese Peninsula.

The debate took place against a backdrop of intense diplomatic activity concentrated primarily on halting the Communist drive against the neutralist Laotian government of Prince Souvanna Phouma.

France declared that the only solution of the Laotian crisis is guaranteed neutrality. It urged that neutrality be extended to all southeast Asia, including Viet Nam.

In Laos Souvanna threw his entire seven-plane airforce into the battle to maintain the final neutralist foothold on the Plaines Des Jarres.

Justice Fines Driver $30 on Traffic Counts

Emilio Trujillo, 41, 3313 Corbett Lane was fined $30 and costs in Justice of the Peace James F. Quine's court Wednesday for hit and run and failing to notify the authorities he had changed his address. Another charge of careless driving was dismissed. The defendant was ticketed April 3 on Fillmore Street by State Patrolman J. E. McDaniel.

McDaniel also gave a ticket to William Raymond Leckemby, 43, 2215 N. Cascade Ave. for careless driving on U.S. Highway 85-87 May 10. A $10 fine and costs was imposed.

Driving with expired registration Friday cost Richard Rice Bonner, 19, Slocum Hall $5 and costs. Police Officer A. W. Dalton gave him the ticket on Nevada Avenue.

Leonard Pegues, 30, 602 E. Willamette St. was found guilty of speeding and fined $10 and costs. According to State Patrolman J. Mathis, the defendant was driving at 70 miles per hour in a 60 zone on Colorado Highway 115 March 28.

Vernon Lee Garnier, 34, 1936 Downing Dr. was also charged with speeding and fined $10 and costs. State Patrolman A. G. Murin told the judge that Garnier was driving on Fillmore Street Saturday at 40 miles per hour where the speed limit was 30.

Socorro Clinic Doctors in Seminar Here

Two doctors from the Socorro Medical Clinic in New Mexico will give a seminar here Saturday and Sunday under the sponsorship of the Society of Metaphysical Arts.

They are Dr. John Aiken and Dr. Louisa Aiken, graduates of Pennsylvania State University and the Kirksville (Mo.) College of Osteopathy and Surgery. The former studied a year at McCormick Theological Seminary and served one year as student pastor.

Dr. John Aiken is a member of the executive council of Spiritual Frontiers Fellowship, is an elder in the Presbyterian Church, president of the Rotary Club, and served as a member of the Socorro City Council for 10 years.

Dr. Louisa Aiken is engaged in general medical practice, with her chief interest obstetics.

The two physicians are known for their outstanding research in the medical field, comparative religion and Oriental philosophy. They are known especially for their research in psychedelic drugs and have contributed valuable information on their findings in this ancient field of drug therapy that dates back to the early Egyptians.

Dr. Aiken will speak at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Modern Woodmen Hall on the subject "The Secret Teachings of Jesus. What is He really saying to us?" The lecture is open to the public free of admission and a reception will follow with refreshments served.

He will speak on "Research in Psychedelics" at 2:15 p.m. Sunday, and again at 7:30 p.m. on "Who Am I? What is My Essential Being?"

Members of SOMA and SFF are cooperating in presenting the seminar in the interest of Colorado Springs residents.

Woman Gets Suspended Jail Sentence Here

Mrs. Sandra T. Holmstrom received a suspended sentence of six months in County Jail plus $8.60 costs from Justice of the Peace H. C. McShane Wednesday after she was found guilty of short check.

Mrs. Holmstrom, 27, 1222 Bristol Ave. was accused of issuing a $24 check March 28 with intent to defraud Millers Super Markets No. 31.

Another defendant pleaded guilty to shoplifting and was fined $25 and $7 costs.

Frederick David Taylor, 34, 425 S. Weber St. stole merchandise worth a total of $2.16 from Simms Super Inc. No. 3 May 1.

China on a possible "political settlement" of the grim South Viet Nam problem.

Rusk is vigorously opposed to extending the war beyond South Viet Nam's borders. Supported by Undersecretary Averell Harriman, Rusk is advocating the convening of a Geneva - type conference to negotiate a "neutralization" agreement that would include Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam. The two State Department chiefs are willing to exclude Communist North Viet Nam from such an agreement.

No decision on these momentous proposals is likely until the middle of June, when the build-up in light bombers and other arms has been completed.

PROS AND CONS

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and the three service members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff strongly favor air strikes at the "privileged Communist sanctuaries" in Laos and North Viet Nam.

General Maxwell Taylor, Joint Chiefs chairman, is withholding a recommendation pending additional intelligence reports on the strength and disposition of North Vietnamese forces massing on South Viet Nam's borders. Latest intelligence word is that they are now equivalent to two combat divisions.

U.S. commanders in South Viet Nam, fully supported by Ambassador Lodge, are warning these large Red forces foreshadow imminent massive assaults against major South Vietnamese strongholds. They view the situation as "extremely foreboding."

In preparation for possible air strikes beyond South Viet Nam borders, President Johnson is having a study made of the need for congressional approval.

Administration and congressional authorities have divided opinions on that. Some hold a congressional vote is not necessary; others are advising it on both international and political grounds. They contend the latter is particularly important in this crucial election year.

The President, in consulting bipartisan congressional leaders, disclosed he made a highly significant discovery in reading minutes of the National Security Council under the late President Kennedy.

These records revealed a definite decision had been made to employ U.S. troops to prevent Vientiane, southern capital of Laos, from falling into the hands of the Communist Pathet Lao. This fateful commitment is still in force.

It was agreed on at the insistence of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who warned that loss of Vientiane to the Reds would pose a dire threat to Thailand as well as South Viet Nam and that it would be necessary for the U.S. to employ its forces to save both countries.

In the President's discussion with the bipartisan congressional leaders, he gave no indication of his attitude regarding this momentous decision.

However, Pentagon authorities have formulated contingency plans for rushing U.S. troops to Vientiane and Thailand as determined by the National Security Council under President Kennedy.

Note: Defense Secretary McNamara has been asked by the President to keep in close touch with both management and labor in the approaching automobile contract negotiations. McNamara, former Ford president, already has had private talks with Walter Reuther, United Auto Workers head, and has others slated with key motor manufacturers.

MAN TO SEE

If you want to be sure to get a message to President Johnson, the one man certain to do it is his special assistant Jack Valenti.

Authority for that is none other than the President himself.

The President gave this inside tip to an old newspaper friend — an American foreign correspondent visiting Washington. He has known the President since his early days in Congress, and told him he had encountered difficulty in communicating with him since entering the White House.

"From time to time," said the newsman, "I've sent you some things that I thought would be helpful. But since you have been President, these messages apparently haven't reached you."

"That's possible," replied the President. "Hereafter, if you want to communicate with me, do it through Jack Valenti. Any message you send him will get to me. You can be sure of that. George Reedy (press secretary) and some of the others keep things from me. But not Jack. He sees that I get everything."

The President urged the correspondent to keep him informed "of what our ambassadors are not telling me. Let me know the bad as well as the good," he urged.

During the hour-hour discussion, the President evinced particular curiosity about President De Gaulle, asking, "What's bothering him? Why is he acting against the best interests of the West? None of the State Department people seem to know. I have yet to get a satisfactory answer from any of them."

"Maybe De Gaulle suspects that the U.S. and Russia are secretly working on terms on Europe and other key areas of the world," suggested the newsman.

The President said nothing, but nodded his head as if he had heard that before.

Blacker, commander of the attack force.

British paratroops Wednesday occupied the village and fort of Hajib, a key post from which the rebels had been observing British army movements.

British officers believe they have cut off many rebel supply routes from neighboring Yemen, but the area is such a maze of hidden tracks it is difficult to isolate the tribesmen entirely.

The current action is being pressed at the start of the planting season. Almost the entire arable area has been deserted by the populace. The British hope the prospect of hunger may bring the rebels to terms.

Picnickers Asked To Use Already Built Fireplaces

Residents using outlying city parks were requested today to start fires, if a fire is necessary for a picnic, in only fireplaces that are already constructed.

Stuart Richter, director of the City Parks and Recreation Department, said it was felt necessary to make such a request because of the dryness of the grass, brush and timber.

He also suggested that if a fire is needed that as small a one as possible be utilized.

This edict applies to all outlying parks such as Palmer Park, North Cheyenne Canon and the Garden of the Gods, but also elsewhere in city parks where fireplaces are available.

School Will Hold Competitive Exams

The Fountain Valley School will hold a competitive examination at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in the school gymnasium.

Applicants for entry to the school's eighth grade are eligible, and the winner will receive a full year's scholarship. Applicants should report by 9:15 in order to start the examination on time.

Denver Man Charged With No-Account Check

Warren D. Graves, 43, of Denver, was charged in District Court Wednesday with no account check and bond was set at $1,000 by Judge David W. Enoch.

According to the information filed against the defendant he issued a $25 check April 11 with intent to defraud Empire Super Markets Inc.

Water Pump, Engine Stolen From AFA Area

A water pump with a gasoline powered engine belonging to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers was stolen from the grounds of the Air Force Academy, the sheriff's office said Wednesday.

According to Deputy Sheriff Bob Newman, the equipment which is worth $150 was about 500 feet south-east of the Tri-Faiths Chapel.

Nikita's Wife Starts Revolt Among Egyptians

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

CAIRO (AP) — Nina Khrushchev, [illegible] wife of the Soviet Union's No. 1 revolutionary, has started a revolution of her own in Egypt.

She has brought the wives of the United Arab Republic's leaders out from behind the veil of Moslem society.

Since the Khrushchevs came to town, Egyptian newspaper readers have been startled to see a profusion of pictures of President Gamal Abdel Nasser's [illegible] wife Tahya taking a [illegible] official functions instead of staying home where most Arabs believe women belong.

The first ladies of the Soviet Union and the U.A.R. have been [illegible] making [illegible] tourist [illegible] and [illegible] their husband's speeches.

[illegible] Mrs. Nasser [illegible] Mrs. Nasser, who is 40, [illegible] the Egyptian first lady made a few public appearances [illegible] visitors but never [illegible] Egyptians seen [illegible]

[illegible] Mrs. Nasser devotes [illegible] being an anonymous housewife and mother to the president's five children.

One female member of Nasser's family has been absent from the festivities but by her own choice. Nasser's daughter Hoda, 19, visited the Soviet Union last year as the guest of Khrushchev's daughter, Rada Adzhubei. The Soviet Embassy passed the word that Rada wanted Hoda to accompany her throughout her stay in Egypt but Hoda said she was too busy with her university exams. Nasser couldn't change her mind.

The Soviet entourage includes a bevy of women. For some of them the trip is a shopping spree.

Flanked by interpreters and a small police escort, the Soviet ladies have been combing Cairo's shops and the vast maze of the old bazaar.

Despite Nasser's socialism, which drastically reduced the variety of consumer goods, Soviet residents say the Cairo shops are bulging with goodies unknown in the Soviet Union.

Two Soviet Trawlers Cruise Off U.S. Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two Soviet trawlers are cruising off the San Francisco coast but the Navy says it has them under surveillance.

The vessels were sighted Wednesday near the Farallon Islands, 26 miles west of San Francisco.

A Navy spokesman said the craft have been tracked since May 10 when they were first seen near San Clemente Island off Southern California.

The trawlers are the Barograph and the Amper, each a 165-footer.

The Navy said one bunkered that the pair was engaged in hydrographic study. Another pair was trailed last August as it cruised up and down the coast.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

PAY RAISE: The House Rules Committee approved Wednesday a new federal pay raise bill. Like one defeated earlier in the session by the House, it includes a salary increase for congressmen.

The new bill, which was cleared for the floor by a 9-3 vote, would boost congressional salaries $7,500—from $22,500 to $30,000. The defeated measure would have authorized a $10,000 raise.

Over-all the bill calls for increases totaling $533 million, compared with $668 million in the earlier bill.

Amendments will be permitted during the four - hour House floor debate.

FISHING - JAPAN: President Johnson signed a law Wednesday to regulate fishing by foreign vessels in American waters. He said the United States would try to work out enforcement procedures in advance with the foreign countries involved.

The law was proposed originally to cope with illegal Cuban fishing operations in U.S. territorial waters. But Japan said another section is aimed at Japanese king crab fishing operations off Alaska and it has threatened to ignore the new law.

The section, which provides authority for the United States to exercise jurisdiction over resources of the U.S. portion of the continental shelf, implements terms of an international treaty to which Japan is not a signatory.

FARM APPROPRIATION: The House passed Wednesday and sent to the Senate a $5,182,665,000 agriculture appropriation bill after reversing a previous decision to spend $1.6 million for a peanut research laboratory.

By a roll call vote of 198 to 181, the House voted against the peanut lab, which had been approved Tuesday in a non-record vote.

The laboratory would have been located in Dawson, Ga., in the district of retiring Rep. E.L. Forrester, a Georgia Democrat who has long sought it.

In another key action, the house voted down 187 to 186 a move to forbid subsidy payments on farm exports—such as wheat—destined for Communist nations and defeated 101 to 56 an amendment to curb the Agriculture Department's market news wire.

Final House passage of the appropriations bill was by a roll call vote of 311 to 64. It covers the fiscal year that starts July 1.

DOLLAR DRAIN: A Republican study group says increased U.S. exports would be the best cure for the dollar drain.

The recommendation was presented Wednesday by the Republican Critical Issues Council, a citizens group headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

It charged that the administration had used temporary bookkeeping devices to make the U.S. balance of payments deficit look smaller than it really is.

MASS TRANSIT: After a delay of more than one year, the House Rules Committee cleared the way Wednesday for floor action on the administration's mass transit program.

The measure would authorize $300 million in grants over a three-year period to help cities revitalize their mass transit systems.

The Rules Committee vote was 8 to 4, with three members absent. The House Banking Committee had approved it on April 9, 1963.

When the measure is called up for House action — probably in June—four hours of debate and amendments will be permitted.

Nikita's Wife Starts Revolt Among Egyptians

The first ladies of the Soviet Union and the U.A.R. have been visiting museums, cruising the Nile, making other tourist excursions and appearing on stage for their husband's speeches.

This is routine for Mrs. Khrushchev but a virtual public debut for Mrs. Nasser, who is 40. In the past the Egyptian first lady made a few public appearances to greet visitors, but never before have Egyptians seen so much of her.

Though most women in Egypt no longer wear veils, the business of state is an all-male affair. Usually Mrs. Nasser devotes her time to being an anonymous housewife and mother to the president's five children.

One female member of Nasser's family has been absent from the festivities, but by her own choice. Nasser's daughter Hoda, 19, visited the Soviet Union last year as the guest of Khrushchev's daughter, Rada Adzhubei. Double - corn sticks make double - good eating! To make these just add drained canned whole - kernel corn (or kernels cut from cooked fresh corn on the cob) to cornbread batter to be baked in cornstick pans. Use about half a cup of corn kernels for half a dozen of the sticks.

BUTTON MAGIC

When buttons tear from a garment and leave a hole in the cloth, cut buttons of the same size from worn - out clothes, leaving at least one inch of material on all sides. Just push the button through the hole and stitch the material as a patch on the underside.

Dear Abby--

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Don't Be Petty

DEAR ABBY: Who is supposed to give the corsage on Mother's Day? The husband or the children? I married a widow and on the first Mother's Day after our marriage I sent her a lovely corsage. Her son sent her one, too. (This happens to be the first thing this son of hers ever gave her besides trouble.) Well, she must have thought more of her son's corsage than she did of mine because she wore HIS, and left mine home in the ice box. I was very hurt although I didn't say anything, but the next year on Mother's Day I didn't send her a corsage and neither did her son. She was sulking all week. Do you blame me for not sending her a corsage after what happened to mine last year? —HUSBAND

DEAR HUSBAND: Posies on Mother's Day mean less than understanding and love the other 364 days of the year.

DEAR ABBY: I am 26 years old and am in love with a married man who is 32. He married very young and has one child. I have been in love with him for six years and seven months. When I met him he told me that his marriage was all washed up, so I had nothing to do with his miserable situation at home. He says as soon as his little boy is able to take care of himself he will get a divorce and marry me. His son is in the second grade now. I get awfully tired of waiting, Abby, and I'm not sure I could ever love another man. Can you give me some good advice? —MIXED UP

DEAR MIXED: Yes, lose him. The chances you're taking are not worth the chance you have of marrying this man. And if you CAN love a man other than another woman's husband, you had better find it out—while you're still in the 20's.

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of naming children unusual names: I once heard of a woman who named her three daughters PEARL, SAPPHIRE and ONYX. The first had a skin as smooth and white as a pearl. The second had eyes that shone like two blue sapphires. And the third was "onyx-pected." —CARL ON BASSOON ST.

DEAR CARL: Thank you for your contribution to my collection of unusual names. Where were YOU when vaudeville died?

DEAR ABBY: In November of 1958 I wrote asking your advice about my husband, who cheated on me, beat me up and refused to take the responsibilities of a husband and father. At the time I had only one child. Today I have five and I am kicking myself because I didn't take your advice. You said, "Don't take him back until he has proved that he can say away from other women, treat you with respect and hold a job." Well, each time I took him back I got pregnant. He continued to cheat on me and slap me around, pregnant or not. He also lost one job after another. How I wished I had listened to you. Print my letter to let other women know what can happen when they take a man back before he improves. —KICKING MYSELF

Let Gound Beef Parade Variety, Brighten Menu

If mother will settle for a hamburger on "her day," then she'll let the youngsters take over the kitchen with a hamburger promenade. It'll give them wounderful experience as future chefs and it may even net her a meal which she doesn't have to cook.

New variations suggested by widely - known meat cookery expert Reba Staggs include old favorite foods in combinations with ground beef.

Two ways may be used to vary hamburgers. One is to mix certain ingredients with ground beef. Another way is to add zippy toppings like Roquefort cheese, chili sauce, sliced olives, etc. before broiling is finished.

HAMBURGER PROMENADE

1½ pounds ground beef
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Combine meat and seasonings. Mix well. Shape into 6 patties. Place on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so that top of patties is 2 to 3 inches from heat. Broil patties on one side until brown, about 8 to 10 minutes. Turn and broil until brown on second side about 8 minutes.

VARIATIONS

Add any of the following combination of ingredients to Basic Hamburger mixture and prepare as for Basic Hamburgers:

¾ cup crushed potato chips and ½ cup grated American cheese.

2 tablespoons pickle relish, 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish and 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion.

½ cup applesauce, ¾ cup crushed cornflakes and 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion.

To use one of these toppings prepare Basic Hamburgers. Shape into 6 patties; broil on one side 8 to 10 minutes. Turn, broil 5 minutes and top patties with one of the following combinations and broil 2 minutes longer.

TOPPINGS

2 tablespoons finely chopped onion mixed with 2 tablespoons Roquefort cheese.

¼ cup finely chopped onion combined with 1/3 cup chili sauce and 2 tablespoons sliced stuffed olives.

On each patty place 1 thin slice of onion topped with 1 teaspoon pickle relish.

Chow Mein with Steamed Rice
Almond Fan Cookies Pineapple

Almond Fan Cookies

6 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons chunk-style peanut butter
½ cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup flour
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon milk
Slivered toasted blanched almonds

Beat together thoroughly the shortening, peanut butter and sugar; beat in thoroughly the egg and almond extract. Stir in flour, salt and milk. Drop level tablespoons of the soft mixture about 1½ inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Draw the flat blade of a small spatula over surface of each cookie to make an even ¼-inch thick. Place about 5 almond silvers, fan fashion, on each cookie. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until lightly browned, 15 to 20 minutes. Cool on wire racks. Makes about 2½ dozen.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

Expensive bridal showers are lovely, but why not have "one" cost-free shower of items a new homemaker always needs and never has.

Examples:

Empty jars with lids, in assorted sizes for left-overs. You have none at first and too many later!

Two small cheese glasses for juice and a few jelly glasses to spare the new crystal at breakfast and between meals.

Two cups, saucers, and plates of old but matching china for breakfast use. You never use just two and have broken the rest of the set anyhow. The first chip in her new china will be so heartbreaking.

Rags . . . socks for applying polish, old T-shirts for polishing, old towels for cleaning jobs. (She can't use those lovely embroidered tea towels for scrubbing and dusting.)

Partly used bottles and cans of various polishes, waxes and cleaners. (You changed brands and never threw away the other kind, but it will help her decide which type she likes best.)

A few of the throw-away pans you never threw away . . . the kind that come with some rolls, mixes, and frozen foods.

Large size grocery sacks to line the kitchen waste basket.

And for a personal touch, make easy-to-follow copies of a few of your favorite recipes . . . the tasty but easy to fix every day meals rather than your fancy specialties that take years to master. Scale the quantities down for two people because she can always find recipes for six to eight people.

In addition to economy for the giver, these items will help the new bride over the hurdle of newness to normal housekeeping. —Peggy F.

How true. You're great, Peg. —Heloise

Letter of Laughter? Or Love?

Dear Heloise:

Before tucking hard boiled eggs into lunch boxes, I scribble little messages on them, such as "Smile, the boss is looking," "I love you," "Nice day, huh?", etc.

My husband and daughter get quite a chuckle from these during their lunch time away from home. —Chris B.

Dear Heloise:

Why throw away cherry juice?

When I make pies I drain all the juice from the cherries and make the most delicious and beautiful cherry jelly you can imagine.

From the juice of five cans of cherries I make three or four large glasses of jelly. —A Constant Reader

Dear Heloise:

Like many housewives I have a penchant for saving choice magazines . . . Christmas numbers and those devoted to topics in which I am interested.

Unfortunately, the mass of material grew to undesirable proportions and when I tried clipping out the articles I wanted I could find no particular place to file them.

So, using a sharp, single-edged razor blade, I removed all the pages dealing with extraneous subjects and unwanted advertisements. This left me with slim magazines, bound as usual, which contained only the wanted material.

I can now stack them chronologically, if desired, into less than one-fourth of the space they formerly occupied.

When I want to refer to something I have seen in a magazine there is considerably less "leafing through" to be done. —Mag Saver

U.S. Research Ship Barred by Ceylon

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Ceylon's foreign ministry has barred the U.S. research ship Pioneer from Trincomalee Harbor, former headquarters of the British East Indies Fleet.

The ship's chief scientist, Harrison B. Stewart, said "security" was given as the reason for the ban.

Stewart said the Pioneer wanted to enter Trincomalee to study the mouth of an underwater canyon which the ship's scientists had discovered off Ceylon's coast. He said it was the first deep canyon to be found with its mouth close to land.

1½ pounds dried navy pea beans
½ pound unsliced bacon
¼ pound salt pork
1 small can pimiento
2 medium sized onions
Dash cayenne pepper
1½ cups maple syrup
2 tablespoons dark brown sugar
1 tablespoon salt

Soak beans overnight in cold water to cover; drain and turn into large kettle. Grind bacon, salt pork, pimiento and onions; add with pepper to beans; cover with water. Cook slowly until tender—a few hours. Just before removing from stove, add but do not stir in the maple syrup, brown sugar and salt. Place all ingredients in a large earthenware bean pot, adding water if necessary to cover completely. Bake covered in a slow (325 degrees) oven for about 2 hours; uncover and bake about 3 hours or until consistency is as dry as desired. Do not stir at any time.

Service Guild Meets for Dessert

Mrs. George Smith was hostess at her home to members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church of Canon City on Monday evening, May 11. A dessert course was served before the meeting by Mrs. Smith and her co-hostesses Mrs. Alma Schwab and Mrs. Martha Krauth.

Opening devotions were conducted by Mrs. Orville Bellman, who also presented the pledge service. All officers were re-elected for another term.

After the ceremony they took their places in the reception line and then were whisked back to the hospital.

Musical Program Held at Canon City Center

Entertainment at the Golden Age Center at Canon City Saturday night included musical numbers by Steve Charles and his sister Sandra. The children played harmonica duets, piano and horn solos. Arthur Carriger and his son LeRoy played guitar duets, while Annette Snyder gave several piano solos.

The Rev. James Atkinson gave a whistling routine and vocal duets were sung by Claude McCormick and Claude Strickland. Mrs. Rollo Gebhardt provided the piano accompaniment. A performance was offered by the harmonica group consisting of Floyd Dungan, Jim Ellifritz, Earl Lynch and Giessie Rhodebeck. Group singing completed the program.

RECEIVE AWARD — Pat Peterson, (left) and Anita Best (center) of Palmer High School receive the School Press Project Award for their school paper, the "Lever" from Mrs. Paul Lennertz, board member of the Colorado Tuberculosis Association at the annual meeting of the Association held recently in Denver. The "Lever's" entry was judged the best entry in the Senior High School's entries submitted in Colorado. The Annual School Press Project is sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and offers an opportunity to win national recognition by school papers for their coverage of tuberculosis, health and health careers stories in the school and community. The project aims to alert young people to their responsibilities for their own and their neighbors health; to encourage responsible citizenship, and to raise the standards of school journalism. Two other Colorado Springs schools also won awards. The staff of St. Mary's paper, "The Marylin", won second place in the state and the staff of St. Joseph's High School won third.

HS Seniors Feted by Canon Church Group

United Presbyterian Women held their annual spring luncheon at the First United Presbyterian Church of Canon City recently. The luncheon honored the following church members of the 1964 graduating class of Canon City High School: Susan Kelley, Jean Butcher, Margaret Stiles, Mike Foraker, David Strehlow, David Veatch, Richard Jasper and Fred Stultz.

Mrs. John Saviers and Mrs. Harry Frost welcomed the young people and Margaret Stiles gave the response.

The program included vocal solos by Mrs. Howard Mentzer, who was accompanied by Mrs. Matt Starck. "The Time Capsule", a one act play, was presented by the Mmes. Eddie Meese, Jerome Veatch, Arnold Berry, Stuart Middlemiss, Everett Morris, H. A. Litell and Russell Stiles.

The luncheon was prepared and served by members of Circle Beth.

Auxiliary of Hospital Honors State Officers

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Thomas More Hospital hosted a luncheon of the south central district of hospital auxiliaries at the Club Paradise in Canon City on Thursday, May 14. Mrs. Frances Wildgen gave the invocation at the noon luncheon attended by 47 auxiliary members and guests.

Honored at the meeting were hospital auxiliary state president, Mrs. Bill Goodin of the Swedish Medical Center of Englewood; state president elect, Mrs. Robert C. Hadley of St. Luke's Hospital in Denver; and district president, Mrs. C. C. Dincler.

Sister M. Judith, administrator of St. Thomas More Hospital, gave the welcome. For the program, musical numbers were sung by Miss Jerrie Fischer and Miss Marion Allen. Piano accompaniment was provided by Miss Janet Poole.

Mrs. Edward P. Schrader, president of the local auxiliary, presided at the meeting and introduced state and district officers. Sister M. Paula of St. Thomas More Hospital spoke on the work of the junior auxiliary. Representatives from each auxiliary told of their auxiliary's projects.

West was highly critical of his partner's play to the first trick in defending against South's four spade contract. West's own performance left something to be desired however, for he had it in his power to provide East with a clear-cut picture of how to proceed.

West opened the deuce of diamonds, the three was played from the dummy and East put in the jack, playing his partner to have led from a holding which included the queen. South, however, won the trick and proceeded on his merry way.

The jack of spades was led at trick two and West played the ace. He returned the ten of diamonds and declarer ruffed in his hand. A small spade was led to the king, leaving West with the only outstanding trump—the queen.

Another diamond was trumped by South and a club was returned. West discarded a heart, inasmuch as it would have done him no good to trump. North's king of diamonds was ruffed with declarer's last spade, and he proceeded to lead the rest of his clubs. West could ruff with the queen of spades whenever he liked, but after cashing the ace of hearts he was through. The defense was limited to two spades and one heart.

West contended that East should have played the ace of diamonds at trick one and shifted to a heart, which would have permitted West to take two tricks in that suit. West asserted that, since he did not lead hearts originally, he must have a tenace in the suit rather than a sequence of honors and therefore East should have been alerted to the necessity for obtaining the lead in order to make a heart play through the declarer.

While there is merit to West's contention, he could have facilitated matters greatly by opening the ten of diamonds originally, rather than the deuce. Inasmuch as it was his desire to get East in for a heart play rather than to cash diamond tricks, the lead of a high diamond was more apt to alert partner to his wishes.

If East plays the ace of diamonds at trick one and returns a heart, the defense will have their book in immediately with two spade tricks still to be scored.

State President Addresses WCTU In Cannon City

Mrs. Clarissa W. Rasmussen of Boulder, state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Colorado, was guest speaker at the district meeting of the WCTU held in Canon City May 13.

Mrs. Rasmussen was honored guest at a covered dish luncheon at the J. M. Affleck home after the morning session.

The afternoon meeting at the First United Presbyterian Church opened with group singing led by Mrs. H. W. Gordon with Mrs. Clyde Smith at the piano. Devotions were given by Mrs. A. V. Wilson. Following a talk by Mrs. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Custer sang a duet, "The Lost Chord," with Mrs. Max Bond at the piano.

Mrs. G. B. Ingram, Canon City WCTU president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Affleck and Mrs. Wilson served punch and cookies during the afternoon.

The elementary students of the Lake George school enjoyed their annual trip, May 16, in one of Ralph Hines' buses. Their itinerary included a tour of Pepsi-Cola bottling works, Van Briggle pottery and Ghost Town. Following a lunch of the ever-favorite hamburgers, the afternoon was spent at North Pole. Parents who accompanied Mrs. Fyler and her students were Mrs. Don Siminear, Mrs. Dean Butler, Mrs. Ira Moreland, Mrs. Carl Quist, Mrs. Ben Barr Jr., Mrs. Albert Douglas, Mrs. Jack Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dix.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Barr were called to Dakota City, Neb., due to Mrs. Barr's mother's illness and are now home. Barr is again working part time after being on the sick list.

Another school year is rapidly drawing to a conclusion with the usual flurry of end of year activities. The Woodland Park school ends May 27. One student from here graduates from high. Bob Ballard, son of Joe Ballard, is to be congratulated on that score. The Lake George school ends May 28 and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fyler and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Solomon and sons of Pueblo, will leave for Moreland, Kan., to spend the Memorial weekend attending school and family reunions there.

The Community Club had the usual good attendance at the May meeting, all enjoying the pot luck supper. It was agreed to carry on the meetings throughout the summer. It was announced another first aid course would be available through the services of Mrs. Mae Schwartz and the deputy sheriff if a large enough group are interested.

F. M. Gordan, or Cotton as he is commonly called, was elected president of the State Association of Dude Ranchers at a recent Denver meeting. Cotton and Joan Gordan opened up their beautiful Tarryall dude ranch for guests May 15.

A week of warm weather has brought green to the hills despite lack of moisture. Most of the ranchers have turned their cattle out for summer grazing.

A large number of boaters and fishermen are pouring into the region weekends with the best fishing reported to be at Tarryall Lake as 11 Mile and Antero Reservoirs are still low.

The Forest Service crews are presently working in the Wilkerson Pass area on the beetle eradication program. The county crews are improving the Tarryall road extensively, cutting down curves and filling in low spots.

The annual cleanup days will be held at Camp Iana over Memorial holidays with invitations issued to stay overnight and assist at this worthy project. Services will be held. A new well has been dug and water lines need to be installed into various units.

A Fairplay man, Neal Cargill, was administered first aid by Paul Imboden and Don Stephens following an apparent heart attack. He was taken to a Colorado Springs hospital where he is recovering well.

The O. N. Wamsleys are presently here at their Lake George home.

The Republican held their precinct caucus at the Lake George school house Monday night and named delegates to attend the county caucus at Fairplay Saturday, May 23.

Silk Paper Decorates General's Bathroom

DETROIT (AP) — Yes, that's correct. Silk wallpaper adorns the bathroom of an Army general's office.

On the other hand, said Maj. Gen. Alden K. Sibley, the office occupant, the wallpaper cost less than tiling originally planned for the bathroom.

And the bathroom is small—"barely adequate" for the 20 people who use it daily, the general said.

Gen. Sibley's office bathroom and other appurtenances of his Army Mobility Command at suburban Warren came up for congressional review at Washington.

Rep. John J. McFall, D-Calif., raised a question of the general's "exotic taste" in hearing testimony made public Wednesday.

A request for $245,800 for additional modifications to Sibley's headquarters was under consideration.

Other headquarters items mentioned included a lavatory vanity, walnut paneling, vinyl tile, and $2,264 in carpeting to place over the tile.

Gen. Sibley, 53, former Rhodes scholar who holds degrees in theoretical and nuclear physics, said there was "absolutely nothing elaborate" about his office.

They Could Not Keep Jeff Out Of Peace Corps

By KENNETH L. WHITING

FREETOWN, Sierra Leone (AP) — One of the prized volunteers in a unique Peace Corps experiment in Africa is a red-bearded Californian who was kicked out of the corps on the last day of training.

Doctors who expected 21-year-old Jeff Mareck because of a childhood skull injury assumed he would quietly return home from the training camp at the University of Maine in Orono. Instead Mareck went to Washington and appealed to top Peace Corps officials. They were polite but insisted rules were rules.

Still not interested in returning home to Novato, Calif., Mareck took a freighter to England and another ship from there to this West African capital.

He walked into Peace Corps headquarters in Freetown and announced he would work with the volunteers. Officials stared, then shrugged and agreed that anybody who wanted to remain with the corps as badly as Mareck did should be accommodated.

The Peace Corps is running a pilot project known as rural development in this former British colony. It is akin to the corps' better-known community development program in Latin America. Basically a self-help project, corpsmen help villagers dig wells, repair bridges, build schools and lay roads through the bush. Equipment is supplied by the Sierra Leone government, CARE and the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID).

Many Peace Corps volunteers in rural development work are swashbuckling types, bronzed from their outdoor work, frequently full-bearded and much admired by the more sedentary Peace Corps teachers.

Suspicious villagers were uncertain at first what the "photo" —the Temne Tribe's word for white man—or "Europeans from America" were about.

"Are you digging for diamonds?" one asked Mareck who was drilling a well at the time. Sierra Leone is rich in gems.

Palestine State Proposed by Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria's ruling Baath Socialist party Wednesday night proposed the establishment of a Palestinian Arab state with sovereignty over the west bank of the Jordan River and the Gaza Strip.

The Arab-held old quarter of Jerusalem was proposed as the capital.

The United Arab Republic occupies the Gaza Strip, while the Kingdom of Jordan has held the west bank of the river and the old quarter of Jerusalem since the Palestine War. Israel separates the two territories.

The Syrian party also proposed formation of an independent Palestinian army on a basis of [illegible] with the armies of the Arab nations.

Juryman Cries That He Was 'Assassinated'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — As the foreman was about to read a civil rights trial jury's decision Wednesday, one of two Negro jurors stood up and shouted, "I was assassinated and crucified in the jury room because I am a Negro."

The charges touched off a near riot in the courtroom and caused Judge Andrew J. Eyman to declare a mistrial.

One courtroom spectator, William Bancroft, 20, was arrested for hitting a court bailiff.

Jurors Geraldine Earp and Josephine Nichols made their charges after the jury had deliberated 25 hours following the two-week trial of 14 defendants.

"I want to be excused. I put myself on trial the minute I walked into the jury room because I am a Negro," Mrs. Earp said.

White members of the jury said the Negro women disregarded the evidence and the judge's instructions and decided the case on a civil rights basis.

Southern Baptists Still Debate Racial Issues

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —Southern Baptists were set today for a second round of debate over closer ties with other Baptist groups and over the explosive racial issue.

Heated argument erupted Wednesday before messengers—delegates—to the Southern Baptist Convention, largest of the seven Baptist groups, voted narrowly against joining a proposed committee on North American fellowship.

They Could Not Keep Jeff Out Of Peace Corps

By KENNETH L. WHITING

FREETOWN, Sierra Leone (AP)—One of the prized volunteers in a unique Peace Corps experiment in Africa is a red-bearded Californian who was kicked out of the corps on his last day of training.

Doctors who expelled 21-year-old Jeff Mareck because of a childhood skull injury assumed he would quietly return home from the training camp at the University of Maine in Orono. Instead Mareck went to Washington and appealed to top Peace Corps officials. They were polite but insisted rules were rules.

"Are you digging for diamonds?" one asked Mareck who was drilling a well at the time. Sierra Leone is rich in gems.

"They were quite shocked when we installed a pump on the well pipe and water came out," said Mareck. "Water to them was something they always had to carry in pots on their heads several hundred yards from a small, muddy pool."

Volunteers work directly under a Sierra Leone district officer and through village chiefs.

Early rural development workers sometimes were caught in local tribal disputes.

"One tribe wouldn't drink the new water supply from the same tap as another tribe so an extra 600 feet of pipe had to be laid to a separate tap for them," Mareck said.

"It has taken a year to get the program rolling. At first we tried only short projects so the people could see the result of the labor come about quickly.

"Each volunteer keeps two or three projects going at once because the villagers can only work so far and so fast and then they have to tend to their tiny farms. But the program is so successful now that they have started taxing themselves. And they are now much more aware of America."

Mareck's impact in the Peace Corps is more than a display of determination in remaining a member. Many volunteers in this country the size of South Carolina are equipped with Jeeps. Most are school teachers and many are women with little technical knowledge of the Jeep. Primitive road conditions take a heavy toll of these vehicles.

His superiors say Mareck's greatest contribution to the Peace Corps may well be his authorship of a mimeographed booklet called "Jeep Life": Why they won't and what to do when they don't run.

The simple manual on the care and feeding of Jeeps helps keep his fellow volunteers rolling.

"I worked around Jeeps a lot at home in California," said Mareck.

Actions of the convention are not binding on member churches, whose 10 million members make up the largest Protestant denomination in the United States.

Dr. W. Wayne Dehoney, 45, of Jackson, Tenn., was elected president of the Southern Baptists. Dehoney, considered to be a theological moderate, defeated a more liberal theologian, Dr. Theodore F. Racial issues were the center of attention again in the American Baptist Convention, also meeting here.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., told the Northern group church leaders should move to expand "the frontiers of opportunity for all Americans."

He urged the Baptists to do all they could toward bringing the civil rights bill to a vote in the Senate, predicting it would pass.

The American Baptists approved without debate the fellowship committee proposal, a move toward closer cooperation of all Baptist groups.

But in the Southern Baptist session, some opponents assailed the plan as a move toward merger of Baptist conventions.

"Everyone says that there's no unity of Baptist groups involved but in effect that's what is being proposed," said the Rev. James O. Mathenia of Joliet, Ill. He was among those opposing the move because of doctrinal differences between Northern and Southern Baptists.

Dr. C. C. Warren of Charlotte, N.C., leader in the Baptist jubilee advance program, pleaded to the messengers not to "throw Southern Baptists into isolation."

Needing a two-thirds majority, the proposal failed 2,771-2,738 on a written ballot after a close vote on a show of hands.

Lady Bird Will Dedicate New School Lights

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson throws a switch today to bring electric light for the first time to a one-room schoolhouse in eastern Kentucky.

The Little Lick Branch School, with 25 students in grades 1 through 8, has been operating with no lights at all. On cloudy days the pupils usually are sent home because they cannot see to do their work.

Today, though, it will be different and the First Lady will celebrate the occasion with the youngsters in the mountain area of Breathitt County, Ky., where she is making a one-day tour to look at government-local projects aimed at overcoming unemployment and improving education.

Mrs. Johnson's visit accelerated plans for electrifying the schoolhouse, her press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, explained.

The project had been under way as a community contribution from the Sylvania Electric [illegible] a small private power company of Winchester, Ky., she said. The timetable was moved up so Mrs. Johnson could throw the switch during her visit.

Old Confederate Section Will Be Closed Soon

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—The Confederate section of the National Cemetery in Springfield will be closed permanently Friday following the burial of Martha Ann Hadden.

She was the last person eligible for burial in the Confederate section.

Mrs. Hadden, 92, will be buried beside her husband, Thomas Henry Hadden, a Texas cavalryman who died in 1939.

The cemetery was started during the Civil War. Of the 501 persons originally buried there, 238 were killed in the Battle of Wilson's Creek Aug. 10, 1861, and 263 others died of wounds or illness.

It was designated as a national cemetery about 1911.

New York City's borough of Brooklyn has a population of three million.

Navy to Demonstrate Air Striking Power

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Navy will demonstrate its striking power inland Friday when 32 carrier planes fly to Dallas, some of them to return to their ships non-stop.

The demonstration will come during the convention of the Navy League, an organization of civilians who support sea power.

Planes from the Coral Sea off San Diego, Calif., will make a 2,600-mile round trip. Those from the Saratoga off Norfolk, Va., will travel 2,000 miles.

Half the 32 planes will land at Dallas for an aircraft display.

Navy spokesmen said that excluding the Soviet Union, 90 per cent of the remainder of the world where limited conflict is most likely is within 500 miles of the sea.

Italy's steady exodus of farm workers to the city is expected to reduce agricultural employes to 18 per cent of the nation's labor force by 1973, in contrast to 27 per cent today.

Salinger Hits 'Alliance For Progress'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Alliance for Progress "has not lived up to President Kennedy's high hopes or to the enthusiasm which greeted its birth," says Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary.

Speaking to 500 students in the San Fernando Valley Wednesday, the candidate for the Democratic Senate nomination said "we have fallen short of this ambitious plan" to develop Latin-American nations.

"In the first two years of the alliance," he said, "the U.S. government distributed $1.5-billion dollars in loans and grants instead of the planned $2.1 billion. And one fourth of what was spent went for currency stabilization in countries with runaway inflation. But that money, of itself, cleared no jungles and cleaned up no slums," he added.

The Senate hopeful also said he favors renegotiation of the Panama Canal Treaty to recognize what he termed the inequity of a document agreed to 60 years ago.

Salinger also said he thinks that the American government should not recognize regimes immediately following military coups, but that they should be given time to prove they mean to hold Democratic elections.

Solon Wins Vote Despite Highly Unpopular Stand

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — By a 3-1 margin Tuesday, Republican voters in Maryland's 6th Congressional Dist. renominated Rep. Charles McC. Mathias Jr., who had taken a stand that many of his colleagues thought was political suicide.

Mathias opposed any amendments to the Constitution designed to overturn Supreme Court decisions against compulsory religious exercises in public schools.

His opponent, Brent Bozell, a former speech writer for the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R-Wis., and an editor on leave from the conservative magazine National Review, had backed an amendment and promised to "return the Bible to our schools."

The issue was a particularly sensitive one because Maryland was one of two states that had a Bible-reading statue struck down by the court.

The race was eyed closely by Mathias' colleagues on the House Judiciary Committee, which has been holding hearings on 146 resolutions proposing constitutional amendments.

Witnesses supporting amendment have told of the overwhelming grass roots support for it and warned that any member who opposed it was doomed to defeat at the polls.

Mathias is a popular two-term congressman and was expected to win, but the decisive nature of his victory was a surprise. He won by 29,585 to 10,943. Yet he had been deluged with petitions carrying 50,000 signatures calling for him to support an amendment.

His district includes a mountainous area with strong ties to fundamentalist religion, whose spokesmen have been among the most outspoken in calling for an amendment. But there his edge was 4,609 to 1,812.

Mathias credits the Judiciary Committee hearings with having brought the issue into the national spotlight.

Having leading church officials and lawyers testify against an amendment made his position easier to support, he says. The hearing also helped clear up what he says is a great deal of misunderstanding on the subject.

'Old 168' Like New Again After Work by 40 and 8

Old 168 is shining like a new dollar again these days.

In fact, the old Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad engine standing in Antlers Park looks every bit as good as the day she was put in service 81 years ago.

And responsible for making the narrow gauge engine, a product of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, look new are members of 40 and 8, plus some assistance from the City Parks and Recreation Department.

[illegible] was members of the 40 and 8 who worked six weeks [illegible] City Parks and Recreation Department.

[illegible] the 40 and 8ers repainted the engine inside, outside and underneath.

Only one small area in the upper part of the car was left untouched because of a bird's nest discovered in that location.

Also, a lot of new wood was put into the cow catcher, back end of the engine and along the sides.

Additionally, a lot of new sheet metal had to be replaced, as well as repairing some holes in the boiler. The sheet metal was contributed by Heyse Sheet Metal and Roofing Company as an effort to help the community, Richter added.

A lot of work was also done in repairing and painting the fence which surrounds the engine which stands just south of the Antlers Hotel.

The 40 and 8 people repainted the engine back in 1955, and some work was done on the fence later. The Antlers Hotel arranged for another repainting job about four or five years ago.

The City Park and Recreation Department aided in the program by putting in white quartz as a ballast between the ties underneath the engine.

The department also added some red crushed rock around the entire area and erected and established a sign which shows that the Iron Horse sponsor is 40 and 8.

Richter said the 40 and 8ers also reconditioned the bronze sign on the side of the engine.

This sign says that "Old 168" pulled the first Rio Grande Western Railroad train from Denver to Ogden, Utah, May 21, 1883.

The engine was retired in 1933 after 50 years of continuous service on narrow guage railroad lines and was presented to the City of Colorado Springs Aug. 1, 1938, by the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad.

Most impressive ceremonies were held that August day in 1938, including an inspiring address by Henry McAllister, general counsel for the railroad. A proclamation by Gov. Teller Ammons was read and a parchment scroll presented to the city.

The engine was intended as a monument to Gen. William J. Palmer, railroad builder and founder of the City of Colorado Springs.

Lightning Starts Two Small Fires In Pike Forest

Lightning struck twice Wednesday near Buffalo Creek in Pike National Forest, causing two fires, the U.S. Forest Service reported.

The first blaze was discovered at 7 a.m., three miles northwest of Indian Creek, near the Buffalo Creek District Ranger Station.

Bruce Peterson, forestry aid, led a four-man team which extinguished the half acre burn by 10:30 a.m.

At 2 p.m. lightning struck southeast of Indian Creek. Wallace Lonsinger, South Platte district ranger, led a four-man party which extinguished the one acre burn by 4 p.m.

Fire danger is high in Pike National Forest, a spokesman for the Forest Service said Wednesday.

Manitou Accepts Hendricks Resignation

Dean Hendricks, Manitou Springs Public Works supervisor, Tuesday submitted formal resignation of his position of the last three and one-half years with the city, which was accepted "with regret" by the city council. His resignation becomes effective June 12.

Prior to the council meeting Tuesday, Hendricks had stated his intentions, in order to accept a position with the Manitou Springs school system, in charge of grounds and buildings.

At the meeting, no successor was named by the council to fill the position.

Unmoved, however, the council discussion developed that the evening siren helped control vandalism and other misdemeanors by signaling the curfew hour.

Several members expressed opinions that they "could see no harm in it" and that the practice should be "left as it is."

The topic was put before the council in the form of a motion to keep the practice in force as in the past, acted on and approved.

ENGINE SHIP SHAPE — Thanks to members of the 40 and 8, "Old 168" in Antlers Park now looks like a brand new locomotive. During several weekends, members completely repainted the engine, put in new wood in the cow catcher and the back of the tender, replaced worn out metal and generally made the engine look like new. The City Parks and Recreation Department put up the sign and did other cleanup work. Standing here in front of the historic old engine, given to the city in 1938, are (from left) Stuart Richter, director of the City Parks and Recreation Department; Karl Moses, Chef de Gare, Voiture 1315, 40 and 8; W. C. "Bill" Powers, Grand Chef de Gare, state commander; Dr. H. D. Stauffer, Chef de Chemin de Fer (past national commander, 1962), and Arthur A. Gutmann, incoming Chef de Gare.

'Old 168' Like New Again After Work by 40 and 8

"Old 168" is shining like a new dollar again these days.

In fact, the old Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad engine standing in Antlers Park looks every bit as good as the day she was put in service 81 years ago.

And responsible for making the narrow guage engine, a product of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, like new are members of 40 and 8, plus some assistance from the City Parks and Recreation Department.

But it was members of the 40 and 8 who worked six weekends putting the engine back into tip top shape and "back into something the community can be justly proud," according to Stuart Richter, director of the City Parks and Recreation Department.

For one thing, the 40 and 8ers repainted the engine inside, outside and underneath.

Only one small area in the upper part of the car was left untouched because of a bird's nest discovered in that location.

Also, a lot of new wood was put into the cow catcher, back end of the engine and along the sides.

Additionally, a lot of new sheet metal had to be replaced, as well as repairing some holes in the boiler. The sheet metal was contributed by Heyse Sheet Metal and Roofing Company as "an effort to help the community," Richter added.

A lot of work was also done in repairing and painting the fence which surrounds the engine, which stands just south of the Antlers Hotel.

The 40 and 8 people repainted the engine back in 1953, and some work was done on the fence later. The Antlers Hotel arranged for another repainting job about four or five years ago.

The City Park and Recreation Department aided in the program by putting in white quartz as a ballast between the ties underneath the engine.

The department also added some red crushed rock around the entire area and erected and established a sign which shows that the Iron Horse sponsor is 40 and 8.

Richter said the 40 and 8ers also reconditioned the bronze sign on the side of the engine.

This sign says that "Old 168" pulled the first Rio Grande Western Railroad train from Denver to Ogden, Utah, May 21, 1883.

The engine was retired in 1933 after 50 years of continuous service on narrow guage railroad lines and was presented to the City of Colorado Springs Aug. 1, 1938, by the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad.

Most impressive ceremonies were held that August day in 1938, including an inspiring address by Henry McAllister, general counsel for the railroad. A proclamation by Gov. Teller Ammons was read, and a parchment scroll presented to the city.

The engine was intended as a monument to Gen. William J. Palmer, railroad builder and founder of the City of Colorado Springs.

One part of the ceremony saw William F. Haynes of Denver hand a box of ashes from the firebox of the engine to H. Hoyt Stevens, one time pesonal cour- Stevens, one time personal cour- the railroad. Haynes was an engineer and at the throttle of the original runs of the D and RGW in 1872, the year after the city was founded.

Shortly after the ceremonies a National Guard plane piloted by Maj. G. H. Burnham flew over the locomotive, dipped its wings in salute and then soared over Pikes Peak where the last ashes from the engine's firebox were dropped.

McAllister said in part "may the engine stand here for all time, not as a momento of the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad, but as a memorial to its founder, Gen. William Jackson Palmer, who was the first citizen of Colorado Springs in every respect."

Mayor George Birdsall accepted the gift in behalf of the city and said "I trust this locomotive may stand here from now on as a monument to the faith the builders of the railroad had in the future of the west."

Many other dignitaries were also on hand for the colorful ceremonies of dedication, including City Manager Earl L. Mosley.

"Old 168" weighs 70,550 pounds, and the weight of the drivers was 50,643 pounds. The engine and tender are 53 feet 4 inches long. The locomotive cost $10,770 to build.

When "Old 168" first went into service in 1873 the population of Colorado Springs was about 1,500 persons, and there were about 350 houses in the community.

Lightning Starts Two Small Fires In Pike Forest

Lightning struck twice Wednesday near Buffalo Creek in Pike National Forest, causing two fires, the U.S. Forest Service reported.

The first blaze was discovered at 7 a.m., three miles northwest of Indian Creek, near the Buffalo Creek District Ranger Station.

Bruce Peterson, forestry aid, led a four-man team which extinguished the half acre burn by 10:30 a.m.

At 2 p.m. lightning struck southeast of Indian Creek. Wallace Lonsinger, South Platte district ranger, led a four - man party which extinguished the one acre burn by 4 p.m.

"Fire danger is high in Pike National Forest," a spokesman for the Forest Service said Wednesday.

Manitou Accepts Hendricks Resignation

Dean Hendricks, Manitou Springs Public Works supervisor, Tuesday submitted formal resignation of his position of the past three and one-half years with the city, which was accepted "with regret" by the city council. His resignation becomes effective June 12.

Prior to the council meeting Tuesday, Hendricks had stated his intentions, in order to accept a position with the Manitou Springs school system, in charge of grounds and buildings.

At the meeting, no successor was named by the council to fill the position.

Fine Suspended For Youth With No License

Robert James McNinch, 18, Holly Hall, was fined $50 and costs and had the fine suspended by Justice of the Peace H. C. McShane Wednesday for having no operator's license. The defendant was ticketed Tuesday on 8th Street by Police Officer Glenn O. Delaney.

Samuel Frank Soto, 30, 413 Security Blvd., was charged with reckless driving on Colorado Highway 27 May 16 and fined $25 and costs. The officer was A. G. Murin of the state patrol.

James Edward Garcia was also fined $25 and costs for the same violation. Garcia, 19, 323 Portland Blvd., was ticketed May 12 on Mt. Washington Avenue by State Patrolman C. W. Hubbard.

Police Officer B. D. Givens gave a ticket to David A. Hartman, 19, 917 N. Nevada Ave., for having an expired permit and no inspection sticker. The incident happened Friday on North Nevada Avenue and Hartman was fined $15 and costs with $5 suspended.

Robert Earl Ikener, 23, 1126 E. Las Animas St., paid a $10 fine and costs for having no operator's license and driving a defective vehicle on South Nevada Avenue Sunday. The police officer was R. Mays.

Careless driving on Holly Avenue Tuesday cost Nancy Elizabeth Light, 16, 2605 Constellation Dr., $10 and costs. C. W. Hubbard of the state patrol was the officer.

Lew Lee Crippers, 59, 712 N. 24th St., was given a $6 fine and costs for having no operator's license. Police Officer J. B. Clark cited him Sunday on South 25th Street.

Modesto Martinez, 29, 3180 W. Pikes Peak Ave., was fined $15 and costs for speeding. According to State Patrolman Ken Smith the defendant was driving at 70 miles per hour in a 60 zone on U.S. Highway 24 Friday.

Ross Scott Wedemeyer, 21, 2942 Country Club Dr., was also charged with speeding and fined $25 and costs.

Pair Lose Driving Right, Fined For Drag Racing

Acting judge Clinton Cole levied $50 fines Wednesday in Municipal Court against two males who pleaded guilty to drag racing.

Fined were Robert Dump, 22, 322 N. Bonfoy Ave., and Randall Kosp, 16, 21 Crescent Lane. The two also had their right to drive in the city suspended for 30 days.

Carl Dunham, 22, 416 Prairie Rd., was fined $50 on his guilty plea to reckless driving.

Wesley Fernald, 52, of Manitou Springs, and Ralph Hiscutt, 47, 2021 Oriole Ave., were found not guilty of careless driving charges they had brought against each other.

Bobie Null, 21, Black Forest, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and fined $150. Judge Cole stipulated that $50 would be suspended on condition Null, in the future, make arrangements through Legal Aid to see his two-year old son by his ex-wife Marilyn.

The former Mrs. Null said she had re-married and said that when Null discovered this, he came to her brother's home where she was seated in a car and tried to take the child of their marriage.

She said Null twisted her arm, almost breaking her thumb, and scared the child. Her mother, Mrs. Enid Perkins, a passenger in the car where the incident took place, said Null had threatened to kill Marilyn's new husband, and that was the reason her daughter could not tell Null his name.

Judge Cole advised Null to seek legal counsel or work out some visiting arrangements with his son through Legal Aid.

Springs School Pupils Win Blue Ribbons

Pupils from the Colorado Springs School for Girls captured four blue ribbons, seven red ribbons, two white ribbons and set three new records this past weekend at the annual Kent-Graland Track and Field Meet held in Denver.

Seventh grader Anne Howbert broke the previous records in the running high jump and the standing broad jump. Anne's broad jump of seven feet, seven and a half inches lengthened the previous record of seven feet four inches by three and a half inches.

Her phenomenal high jump 55 inches not only broke the previous record for seventh graders, but the previous record of the meet which had been 53¼ inches.

Sixth grader Ann Smith took first place and broke the previous seventh grade record in the 50-yard dash.

Other winners were Terry Trowbridge who took first in the ninth grade high jump. Her 50-foot jump, although under Anne's 55-foot spring made in the field against all other competing ninth graders.

Seventh grader Julie Frazier won a second in softball throw.

Red ribbons were also won fied ceremony by Heather Cogswell, Josephine Ruder, Sharon Griffith and Terry in the 440-yard relay, and Laurie Long in the hop, step and jump for seventh graders, and Sharon for the ninth graders. Third places were won by eighth grader Katharine Hall in the standing broad jump and Katharine Roberts in the 50-yard dash.

India's Minister of Defense Yeshwantrao Balwantrao Chavan will visit the North American Air Defense Command headquarters here on Tuesday.

NORAD Commander in Chief Gen. John K. Gerhart and his staff will accord full military honors to the visiting Indian official.

That evening Gen. and Mrs. Gerhart will host the Indian Defense Minister and his party for dinner at the Broadmoor Hotel International Congress Room.

Chavan and his party of four are currently on a tour of United States military installations and aircraft manufacturing facilities as guests of United States Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara.

They arrived at Kennedy International Airport on May 18th and will depart the United States for the United Kingdom on May 29th.

During the U.S. tour they will visit the Pentagon in Washington; Arlington National Cemetery, Cape Kennedy, Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma, Northrop, Douglas and Lockheed Aircraft factories on the west coast, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, in addition to the North American Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs.

Chavan, a longtime Indian official, has been in public service periodically since 1942. He has edited both weekly and daily newspapers in Marathi, India. He has held both elective and appointive office in the Indian government. He was appointed Minister of Defense in 1962 and has held that position since that time. Others in the party will include: P. V. R. Rao, Defense Secretary to the Ministry of Defense; A. K. Dar, Minister, Indian Embassy, Washington, D.C.; Air Vice Marshal Arjan Singh, Indian Air Force Vice Chief of Staff; and R. D. Pradhan, Private Secretary to the Minister of Defense.

Russell Paul Named Manitou Police Chief

Patrolman Russell Paul has been officially appointed to the position of police chief of Manitou Springs, Mayor L. L. Longaker announced today. His position is effective immediately.

Paul has been acting chief since the resignation of Leonard Foos, in April.

Seventeen years in police work back up Paul's qualification for the position. He has been on the Manitou force since July 1963 following 21 years of military service. At the time of his retirement from service, he held the position of provost sergeant in the military police at Ft. Carson.

A resident of the area for 11½ years, he and his wife Elaine have four children, Jeannie Ruth, 15, Charles Russell, 12, Howard Roger, 8, and Cynthia, 9 months.

He is a veteran of WW II and the Korean conflict and is formerly from Dayton, Tenn.

YMCA Needs Two Pool Tables

The YMCA is in need of two pocket billiard tables for the game room in the main building. The tables now in use are beyond further repair and must be replaced.

Equipment of this type which is donated to the YMCA is tax-deductible at its full value.

Anyone who has a pocket billiard table they would like to dispose of should call the 'Y' at 633-4643.

School Pupils To Present Variety Show

The 200 pupils of Immanuel Lutheran Elementary School will present a spring variety show at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the school's gymnasium.

Each class will have a separate part in the show, which will include American and European folk dances, a flag drill, patriotic and humorous songs and a comic skit.

The public is invited.

Canon Hospital Gets Three-Year Accreditation

St. Thomas More Hospital of Canon City was recently awarded a three - year accreditation certificate by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, Chicago, Ill., Sister Judith, O.S.B. administrator of the hospital, has announced.

The certificate was presented as the result of the evaluation of a survey in the hospital conducted during March by Theodore J. Hughes, M.D., field representative of the Commission.

Although the hospital has been accredited for one year periods, this marks the first time it has received a three - year accreditation.

Sister Judith was notified of the honor by Dr. Kenneth B. Babcock, director of the Joint Commission. The Commission is made up of the American College of Physicians, the American College of Surgeons, the American Hospital Association, and the American Medical Association.

The accreditation program is voluntary, and joined by hospitals that wish to maintain a standard considered necessary by medical and hospital authorities to insure high quality medical care.

Canon Residents Attend GOP Meet

Mrs. Harold McCormick, Mrs. Numa Hayes and Mrs. William Schalow of Canon City represented the Royal Gorge Republican Women's Club at the convention of the Colorado Federation of Republican Women held in Trinidad Friday and Saturday.

Honored guest at the convention was Rep. J. Edgar Chenoweth of Colorado's Third Congressional District.

Award Banquet Honors Emerson Plant Employes

One hundred and thirty three employees of the Emerson Western Plant with five or more years of service were honored at a service award dinner held at the Palmer House Tuesday evening.

G. F. Craig, vice president of industrial relations, Emerson Electric Company, guest speaker of the evening, commended the group for their accumulative total of over eleven hundred and fifty years of co-operation and service in the plant.

He said that this group of older in service employees with their wide experience and knowledge of manufacturing had made a tremendous contribution to the continuing successful operation of the business.

L. W. Keller, plant manager presented service awards to thirty - eight employees who had reached their fifth or tenth year of service during the past twelve months. The Emerson Western Management Club assisted in the program arrangements.

J. S. Hoddy, founder and retired president of the division also offered his congratulations to the group and wished them continuing success.

The local plant manufactures precision custom built fractional horsepower electric motors and is a division of Emerson Electric Company.

Twice Daily Siren Blast To Continue

Like it or not, the ears of Manitou Springs residents will continue in their adjustment to the twice - daily blast of a siren signaling 12 noon and the curfew time at 9 p.m.

For people who have long ceased to notice - and there are those who have - the only change in the long - standing practice, coming out of a city council decision, will be extension of the 9 p.m. signal to 10 p.m., to be effective during summer months only.

"The noon siren definitely performs a technical service test once in every 24 hours on the capability of operation of the whistle," Mayor L. L. Longaker advised.

The mayor aired the topic before the council in the interest of citizens who felt that the evening signal could be dispensed with during the approaching tourist season, and that the wail constituted a detriment, particularly to the slumbers of tourists unaccustomed to such nocturnal cacophony. "Tourists," the mayor added, "are also known to be early risers."

Unmoved, however, the council discussion opened that the evening siren helped control vandalism and other misdemeanors by signaling the curfew hour.

Several members expressed opinions that they "could see no harm in it," and that the practice should be "left as it is."

The topic was put before the council in the form of a motion to keep the practice in force as in the past, acted on and approved.

Three at Security File to Retain Board Seats

Three members of the Security Park and Recreation District Board have filed to retain their seats.

They are Glen Driscoll, Edward Haynes and Dr. Joseph Gentile. Aall were appointed to fill vacancies on the board.

The election will be 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. June 2 in the lobby of Widefield High School.

The deadline closed May 3 for submitting petitions to place candidates' names on the ballot, said Paul Morris, director of the park system.

There were no other filings for the election. "We are advised by our attorney that write in votes will not count," Morris added.

Driscoll is principal of Sproul Junior High School. He was appointed to the board two years ago. He belongs to the Security Athletic Association and has been a volunteer manager for a softball team sponsored in the summer by the park district.

Driscoll has been employed by School District 3 for seven years, principal of the junior high school for four years and has been in the field of education for 13 years. He graduated from Buena Vista College, Storm Lake, Iowa, and was born and raised in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He will seek a two - year term. He lives at 614 Aspen Drive.

Haynes will seek a four-year term. He was appointed to the board two years ago and is a retired U.S. Army major. He has lived in Security since 1956 and is a loan assistant at the Exchange National Bank. He was born in Portsmouth, N.H. He has been active in the park program for four years and lives at 240 Davie Drive.

Dr. Gentile will seek a four-year term. He is a native of Colorado and attended Regis College, Denver. He received a D.D.S. degree from the University of Creighton, Omaha, Neb. He served with the U.S. Navy and is active in the local Naval Reserve program as Appropriate Duty Dental Officer. He holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the reserves. He has practiced dentistry in Security since August 1957.

Dr. Gentile is past president of the Security Lions Club and belongs to the Colorado State and El Paso County Dental societies, the American Society for Dentistry for Children and the courtesy staff at Penrose Hospital.

He was appointed to the board two years ago and is acting treasurer. He lives at 704 Main St.

Carson Man Gets $120 Check For Idea

Frederick S. Charlton, material segregator and classifier for Installation Supply at Ft. Carson received a check for $120 Monday in return for an idea which was evaluated at saving $2,000 annually for the federal government.

Charlton proposed building a spool dispenser to be used for uncoiling cable and rope, eliminating from three to four men plus a forklift, to uncoil and recoil cable and rope.

The new system makes it possible for one man using the forklift to uncoil required amounts of cable and rope.

Charlton's award was one of three authorized for presentation Monday in the Installation Supply offices. The four checks totaled $163.

Other recipients were two warehousemen, Francis McGillivary, $28, and Floyd R. Gerth, $15.

McGillivary recommended installing field phones in each warehouse for intercommunication. The idea was evaluated at saving $762 in 254 man hours of running from one end of the building to the other.

Gerth proposed installing a flexible flood light in the warehouses to be used when loading semi - trailers during hours of darkness or on very cloudy days. Actual tangible benefits were not estimable but a $15 award was granted based on improvement of safety conditions.

Students Plan More Traveling to Cuba

NEW YORK (AP) —The Student Committee for Travel to Cuba says more than 100 persons will defy a State Department ban and visit Cuba one to two months this summer as guests of the Communist government.

The committee said Wednesday it wants to "re-establish a basic civil liberty" to travel without penalty. About 60 students who made the trip last year face permanent loss of their U.S. passports.

LOW-COST FLIGHTS TO EUROPE

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jet-prop service between New York and Luxembourg, in the heart of Western Europe, will be started June 1 by Icelandic Airlines at round trip rates of $339.50.

The airline recently announced purchase of two new Rolls-Royce 400 (CL-44) jet-prop airliners with cruising speeds of more than 400 mph, reducing flying time on the New York-Luxembourg route to less than 10 hours, plus a 45-minute stopover in Iceland. Icelandic currently operates DC-6B piston air carft on all it's rotes between New York, Iceland and eight other destinations in Europe.

YEAR'S ACTING IN SCANDINAVIA

BERGEN, Norway (AP) — American actor Earle Hyman is making a year-long return visit to Scandinavia for what he calls an "irresistible" series of theatrical engagements.

He will appear in "Othello," "The Emperor Jones" and a program of Shakespearean excerpts, beginning at the Bergen International Festival in June. Hyman, who began studying Norwegian 10 years ago, scored a huge success when he appeared here last year.

In addition to Oslo and several other Norwegian cities, he will perform in Sweden, Denmark and Finland.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK (AP) — A big leap by U.S. Smelting featured a generally higher stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

U.S. Smelting's report that it has made a major copper ore discovery in New Mexico resulted in a delayed opening for the stock which was swamped with buyers.

It soared 10¾ points to a new high of 130 on a block of 26,000 shares and held that price in later dealings.

This touched off renewed trading eagerness for stocks with known or possible mineral and oil discoveries, both on the New York and the American Stock Exchange.

Rails lost the steam that propelled them into market leadership Wednesday. Big Three motors were fractionally higher. Selective gains by blue chips resulted in somewhat higher stock averages but the market had many dead spots.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .6 at 307.6 with industrials up 1.6, rails up .5 and utilities off .3.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.64 at 821.75.

Texas Pacific Land jumped more than 3, then cut a point from its gain, and Kerr-McGee Oil advanced well over a point.

Texas Gulf Sulphur dropped a point and Calumet & Hecla lost a fraction.

Speculative buying also boosted J. Ray McDermott about 2 and J.I. Case more than a point.

Eastman Kodak broke out above its high and the stock ran up about 3 points.

Most motors made fractional gains. Many leading utilities, however, showed no change and this group was off a bit on average. The trend was a shade lower among steels and nonferrous metals. Farm implements rose slightly.

Polaroid gained 2, IBM and Xerox a point each.

Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Prices had become mostly firm in the grain futures market in the early afternoon today as selling slackened and demand improved slightly on the Board of Trade.

Wheat moved up about a cent. Rye and soybeans also held advances of a cent or so.

Carlot receipts today were estimated at: wheat no cars, corn 76, oats 2, rye none, barley 10, soybeans 21.

Park Department Watering Three Days a Week

The City Park and Recreation Department is sprinkling just three days a week, according to Stuart Richter, department director.

He said potable water for such sprinkling is done on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week.

This is different from city customers because those living in even numbered houses are restricted to sprinkling on even numbered days of the month and odd numbered addresses on off numbered days. No one is permitted to water on the 31st day of any month.

Persons with new lawns planted this year are on an honor system and may water newly planted areas daily, if necessary. This new lawn rule will terminate July 1.

Car washing, other than at commercial establishments, is permitted only on those days assigned for lawn watering.

Red Cross Has Four Men at Desert Strike

The American Red Cross has four men with the 5th Infantry Division (Mechanized) at Exercise Desert Strike. Their main mission is to give liaison assistance between troops in the field and their families at home.

Working through Pikes Peak Chapter, American Red Cross, and the field office at Ft. Carson, the four ARC staffers at Ft. Carson send queries through exercise headquarters at Needles, Calif.

Montell Kyler and Ron Courtney from the ARC at Ft. Carson are assisted at Exercise Desert Strike by two men from other Red Cross staffs within the Fifth U.S. Army area.

The four are assigned to the two brigades, 5th Division Artillery and Support Command.

A typical case which was completed May 19 involved a soldier taken ill in the field. His wife learned that he was hospitalized through a letter to another wife in Colorado Springs.

Red Cross traced the ill soldier to an evacuation hospital in the field, then to an evacuation center in California and, finally, to Fitzsimons General Hospital, Denver. His wife visited him there May 19. She had learned of his illness on May 14.

Members of military families with emergency messages are asked to channel them through the Pikes Peak Chapter at 632-3523 if they live off-post, and through the field directors office at Carson, ext. 2166, if they live at Carson.

Injury Suit Settled During Trial

A personal injury suit brought by John H. and Neva A. Van Allen, 516 Marquetta Dr., against Dorothy Elizabeth Horn, 418 Ponderosa Dr., which started in District Court Tuesday was settled Thursday before completion of testimony.

No details of the settlement were revealed.

The Van Allens were seeking $69,042 damages as the result of an accident which happened March 23, 1959, when John Van Allen was injured.

According to the complaint, the defendant allegedly drove a car into a pickup owned by Mrs. Van Allen and driven by John Van Allen at the intersection of Morningside and Marquette Drives.

In a counterclaim the defendant was requesting $25,000, alleging the accident was the result of Van Allen's negligence.

Judge G. Russell Miller was on the bench.

Edward G. Thomas of Colorado Springs again has earned membership in the Million Dollar Round Table, the life insurance industry's 3,500-member international organization of million-dollar-a-year sales producers.

Membership in the select association is limited to members of the National Association of Life Underwriters, or its foreign counterpart, who sell at least $1 million of new life insurance each year according to MDRT standards, or life members who have earned the honor by fulfilling current and previous requirements.

Burglars Pry Open Coin Boxes, Steal Change

Burglars got away with an undetermined amount of change after prying open jukebox selectors and a bowling machine coin box at Fred's Bar Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning. The burglary was one of six theft cases reported by police this morning.

Officers said the intruders pried open a door to enter the building at 2507 W. Colorado Ave. The theft was discovered by cleanup man Harold Knight. Victim of the burglary is Fred H. Witty of Woodland Park.

A radio, battery and other items worth a total of $100 were stolen from a car owned by Phil Long Ford and being used by James Harold Ledfor, 2738 N. Prospect St. The theft occurred early Wednesday morning. A cigaret lighter and gas cap were included in the missing items. The car was parked outside Ledfor's home at the time of the theft.

A wall mirror worth $50 was stolen from the lobby of the Cascade Apartments, 624 N. Cascade Ave. The theft was discovered Wednesday morning and reported by the manager.

Also stolen from the lobby of an apartment building was an upholstered chair worth $25. The theft occurred at 30 Boulder Crescent and was discovered Wednesday morning. The victim is Oscar J. Hague who reported the theft.

Maretta Ummel, 9 S. Limit St., reported the theft of a billfold containing $35 in cash from a clothes closet in her home. She said the thief apparently entered the home through an open back door Tuesday night or Wednesday.

A four by six-foot wooden sign was stolen from a Texaco service station at 505 N. Union Blvd. Tuesday night. The sign was reported stolen by Millard Valentine, owner of the station.

Cash Missing From Southgate Money Bag

Approximately $420 was stolen from a Southgate State money bag which belonged to the Beeteaters, 1422 S. Tejon St., the sheriff's office reported Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Dietsche said that Leonard Hamilton, 930 W. Cheyenne Rd., left home for work at the restaurant and put the bag in the back of his car while he got out of it for a moment. He then drove a few blocks and noticed the bag was gone.

It was found sometime later in a mailbox by the post office. All the checks were still in it but $420 in cash was gone.

Timken Will Pay 75-Cent Dividend

Timken Roller Bearing Co. will pay a quarterly cash dividend of 75 cetns a share June 10 to shareholders of record as of the close of business May 20.

The dividend was declared by the board of directors at a meeting May 5.

At a special meeting last Friday, the board elected George L. Deal, former secretary-treasurer of the company, to the new position of vice president-finance. Deal also was named chairman of the finance committee, a post formerly held by W. R. Timken.

R. A. Gulling and B. R. Powell were elected treasurer and secretary, respectively. Gulling previously was controller and assistant treasurer and Powell was assistant secretary.

Chet Woodring Named Jimmy Camp President

Chet Woodring was elected president of the Jimmy's Camp Sportsmen's Club at a meeting Monday night. Other officers then elected were: Dora Cummings, first vice president; Les Cornforth, second vice president; Peggy Bennett, secretary, and Paul Jenness, treasurer. The following directors were elected: Preston Sumner, Russell Hughes, Betty Sperry, Ted Flinn and John Bennett.

Tire Reported Stolen From Service Station

Ken Crosby, 5200 N. Nevada Ave., reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday that a new white wall Gillett tire worth $16.08 had been stolen from the Shamrock Station which he operates at 5200 N. Nevada Ave.

According to Deputy Sheriff Bob Snuggs the station is open all night with one man on duty.

The 1,056-foot Eiffel Tower in Paris is six inches higher in summer than in winter because its all-steel structure expands in hot weather.

Delbert Wilgus Dies At Local Hospital

Delbert B. Wilgus, 300 N. Arrawanna St., a resident of Colorado Springs since 1954, and from 1939 until then operator of a grocery store in Manitou Springs, died Wednesday at a local hospital. He was manager of Vern's Trailer Court.

Mr. Wilgus was born in Brashear, Mo., April 27, 1889. He was a member of the Evangelical Church of that city. In 1899 he resided in the Simla and Matheson area and in 1946 moved to Calhan, from which city he moved to Manitou Springs. He was married in Colorado Springs in 1922 and his wife, Mrs. Hazel Wilgus, survives him. He is also survived by a son, Byrl Wilgus of Colorado Springs; a daughter, Dolores Street, El Sabrante, Calif.; eight grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Denver, and two brothers, J. W. Wilgus, Bozeman, Mont., and E. L. Wilgus, Pueblo.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Our Chapel of Memories. The Rev. Everett Thompson will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Jesse Butler, Vern Cox, L. G. Pickett, Virgil Butler, Mural Gallager and Claude Florhs.

Man Fined $25 for Assault, Battery

Raymond Edgar Dukes was fined $25 and $7 costs by Justice of the Peace James F. Quine Wednesday for assault and battery.

Dukes, 18, 720 S. Cascade Ave., pleaded guilty to attacking Joe Ray Boyle with his fists May 12 and then kicking and stomping him on the head after he had knocked him down.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the fourteenth day of July, 1964 at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a hearing will be conducted by a Hearing Officer for the Federal Home Loan Bank Board in Suite 416, Letter Carriers Building, 100 Indiana Avenue, N. Electronic Calculator Desk-Top Size

Friden Inc. introduced today at a press preview in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City an all-purpose electronic desk-top calculator.

Albert Ellington, manager of Friden's outlet here, 509 N. Tejon St., said he expects a calculator to be available in Colorado Springs by the first of June.

P. R. Samwell, president of the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Singer Co. founded in 1933 by the late Carl M. Friden, said the calculator is a major break-through in the office equipment industry. American mechanical calculators have led the world for the last 50 years and the Friden 130 is a worthy product to lead the industry into the era of electronics.

The calculator is being manufactured at Friden's home plant in San Leandro, Calif.

Described as being a very simple solid-state electronic computer, the Friden 130 combines the speed and quietness of the electronic computer with the simple manual input and operational flexibility of the mechanical desk-top calculator.

It is only slightly larger than a mechanical calculator in size and is styled to achieve a high level of contemporary industrial design. The calculating and display units have no moving parts, all computations being performed by solid-state electronic components with entries and answers being displayed on a cathode ray tube similar to a small television screen.

The 130 operates at speeds measured in milliseconds with answers appearing almost instantaneously on the screen as control keys are released. The simple 10-key keyboard and clearly marked controls, automatic decimal point-off, multiple registers, and other advanced features make the 130 easy to operate.

An outstanding feature of the Friden 130 is the automatic transfer of terms or intermediate answers which permits a logical flow of calculations never before obtained from desk-top calculators.

The worldwide business equipment firm introduced two other products at the session, the Friden 6018 Magnetic Disc File, an interchangeable memory unit compactly housed in a small cabinet, and an Automatic Card Reader, an auxiliary unit which automatically feeds standard Hollerith coded punched cards from a 200-card capacity hopper to a reader.

Gates Store Will Hold Opening Friday, Saturday

The Gates Tire and Rubber Co. store at 411 E. Pikes Peak Ave., former site of the D. E. Higdon and Sons Motor Co., will hold a grand opening Friday and Saturday. The store has been open since April 20.

More than 100 prizes, including tires, electric mixers and transistor radios, will be given away during the grand opening, which will be highlighted Saturday by music by the Windjammers, Denver folk singing group. Coffee, doughnuts and pop will be served Friday.

The store carries the entire line of Gates rubber products, and in addition to wholesale and retail selling, the business has a service department and tire recapping facilities.

Managers of the business are Walter Pape and Robert Pride. Pape was with Gates, whose manufacturing plant is in Denver, for 17 years as head of the Denver budget department. He is a native of Ballinger, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Pape have three children.

Pride, a native of Evansville, Ind., lived in Denver before coming here April 15. From 1957 to 1962 he was in wholeselling for Gates in Denver, and for two years managed a Gates store in south Denver.

The Colorado Springs store will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondys through Saturdays regularly. During the two-day open house, the store will be open until 9 p.m.

Plants to Make Detergent That Doesn't Foam

NEW YORK (AP)—That foam on streams and lakes, the suds that sometimes rise in the lower floors of apartment houses, the froth on the glass of tap water in some crowded suburbs—all may be on the way out.

At least that's what the detergent industry is promising—and putting up $100 million to back its words.

New plants to produce a different detergent base, one that won't retain its foam after it's gone down the drain, are rising across the country.

The industry promises that most detergent makers will have the new substance available early next year, and all by the end of 1965.

Wisconsin and some local communities have passed laws saying that the froth-retaining type can't be sold there any more.

The new substance is LAS, meaning linear alkylate sulfonate. The one now used is ABS, standing for alkyl benzene sulfonate. The difference is that the ABS you're used to doesn't break down readily in sewage treatment plants, or in streams, or in private septic tanks. Hence the objectionable suds where none is wanted.

LAS has a simpler molecular structure, say the experts, that biological action can break down more easily, and thus get rid of that foam which many people rank high on their list of obnoxious water pollutants.

Charles G. Bueltman, technical director of the Soap and Detergent Association, said in an interview that all of the industry's raw material suppliers and some newcomers to the field have announced plans to build new plants or extensively modify existing ones for production of the LAS type.

The association promises that the housewife will get equally good cleaning performance at no extra cost.

April Advance In Economy Is Maintained

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—First reports on the economy in May show the April advance is being maintained. June might well set new peaks before the start of the anticipated summer slowdown.

And by then people will be thinking less about the business cycle and more about politics anywa.

The upward pace isn't as fast as in the final weeks in 1963 but the news reports are peppered with advances in particular industrials and with even more glowing predictions.

Steel production continues to confound its own industry experts. Output is still on that uphill course that helped pull April's all-inclusive industrial production index to a new high. The steel mills are pouring out tonnage at the highest rate since last June.

The current outlook is that this month's total production will fall short of 1 million tons. Still, orders for June are coming in better than expected earlier and the industry now expects to end the first half of 1964 with total output well ahead of its New Year's predictions.

Auto makers are pushing production. And new car buyers are keeping sales high. Detroit, too, is planning for a summer slowdown as it changes over for new models, a more extensive revision this year than last. And it is girding for labor contract bargaining.

Retailers in general report sales holding high. Some chains note marked advances in recent weeks, even if over-all retail figures haven't jumped as quickly as some advocates of the federal income tax cut had predicted.

The increase in consumer credit totals shows the public still in a buying and borrowing mood. And the stepped-up clearing of old debts is considered putting more families in position to start buying soon in greater volume.

The Commerce Department has just revised downward its earlier estimate of the Gross national Product in the first three months of the year. But the optimists even here can point to the causes of the revision as having good points.

Firemen Put Out Grass Blaze Wednesday

Company 5 of the Colorado Springs Fire Department on a 12:35 p.m. alarm Wednesday put out a grass fire at 2200 W. Uintah St. There was no damage.

The fire department's report is that it is believed the fire spread from an incinerator lighted by children who ran away when they saw the fire spreading.

Minutemen May Be Facing U.S. Charges

CLINTON, Ill. (AP) — Two members of an anti-Communist organization were trying to raise bail funds today after their arrest in connection with the government's seizure of a cache of weapons.

Richard Lauchli, 37, Collinsville, Ill., former Illinois leader of "The Minutemen," and Donald Sturgis, 36, Fairmont City, Ill., were seized Tuesday by Treasury agents who posed as middlemen for an unnamed foreign power and allegedly paid the two men $17,000 for the weapons.

Lauchli and Sturgis were charged with possesion of unregistered automatic weapons and bond was set at $20,000 each.

The arms, found in an abandoned farm near Clinton, included at least 130 submachine guns, five 50-caliber machine guns, several mortars, automatic pistols and aerial bombs, plus a flame-thrower, agents said.

Agents said Lauchli led detachments of "The Minutemen" through guerrilla warfare maneuvers three years ago and has been convicted once for illegal possession of automatic weapons.

Shakespeare Being Buried, Critic Notes

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP) — Those British actors at Lincoln Center's State Theater seem to have come to bury Shakespeare, not praise him.

The company from the Royal Playhouse at Stratford-Upon-Avon put their version of "The Comedy of Errors" on display Wednesday night.

It's a solemn, dark, dirgeful concept which cracks a pained smile too rarely. But it is a lot shorter than the curiously bloodless "King Lear" that is the companion exhibit during a three-week visit.

Director Clifford Williams has put the mistaken-identities caper in a frame of somber ballet, clad his cast in costumes appropriate for a medieval morality play performed in a churchyard, and set a tempo of acute deliberation.

The ensemble—main roles are handled by Ian Richardson, Alec McCowen, Clifford Rose, Barry MacGregor, Diana Rigg and Julie Christi—is filled with diligence and diction. But the upshot is that weaknesses are magnified and wit is belabored.

The English do have a sense of humor but it has been magnificently stifled this time in "The Comedy of Errors."

Helm Ends Long Coaching Career As Indians Shoot for Another Crown

By CHARLIE DREUX
Gazette Telegraph Sports Writer

When Coach Eldon Helm's Cheyenne Mountain baseball team competes in the State Class-AA finals Saturday afternoon against Delta on the Western Slope, it will be the final bid for state Class AA honors for both Helm and the Indians.

This is Helm's final season in athletics and next fall the Cheyenne coach will take on a new position — principal of Cheyenne Mountain High School. And the Cheyenne school is slated to end its association along with three other area schools with the Class-AA Pikes Peak League and advance to the higher state Class-AAA division.

Along with Air Academy High, Widefield, Harrison and Canon City, Cheyenne will join these four schools to form the Will Rogers League. The new league will compete in all sporting events on the Class-AAA level.

Helm Ends Long Coaching Career As Indians Shoot for Another Crown

By CHARLIE DREUX
Gazette Telegraph Sports Writer

When Coach Eldon Helm's Cheyenne Mountain baseball team competes in the State Class-AA finals Saturday afternoon against Delta on the Western Slope, it will be the final bid for state class AA honors for both Helm and the Indians.

This is Helm's final season in athletics and next fall the Cheyenne coach will take on a new position — principal of Cheyenne Mountain High School. And the Cheyenne school is slated to end its association, along with three other area schools, with the Class-AA Pikes Peak League and advance to the higher state Class-AAA division.

Along with Air Academy High, Widefield, Harrison and Canon City, Cheyenne will join these four schools to form the Will Rogers League. The new league will compete in all sporting events on the Class-AAA level.

Helm could close out his coaching career, especially in baseball, on a climatic note if his baseballers bring home the state championship trophy. But regardless of the outcome of Saturday's state finals against Delta, Helm's teams have truely earned the label of PPL "perennial champions."

For seven league campaigns, the Cheyenne teams have completely dominated the PPL and two weeks ago the Tribe wrapped up their seventh league title when they toppled top challenger Academy High.

The remarkable thing is not only winning seven PPL titles during Helm's nine-year reign but the fact that the Indians posted their 57th consecutive league victory when they defeated Academy High.

In overall competition, the Indians have also been outstanding during the Helm era. In nine years the Cheyenne teams have won 117 games. Should the Tribe surpass Delta for the state title on Saturday, this would give Helm his fifth state championship and 118th victory during his coaching tenure at Cheyenne.

And Helm guided the school its first state football championship last winter when the Cheyenne grid squad beat Lamar for the State Class-AA title.

Guy Barickman, who served under Helm last football season as a line coach and was a Missouri University freshman coach for four years, will assume the job of head football coach at Cheyenne. Tom McCord, who guided the track team the last two seasons, will take over the baseball job at Cheyenne next year. In addition, McCord will serve as athletic director.

In previewing Saturday's state finals game, the Indians will attempt to break a one-year jinx enjoyed by the Delta aggregation. Last year the Delta nine waxed Cheyenne in the semi-finals and went on to capture the state crown from Lamar.

Cheyenne qualified for the state playoff contest with a 4-2 triumph over visiting Las Animas last Saturday at Colorado Springs' Memorial Park. Meanwhile that same day, the Delta group required 10 full innings to dispose of the Metropolitan League champion Thornton, 7-6.

With lefty Ted Garcia on the mound, the Cheyenne team enters the Delta game with perhaps one of its strongest teams to date. In addition to Garcia's strong arm, the Indians have a host of sluggers with Bill Massarand leading the way.

Voted to the PPL All-Conference team, Massarand has developed into the finest hitter in the Class-AA loop. The Cheyenne third baseman is presently hitting at a .408 clip and has five home runs to his credit.

Massarand also leads the team in runs-batted-in with 17. The Cheyenne junior has 22 hits for 54 times at bat.

Garcia leads the Indians' mound corps with a 2.01 earned-team hitting average and a 2.54. The Cheyenne portside chucker, who is slated to return next season to assure that school another successful campaign, has struck out 92 batsmen, given up 31 walks, and 22 earned runs on 47 hits this year.

The Cheyenne team will go into Saturday's game with a .262 team htiting average and a 2.54 ERA in pitching.

The following is the position and batting average of Saturday's probable starters: Massarand, third base (.408); Garcia, pitcher (.326); Gary Graham, second base (.302); Jeff Thatcher, shortstop (.293); Joel Folk, catcher (.265); Jeff Leigh, first base and Jack O'Brien, outfield (.214); Barry Riddoch, outfield (.189); and Greg Cramblit, outfield (.125).

Big Horn Hunters Top Archers In State Tourney

Several local archers have placed high in the final results of the state-wide Chicago Round mail tournament which has just been tallied. One of the state champions named was Jim Ward of the Big Horn Bow Hunters, who is the barebow titlist.

High finishes for other Big Horn archers were:

Women's freestyle 400 class — 1. Eleanor Wertz 3. Betty Holland. Women's freestyle 550 class — 2. Iris Rowley. Men's freestyle 525 class — 2. Casey Malmberg 3. Ken Stanko. Men's 600 class — 2. Tom Stanko. Men's 675 class — 1. Dave Higby 2. Chuck Wertz 3. Henry Holland.

In the non-amateur division, Barbara Steger was first in the women's 550 class and Mike Steger was third in men's freestyle 750 class.

The Big Horn Hunters are starting the summer outdoor season after spending the winter months shooting at the National Guard Armory. Each Sunday afternoon they shoot at the archery range in Black Forest, and new members and interested persons are welcome to attend.

John Howard New Harrison Wrestling Coach

John Howard, who will receive his master's degree at Adams State College this month, has been appointed head wrestling coach at Harrison High School.

Prior to this year, Howard had been head wrestling coach at Center High School for four years. His teams won the district championships three years. Howard earlier had been a coach at Dove Creek.

He is a graduate of Western State College at Gunnison.

Phils Know They're Good Says Mauch

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "These kids are good and they know it," says Manager Gene Mauch of his Philadelphia Phillies, who've been trading first place in the National League back and forth with the San Francisco Giants.

After losing the first game of this week's series 3-0, the Phils came back powered by rookie Richie Allen, Johnny Callison and Wes Covington, and bombed the Giants 7-2 in the second.

As a surprise for today's finale of the three-game set Mauch nominated 19-year-old righthander Rick Wise as his starting pitcher.

"You haven't heard of him, but you will," declared Mauch. A few eyebrows were raised at the nomination of a youngster to face Giants' left-hander Bob Hendley in another game deciding which team holds first place.

San Francisco Manager Alvin Dark isn't unaware of the pennant threat posed by the youthful Phils.

"When they got Jim Bunning last winter, I knew they'd be tough," said Dark. "And that was before I knew anything about Richie Allen."

Bunning, the former Detroit hurler, threw a one-hitter Monday, beating Houston 4-0 and putting his record at 5-1. The Giants didn't see him this series, but they did see third baseman Allen.

He tied the count 1-1 in the fifth Wednesday with his eighth homer of the season and singled in a run in the sixth.

Covington blasted a two-run homer in the fifth, putting Philadelphia ahead to stay. Yet the hitting star had to be Callison.

Johnny hit four successive singles, then blasted a home run for his first five-for-five day in the major leagues.

The first three singles came off Juan Marichal, who had his victory string snapped at 12, six of them this year. Callison hit a change-up and then two curves off Marichal. He hit a Billy O'Dell slider for another single and homered on a Billy Pierce fast ball. He knocked in three runs and scored two.

Greeley Tops Final Prep Poll

Greeley became the first champion of the baseball poll conducted by the Denver Post throughout the spring when the Wildcats drew 110 points in the final balloting this week.

The top four places went to teams that will be competing in the finals of the AAA state tournament at Greeley Friday and Saturday. North Denver was ranked second, Arvada third, and Grand Junction fourth.

Wasson, which top the poll for two weeks during the season, finished in fifth place with 52 points. Pueblo Centennial was sixth and Palmer ninth, giving the South Central League three representatives in the top 10. The Northern League had two (Greeley and Fort Morgan), the Denver League two (North and Washington), the Jefferson County League one (Arvada) and the Adams-Arapahoe League one (Littleton).

Bracci, Olmsted Lead Air Force Into Playoff

By LOY HOLMAN
Gazette Telegraph Sports Editor

It's been a standing joke at the Air Force Academy for the past few years that the Falcons had better get the good out of a pitcher in his first season — before he has too much coaching!

Seniors have notoriously gone into slumps for some unknown reason and after posting fine records and looking like world beaters as juniors, suddenly they have trouble getting anyone out.

This, of course, hits hard at any college team as the pitching staff is seldom deep and when the veterans can't come through it spells misery for the fielders.

Coach Connie Sparks, in his first season with the AFA varsity, seems to have smoothed out this wrinkle. And because of the performance of a couple of last year's left-overs his Falcons are given at least an even chance of getting past the first round playoff this weekend in the NCAA eliminations toward the College World Series in Omaha.

The Air Force hosts Rocky Mountain Conference champion Colorado State College this Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Academy diamond, and then the two teams face-off again on Monday in Greeley in the second game of the best-of-three series. Should the third game be necessary, they will flip a coin for Tuesday's game site.

Sparks has elected to go with his two top hurlers in the series with CSC, with junior Pete Bracci handling the mound on Saturday and senior Fred Olmsted slated for Monday's contest.

These two have carried the Falcons nearly all season and between them they own 15 of the AFA's 20 victories to date. Also on hand will be a pair of sophomores in Al McClure and Dick Guido who will be counted on to keep a winning tradition going at the Academy in future years.

Last year Olmsted, a lefty with good breaking hooks but a control problem that seems to plague so many port-siders, struggled through a mediocre 3-2 season in which he walked well over one per inning. Coach Wendy Lawrence, who has since departed the AFA for flying duty in Europe, joked that Olmsted's best move was to walk a batter and then pick him off at first with his tricky hold-on motion.

Well, after a promising sophomore year in which he ended up with a 3-3 record and 59 strikeouts in 45 innings and then a somewhat disappointing junior season, there was only slim hopes of Olmsted making a comeback.

But under the watchful eye of trainer and pitching coach Jim Conboy, Olmsted has cut his walks in half to .41 per inning, he trimmed his earned-run-average from 6.11 last year to 3.86 this spring, and he has yet to be beaten while enjoying seven victories.

Even more fearful were the expectations for Bracci, a junior right-hander from Haverhill, Mass., who as a sophomore used a crackling fast ball and a sharp curve to post a 4-5 record in 11 starts. He was expected to be the ace of the staff this spring, but after a fast start in his first turn with the varsity there were those who wondered if the "second year jinx" would catch up with him.

It wasn't to happen, though.

Instead, Bracci has finished all nine games he's started, owns a fancy 8-1 record, and the lowest ERA on the team at 3.22 with an average of one strikeout per inning. One of those victories was the 8-2 verdict over Colorado State, the first time these playoff opponents met at the Academy and he would have had a shutout except for an eighth inning homer by CSC catcher Duane Banks.

Bracci's only defeat this spring was in the opener at New Mexico when the Falcons were still unpacking their big bats. Since that time his Falcon teammates have backed him and the other AFA pitchers with an astronomical .344 team batting average that's a near cinch for the national hitting title.

With the pitchers giving up a mean of slightly over a hit per inning, a big part of their success this season has to go their own hitters who have brought forth 6.5 runs a game. With that kind of support, they could give up more than a normal amount of safeties and still survive.

But also contributing to the longevity of the pitchers has been the confidence and responsibility Sparks has placed with them. Faced with only these two veterans back from a year ago and a couple of maturing sophomores, he made it plain at the start that they would have to complete as many games as possible.

That's just what the AFA pitchers have done. Only in four of the 23 games played has relief been needed with Bracci finishing nine times and Olmsted six. To boot, McClure, who has ripened fast over the season, has also started and completed four games.

Certainly not to be ignored, however, has been the fantastic hitting of the Falcons, paced by their great junior third baseman Jim Steed, the late surge of junior first baseman Bruce Huneke and senior shortstop Darryl Bloodworth.

Steed has been daring opposing pitchers all season and currently owns a lofty .429 average as the best among the regulars. He also has 10 home runs, four triples and eight doubles to lead the team in all these departments and a fancy slugging average of .866 with 91 total bases on 105 trips to the plate.

Huneke is next in both average (.380) and doubles (7) and Bloodworth, who had to shake off a football season knee operation to come back to play, has an average of .334 and a total of 13 extra base hits among his 34 safeties.

They all will be out to make up for one of the three defeats the team has suffered this season, coming against playoff partner CSC on a mid-season visit to Greeley. The other losses were in the opener at New Mexico, which was followed by a 10-game winning streak, and the only home defeat of the schedule to Brigham Young University which broke that long skein. The Falcons are currently working on an eight-game winning streak since that 11-2 loss to the Greeley nine.

Indianapolis Race May Bar Foreign Drivers Next Year

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—World road-racing champion Jimmy Clark of Scotland and all other foreign drivers may be barred from the Indianapolis 500-mile race next year because of a quarrel between racing organizations.

Clark was second in last year's race and won the pole position for the 1964 Memorial Day classic.

The feud involves the U.S. Auto Club's suspension of driver Paul Goldsmith.

USAC officials said Wednesday they had been told by the Automobile Competition Committee of the United States (ACCUS) that it would not be able to ask for sanction from the International Automobile Federation (FIA) unless Goldsmith was reinstated.

Goldsmith, from St. Clair Shores, Mich., was booted out of the USAC when he competed last year in a Riverside, Calif. race not sanctioned by the national group. Goldsmith later changed his address to Mexico City, but failed in a federal court effort to force USAC to allow him to enter the Indianapolis race.

Thomas Binford, president of the U.S. Auto Club, said Wednesday that he does not intend to grant the ACCUS request.

ACCUS is composed of representatives of the U.S. Auto Club, Sports Car Club of America (SCCA), and National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR). Under a 1963 ACCUS agreement, each organization was empowered to select drivers who could compete in FIA-approved races sponsored by the other groups.

Binford said USAC officials believed the agreement was in effect when they forbade Goldsmith to compete at Riverside last November. ACCUS maintains it did not become effective until this year.

The squabble could prevent ACCUS and FIA sanction of the Indianapolis race and all other U.S. Auto Club events next year. Without FIA approval, such champions as Clark and Jack Brabham of Australia would be unable to enter the annual Indianapolis race.

CSC Romps Over A-State In RMC Play

GREELEY, Colo. (AP)—Five errors by Adams State aided Colorado State College in romping to an 18-3 Rocky Mountain Conference baseball victory Wednesday.

The teams play again today.

A wild throw to second by catcher Don Alley allowed two CSC runs to score in the second inning when the champion Bears broke loose for five runs that settled the game.

Alley's triple in the ninth was the longest hit off Tom O'Brien, CSC pitcher, who allowed only one hit until the eighth when the Indians put together three for their first run.

'Sudden Death' Plans Big For Coming Grid Season

Steve "Sudden Death" Sabol has never been modest to a fault but it was not until he started taking out advertisements in the Colorado College newspaper that his real rise began.

Sabol went from the taxi squad to captain-elect of the football team. And he credits it all to three years of judicious advertising.

"Congratulations to S u d d e n Death Sabol on a fantastic season," read one of his typically-subdued ads in the [illegible] paper.

Although Sabol is really from Pennsylvania, he adopted a mythical town called Possum Trot, Miss. Quarter-page ads in the home football programs feature a photograph of Sabol taken at the age of 10 and the announcement: "The Possum Trot Chamber of Commerce extends its wishes for a successful season to its favorite son—Sudden Death Sabol."

Sabol, 21, is the son of Edwin Sabol who makes the official color films of National Football League championship games for television and movies.

Sabol says his promotional antics stem from a desire to build up a greater interest in football among the students.

Football coach Jerry Carle has nothing but praise for "Sudden Death." "When he first came out for football he said he was from Coal Township, Pa. because he figured I'd pay more attention to a football player from Pennsylvania. I'm glad he did because he's turned out to be one of the best players we've had."

Sabol, a 200-pound fullback who actually hails from Villanova, Pa., last season was all-conference in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and leading ground gainer for the independent liberal arts college.

Last year Sabol introduced music over the public address system during practice and hung signs throughout the locker room reminding the team of the task ahead. This year he has been writing a column for the student newspaper. The Tiger, called "Here's A Lot From Possum Trot."

He has plans for the coming year too. Right now he is having 300 Possum Trot T-shirts made to be given free to youngsters. The shirts have a pattern of a possum below the words "I Am A Little Possum Trotter." He will also give away "Sudden Death" pencils next fall.

As if he didn't have enough to keep him busy, Sabol also has agreed to be a sports editor of The Tiger, edit the football programs and serve as student chairman of homecoming [illegible]

[illegible]

But this could be the greatest [illegible] Sabol said. "I have great hopes of getting at least a couple of [illegible]

"It would be the high point of my entire career if I could have a group of fans sitting in the stands with a banner reading: The Citizens of Possum Trot Wish The Best of Success to Their Favorite Son—Sudden Death Sabol."

And how does "Sudden Death" appraise his meteoric rise from the taxi squad to captaincy of the Tigers?

"It pays to advertise," he says modestly.

'Little Big Daddy' Wins Olympic Trials Crown

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The coach of the American Olmpic boxing team doesn't want to go out on a limb until he sees what other nations have to offer but he believes "we have a good, solid team."

The 10-man team determined by the three-day Olympic Trials which ended Wednesday night includes Buster Mathis, the 6-foot-3, 295-pound 19-year-old giant from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Buster, known also as Little Big Daddy, delighted most of a crowd of 1,500 in the Singer Bowl at the World's Fair by outspeeding and outpointing Joe Frazier, the 195-pound knockout artist from Philadelphia, in the heavyweight windup of a [illegible] card of 10 finals.

"He's real fast for a big man," said master sergeant Freddie Lenn of the Camp Pendleton Marines, who will coach the Tokyo-bound boxers. "He makes good moves and jabs well. He's a good boy."

Competent observers, including pro managers Cus D'Amato and Gil Clancy, feel that Uncle Sam has a first-rate team.

The writer, who has seen the last three Olympics, feels this is the best boxing squad we've had since the 1952 team which swept five gold medals at Helsinki. That team included Floyd Patterson, winner in the middleweight division. The 1960 squad with Cassius Clay the winner of the light heavyweight title, took three gold medals.

"The Italians and Russians figure to be real strong," said Lenn. "We'll know more about our chances later on."

The other nine winners were flyweight Bob Carmody, 25, of Fort Campbell, Ky., and Brooklyn; bantamweight Lou Johnson, 25, of Bolling AFB and Portland, Ore.; featherweight Charles Brown, 25, of the Camp Pendleton Marines and Cincinnati; lightweight Ron Harris, 17, of Detroit; light welterweight Charles Ellis, 20, of the Army's Eighth Division and Louisville; welterweight Maurice Frilot, 23, of Camp Pendleton and Denver; light middleweight Toby Gibson, 21, of Spokane, Wash.; middleweight Jim Rosette, 26, a Navy airman from San Diego, and light heavyweight Harley Cooper, 29, of the Offutt AFB, Omaha.

Gibson, a sociology major at Eastern Washington State who wants to be a teacher, scored his 10th straight knockout by flattening Ray Owens, the Inter-Service champion from Fort Campbell, Ky., with a machine-like right and left to the jaw in 43 seconds of the third round. It was the only kayo of the finals.

Frazier, who had racked up six straight knockouts including two in the trials, concentrated on Buster's huge mid-section. Frazier strayed low a couple of times and it cost him a two-point penalty in the second round. Mathis, winner by a unanimous decision, had enough points to get home first without the penalty.

"I conditioned myself by [illegible] 200-pound guys [illegible] me," said Buster. "The body punches didn't hurt. I'm going to trim down to [illegible] for the Olympics and now it's a reality."

"Prayers helped me," said Mathis, a Baptist. "I'll be praying some more."

Lenn said the 10 winners and the alternates will assemble at the Hamilton Air Force Base in California for training Sept. 1. He said the 10 winners will compete in Tokyo unless they get hurt or get way out of form.

"The champions have the edge," he said.

Shepards Lead City Recreation Golf League

The Shepards Citations golf team topped the defending champions City Lawyers 9-3 to take the lead in the City Recreation Men's Golf League at the Patty Jewett golf course.

In other City Recreation competition, the Farmers and the Telephone Company linksters edged their opponents by identical scores of 6½ - 5½ respectively. The Farmers defeated the Schools Teachers squad and the Telephone golf team topped the Electricians.

Difficulties on the greens accounted for the absence of near par scores at the Patty Jewett course. Bill Summers of the Electricians' team was top medalist with a score of 81. Ken Schneider had an 83 and George Rice, Byron Akers and Jack Foutch had 85's.

The City Recreation League standings are as follows:

Mays Continues in Slump As Phils Take Loop Lead

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"It can't go on," said Willie Mays.

He's right. One of these days he's got to get a hit.

Mays made the prediction less than two weeks ago when he was smacking the ball at a .478 clip, but it's just as apt now with Willie struggling to break out of a deep slump that has shriveled his average to .393.

Mays went hitless for the fifth straight game and Juan Marichal had his 12-game victory string snapped Wednesday as the San Francisco Giants lost to Philadelphia 7-2 and tumbled into second place behind the National League leading Phillies.

Mays' 0-3 performance dropped him under the .400 mark for the first time since the opening days of the season and left him with a string of 10 hitless trips to the plate. In the last nine games, Mays is only 3-for-27, a .111 clip that has whacked 85 points off his batting average.

John Callison of the Phillies added to his average with a 5-for-5 performance, stroking a homer and four singles, driving in three runs and scoring twice as the Phillies handed Marichal his first defeat since Aug. 30, 1963 and left the Giant ace with a 6-1 record.

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cardinals moved to within one game of first place by edging the Chicago Cubs 1-0 behind Bob Gibson's four-hit, 12-strikeout pitching.

Elsewhere, Joe Torre hit a grand slam homer and drove in five runs in Milwaukee's 7-3 victory over Cincinnati, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the New York Mets 4-1 and Pittsburgh nipped Houston 4-3.

The Phillies moved ahead 3-1 in the fifth, chasing Marichal when rookie Richie Allen hit a solo homer and Wes Covington connected with one on. Art Mahaffey started for Philadelphia but Jack Baldschun came on in the bottom of the fifth when the Giants had one run in and the bases loaded. A spectacular fielding play by Bobby Wine on Jim Hart's shot up the middle started a threat-ending double-play.

Gibson, now 4-0, retired the last 17 men in order and won his duel with the Cubs' Larry Jackson when consecutive singles by Dick Groat, Ken Boyer and Bill White brought in the Cardinal run in the eighth inning. Jackson, 3-3 and a winner against his former teammates only once in seven decisions, had allowed only five hits before the decisive trio.

Eddie Mathews put the Braves ahead to stay, doubling Frank Bolling home for a 3-2 lead in the seventh. Torre, who singled home a run in the first, put the finishing touches on by hitting his grand slam in the ninth. Frank Robinson hit his seventh homer for the Reds, temporarily tying the game 2-2 in the fourth inning.

Nick Willhite and Ron Perranoski combined on a six-hitter for the Dodgers. Willhite allowing the Mets only run in the third on two errors sandwiched around Dick Smith's single. That tied the score 1-1. The Dodgers regained the lead in the fourth when Frank Howard walked, took second on a wild pickoff attempt and scored on Doug Camilli's single. A two-run eighth put it out of reach.

Bob Veale and Al McBean collaborated on a five-hitter for the Pirates. The Colts scored their three runs with only one hit, Walt Bond hitting a two-run homer in the seventh after an error and the Colts scoring again in the eighth on two walks and an error. Jerry Lynch, playing for the injured Roberto Clemente, homered for Pittsburgh.

Clay Delays Title Bout Until Early Next Year

ACCRA, Ghana (UPI)—Hopes for a lucrative outdoor heavyweight title fight this summer were dimmed Wednesday when Cassius Clay said that he would not defend his crown until early next year.

Clay also hinted he may select an opponent other than former heavyweight king Sonny Liston of Denver, from whom he won the title on a six-round technical knockout last Feb. 25, although the contract for the bout contained a clause stating that the corporation of which Liston is a member would promote Clay's first defense.

Clay said the reason he will not defend his title until next year is a new rule requiring him to fight only once a year. He said he might choose his opponent from a round of elimination fights.

"But one thing is certain," said Clay. "Whoever meets me, I will eat him up as I did Liston."

Clay said he plans to spend three months of each year in Ghana, which he calls his second home, and suggested that Americans of African descent should return to their homeland.

"It is time for all people of African descent to return home," said Clay, adding that 22 million Negroes in the United States did not command respect because they have no culture of their own, no flag and no common religion.

Clay's manager, William Faversham, said in Louisville, Ky., however, that there still was a good possibility of a title bout with ex-champion Sonny Liston in September.

Faversham said the new tax law, wherein the federal tax bite from an athlete's income is proportionately lower during the five years of his highest earnings, has not been explained to Clay.

Clay's pilot, a Louisville distillery executive, added that by the time Clay returns Liston may have cleared himself of police charges against him in Denver.

That would pave the way for his reinstatement by the World Boxing Association, a prerequisite for a title rematch.

Canon City Athlete Gets CU Scholarship

Anthony Stringari, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stringari of 1520 Willow St., Canon City, has been accepted for admittance at the University of Colorado, and will attend the university on an athletic scholarship this fall.

Stringari will participate in the school football program under head coach Eddie Crowder and freshman coach Dan Stavely. He has been a mainstay on the Canon City Tiger football teams for three seasons, and on the wrestling squad where he compiled an imposing record in Southern Colorado League competition.

He played offensive fullback and defensive linebacker, but was hampered with leg injuries

A PAT ON THE BACK FOR MANTLE, BUT HE'S OUT—Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees bulls into Zoilo Versalles at second base in an attempt to break up a double play, but the Minnesota Twins shortstop has already gotten the throw off to first base for the twin killing. Twins second baseman Bernie Allen, rear, fielded a grounder by Tom Tresh and threw to Versalles. The play came in the sixth inning Wednesday at New York's Yankee Stadium where the Twins won, 7-4. 'Boog' Goes Boom Again As Orioles Approach Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Boog go Boom!

That might sound like baby talk, but it's carried the Baltimore Orioles into a virtual tie for first place in the American League.

Boog is John Powell, the Orioles' 22-year-old left fielder whose bat has been booming recently. He clouted a two-run homer Wednesday night in Baltimore's 8-3 triumph over Kansas City.

The victory put the Orioles even in games but 27 percentage points behind the Chicago White Sox, who were idle Wednesday.

In his last eight games, Powell has slugged five homers, knocked in 12 runs and has batted at a .435 clip. His surge has raised his average 69 points to .233. His home run total is seven his RBI mark 23.

Baltimore has won six of the eight games and 10 of the last 13.

Powell's two-run homer in the latest victory climaxed a five-run rally in the fifth and helped Milt Pappas to his third straight victory after two defeats.

John Kennedy and Harmon Killebrew also were batting stars in the AL Wednesday. Kennedy smashed two home runs and a single as Washington trounced Detroit 10-3. Killebrew hit his 10th and 11th homers in Minnesota's 7-4 victory over New York. Boston nipped Los Angeles 4-3 in the other game.

Pappas limited the Athletics to five hits while his mates pounded Diego Segui and Jack Aker. Brooks Robinson drove in three runs, two with a double in the fifth when the Orioles chased Segui. The double and Powell's homer were off Aker.

Luis Aparicio stole three bases for the Orioles, giving him 17 in 20 attempts.

Kennedy's hitting helped halt Detroit's four-game winning streak. He hit a homer in the first and another in the fifth. He singled across a run in the eighth when three Tiger errors helped the Senators to five runs. Dick Phillips contributed two RBI to Washington's attack.

Bill Freehan and George Thomas slammed homers in the seventh for the Tigers off Claude Osteen, who evened his record at 3-3.

Killebrew took the league lead in home runs with his pair. His first blast came with one aboard in the Twins' five-run first inning against Ralph Terry. He connected again in the eighth.

Tony Oliva also clouted a two-run homer in the first, helping Camilo Pascual to his fifth triumph against two defeats. Pascual held the Yankees to two runs until Johnny Blanchard smacked a two-run homer in the ninth.

Boston scored two runs in the seventh for its victory over Los Angeles. Ed Bressoud's single drove in Roman Mejias with the deciding run after Dalton Jones doubled home Bob Tillman with the tying run. The Angels had taken a 3-2 lead in their seventh on Billy Moran's triple and pinch hitter Bob Rodgers' single.

Cardinal's Houser Set for Retirement

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — St. Louis football Cardinals veteran offensive lineman John Houser has announced his retirement in a letter sent to the team. Houses broke into the National Football League with the Los Angeles Rams and played with the Dallas Cowboys before going to the Cardinals.

Shepards Lead City Recreation Golf League

The Shepards Citations golf team topped the defending champions, City Lawyers, 9-3 to take the lead in the City Recreation Men's Golf League at the Patty Jewett golf course.

In other City Recreation competition, the Farmers and the Telephone Company linksters edged their opponents by identical scores of 6½ - 5½ respectively. The Farmers defeated the Schools Teachers squad and the Telephone golf team topped the Electricians.

Difficulties on the greens accounted for the absence of near par scores at the Patty Jewett course. Bill Summers of the Electricians' team was top medalist with a score of 81. Ken Schneider had an 83 and George Rice, Byron Akers and Jack Foutch had 85's.

The City Recreation League standings are as follows:

Shepards	9
Farmers Ins.	6½
Telephone Co.	6½
Teachers	5½
Electricians	5½
City Lawyers	3

Giants Put Don Larsen On Waivers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Big Don Larsen, a hero when he pitched a perfect World Series game for the New York Yankees, has moved again, this time for only the $20,000 waiver price.

The San Francisco Giants announced Wednesday they asked waivers on the 34-year-old righthander and the Houston Colts claimed him.

Larsen hurled the first no-hit, no-run game in World Series history. He beat Brooklyn 2-0 Oct. 8, 1956, and not a Dodger reached base.

Exactly six years later in the same Yankee Stadium, Larsen beat the Yanks in relief while hurling for the Giants in the 1962 series.

He's also pitched for St. Louis, Baltimore, Kansas City and Chicago of the American League.

The release on waivers of Larsen was one of three moves by the Giants. They put pitcher Jim Duffalo on the injured reserve list to recover from a fractured rib and brought southpaw hurler Ken MacKenzie up from their Tacoma farm club.

Larsen's departure put San Francisco's roster at 24, one under the limit. The move came as a surprise but was made apparently because Bob Shaw has filled the late inning relief role so well and some younger hurlers have been impressive.

Announcement wasn't made until after Tuesday's game and after the hurler had left the clubhouse. He planned to confer with Houston General Manager Paul Richards to determine where and when he would report.

New York traded the hurler after the 1959 series as part of the deal that gave the Yanks Roger Maris. Don posted a poor 1-10 record with Kansas City the following year and spent part of the season in the minors.

On June 10, 1961, he was traded to the Chicago White Sox and at the end of the season he and Billy Pierce were traded to San Francisco.

With the Giants in 1962 he was 5-4 as a reliever and last season was 7-7. So far this season he was 0-1 with a 4.35 earned-run average.

Young America Meeting Slated This Friday

There will be an important meeting of all coaches, sponsors and other interested persons in working with the 1964 Young America baseball program this Friday, May 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Park Recreation Center, Pikes Peak and Hancock.

Details of the Young America activities will be discussed at this time. This program is open to boys currently enrolled in third grade through 11th grade. A participation fee is charged each boy, plus a uniform deposit which is refunded when the boys return their equipment.

Further information regarding game schedules, practice times, team locations, and team insurance will be covered Friday evening. For further information regarding Young America baseball, contact the Park and Recreation Department, 1400 N. Glen Ave.

'Sudden Death' Plans Big For Coming Grid Season

—Steve (Sudden Death) Sabol has never been modest to a fault, but it was not until he started taking out advertisements in the Colorado College newspaper that his real rise began.

Sabol went from the taxi squad to captain-elect of the football team. And he credits it all to three years of judicious advertising.

"Congratulations to Sudden Death Sabol on a fantastic season," read one of his typically-subdued ads in the college paper.

Although Sabol is really from Pennsylvania, he adopted a mythical town called Possum Trot, Miss. Quarter-page ads in the home football programs feature a photograph of Sabol taken at the age of 10, and the announcement: "The Possum Trot Chamber of Commerce extends its wishes for a successful season to its favorite son—Sudden Death Sabol."

Sabol, 21, is the son of Edwin Sabol, who makes the official color films of National Football League championship games for television and movies.

Sabol says his promotional activities stem from a desire to build up a greater interest in football among the students.

Football coach Jerry Carle has nothing but praise for "Sudden Death." "When he first came out for football, he said he was from 'Coal Township, Pa.' because he figured I'd pay more attention to a football player from Pennsylvania. I'm glad he did, because he's turned out to be one of the best players we've had."

Sabol, a 200-pound fullback who actually hails from Villanova, Pa., last season was all-conference in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and leading ground gainer for the independent liberal arts college.

Last year, Sabol introduced music over the public address system during practice, and hung signs throughout the locker room reminding the team of the task ahead. This year he has been writing a column for the student newspaper, The Tiger, called "Here's A Lot From Possum Trot."

He has plans for the coming year, too. Right now, he is having 300 Possum Trot T-shirts made to be given free to youngsters. The shirts have a cartoon of a possum below the words "I Am A Little Possum Trotter." He will also give away "Sudden Death" pencils next fall.

As if he didn't have enough to keep him busy, Sabol also has agreed to be a sports editor of The Tiger, edit the football programs and serve as student chairman of homecoming activities.

Sabol, who college officials describe as an above average student, is majoring in education and has been elected to Blue Key, the national men's honor society.

Sabol has been listing the town of Possum Trot, Miss., as his hometown as part of his self-generated advertising campaign, but until two weeks ago thought this town existed purely in his imagination.

Then came a letter from a radio announcer in Lewistown, Tenn., informing him the hamlet of Possum Trot, Tenn., was located about 10 miles away. "Sudden Death" promptly changed the location of his hometown to Tennessee upon hearing the news.

"Boy, this could be the greatest thing that's happened yet," Sabol said. "I have great hopes of getting at least a couple of citizens and possibly the entire population, if there aren't too many, to come out for homecoming next fall and cheer me on."

"It would be the high point of my entire career if I could have a group of fans sitting in the stands with a banner reading 'The citizens of Possum Trot wish the best of success to their favorite son— Sudden Death Sabol.'"

And how does "Sudden Death" appraise his meteoric rise from the taxi squad to captain-elect of the Tigers?

"It pays to advertise," he says modestly.

'Little Big Daddy' Wins Olympic Trials Crown

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The coach of the American Olmpic boxing team doesn't want to go out on a limb until he sees what other nations have to offer but he believes "we have a good, solid team."

The 10-man team determined by the three-day Olympic Trials which ended Wednesday night, includes Buster Mathis, the 6-foot-3, 295-pound, 19-year-old giant from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Buster, known also as Little Big Daddy, delighted most of a crowd of 1,500 in the Singer Bowl at the World's Fair by outspeeding and outpointing Joe Frazier, the 195-pound knockout artist from Philadelphia, in the heavyweight wind-up of a rousing card of 10 finals.

"He's real fast for a big man," said master sergeant Freddie Lenn of the Camp Pendleton Marines, who will coach the Tokyo-bound boxers. "He makes good moves and jabs well. He's a good boy."

Competent observers, including pro managers Cus D'Amato and Gil Clancy, feel that Uncle Sam has a first-rate team.

The writer, who has seen the last three Olympics, feels this is the best boxing squad we've had since the 1952 team which swept five gold medals at Helsinki. That team included Floyd Patterson, winner in the middleweight division. The 1960 squad, with Cassius Clay the winner of the light heavyweight title, took three gold medals.

"The Italians and Russians figure to be real strong," said Lenn. "We'll know more about our chances later on."

The other nine winners were flyweight Bob Carmody, 25, of Fort Campbell, Ky., and Brooklyn; bantamweight Lou Johnson, 25, of Bolling AFB and Portland, Ore.; featherweight Charley Brown, 25, of the Camp Pendleton Marines and Cincinnati; lightweight Ron Harris, 17, of Detroit; light welterweight Charley Ellis, 20, of the Army's Eighth Division and Louisville; welterweight Maurice Frilot, 23, of Camp Pendleton and Denver; light middleweight Toby Gibson, 21, of Spokane, Wash.; middleweight Jim Rosette, 26, a Navy airman from San Diego; and light heavyweight Harley Cooper, 29, of the Offutt AFB, Omaha.

Gibson, a sociology major at Eastern Washington State who wants to be a teacher, scored his 10th straight knockout by flattening Ray Owens, the Inter-Service champion from Fort Campbell, Ky., with a machine-like right and left to the jaw in 43 seconds of the third round. It was the only kayo of the finals.

Frazier, who had racked up six straight knockouts including two in the trials, concentrated on Buster's huge mid-section. Frazier strayed low a couple of times and it cost him a two-point penalty in the second round. Mathis, winner by a unanimous decision, had enough points to get home first without the penalty.

"I conditioned myself by letting 200-pound guys jump on me," said Buster. "The body punches didn't hurt. I'm going to trim down to 275 for the Olympics and now it's a reality."

"Prayers helped me," said Mathis, a Baptist. "I'll be praying lots more."

Lenn said the 10 winners and the alternates will assemble at the Hamilton Air Force Base in California for training Sept. 1. He said the 10 winners will compete in Tokyo unless they get hurt or get way off form.

"The champions have the edge," he said.

NEW YORK (AP)—Members of the U.S. Olympic boxing team which will compete in the Tokyo Games in October:

Flyweights—Bob Carmody, Fort Campbell, Ky., Brooklyn.

Bantamweights—Lou Johnson, Bolling AFB, Portland, Ore.

Featherweights—Charles Brown, Camp Pendleton, Calif., Marines.

Lightweights—Ron Harris, Detroit.

Light welterweights — Charley Ellis, Eighth Infantry Division, Europe, Louisville.

Welterweights—Maurice Frilot, Camp Pendleton, Calif., Marines.

Light middleweights — Toby Gibson, Spokane, Wash.

Middleweights—Jimmy Rosette, Ream Air Field, Navy, San Diego.

Light heavyweights—Harley Cooper, Offutt AFB, Omaha.

Heavyweights—Buster Mathis, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Alternates

Flyweights—Mel Miller, Fairview, Mont., the runner-up, or Mike Adame, Camp LeJuene Marines, El Paso, Tex.

Bantamweights—Arthur Jones, Hamilton AFB, Calif., Augusta, Ga.

Featherweights—Herb Dollison, Bolling AFP, Jacksonville, Fla., the runner-up.

Lightweights — Bobby Valdez, USS Prairie, San Luis, Colo., the runner-up, and Jimmy Wright of Okinawa Marines, Omaha.

Light welterweights — Jodie Harris, Bolling AFB, Portland, Ore., the runner-up.

Welterweights—Jesse Valdez, Houston, Tex., the runner-up.

Lightmiddleweights — Joe Smith, U.S. Army, Philadelphia.

Middleweights—Martin Berzewski, Hamilton AFB, Seattle, the runner-up, and Bob McMillan, Maumee, Ohio.

Light heavyweights—Bob Christopherson, Hamilton, AFB, Minneapolis, the runner-up, and Art Redden, Camp LeJuene Marines, Wilmington, Del.

Heavyweights—Joe Frazier, Philadelphia, or Dick Pettigrew, U.S. Navy, Tyler, Tex.

Charles H. Swift, of Randolph, Tex., AFB, chairman of the Olympic Boxing Committee, said Nick Spanakos, Fort Sill, Okla., Brooklyn, the runner-up in the bantamweight division, and Ray Owens, of Ft. Campbell, Clarksville, Tenn., the runner-up in the light middleweights, were not picked as alternates because it was felt Jones and Smith were more capable.

The team will report for training Sept. 1 at Hamilton AFB in California and probably leave for Tokyo about Sept. 25.

Veteran Star Eliminates Ron Fisher

PARIS (AP) — The tennis [illegible] and Ron Fisher of Houston by 43-year-old Jaroslav Drobny, the Czech ex-patriate who now calls Great Britain home, left only two Americans still in the running at the French International Tournament.

Fisher, who was nine years old when Drobny won the first of two straight French singles titles in 1951, took a 4-set drubbing from the wily veteran in second-round play. The Texan's 3-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3 defeat left Eugene Scott, St. James, N.Y., and Norman Perry, Los Angeles, the only U.S. representatives among 32 survivors.

Scott, seeded 10th, eliminated Ron McKenzie of Australia 6-4, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4, 9-7 Wednesday. Perry, unseeded, advanced earlier.

Top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia opened defense of his 1963 crown by breezing past Italy's Antonio Maggi in straight sets.

Jan Erik Lundquist of Sweden and Rafael Osuna of Mexico, seeded fourth and fifth, respectively, won easily, as did Mike Sangster and Bobby Wilson of Britain and Hungary's Istvan Gulyas.

NFL Okays Benefit Policy

NEW YORK (UPI) — A farmer, a [illegible] and a [illegible] were assured [illegible] old age [illegible] because of a liberal benefit plan approved by National Football League owners.

The trio — Charley Conerly, Bobby Layne and Alan Ameche — become eligible for league pensions at age 65 as a result of a $1,250,000 player benefit package approved by the owners at Wednesday's league meeting.

The three former NFL greats [illegible] a [illegible] some 300 former players who were in the league for at least five seasons eligible for about $407 a month when they reach retirement age. They had to play in 1959 to qualify.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle said the package deal also included a $20,000 life insurance policy as well as a year-round $20,000 accidental death policy for players, and for the first time will include all coaches, trainers and equipment managers.

"We're able to do all this," said Rozelle, "because henceforth we will get $1.8 million from the telecast of the championship game alone."

The title game will provide the bulk of the revenue, about $525,000. Other income sources stem from the approximately $140,000 taken in from the Playoff Bowl, $140,000 from trading cards, $15,000 from the Pro Bowl, and a minute amount from the College All-Star game.

League owners added another innovation when they voted to allow third place clubs in each division to share in the playoff game pool.

Mizzou Tops In Baseball Poll

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Riding the momentum of 18 straight victories, Missouri's Tigers have shot into a first place tie with Arizona State University in the latest College baseball poll.

The poll is conducted by Collegiate Baseball newspaper with balloting by coaches and sportswriters throughout the country.

This week's ratings marked the first time in the six-year history of the poll that two team had deadlocked for the top spot.

Arizona State's Sun Devils are 39-5 while Missouri is 19-2.

Jan-Erik Lundquist of Sweden and Rafael Osuna of Mexico, seeded fourth and fifth, repectively, also won easily, as did Mike Sangster and Bobby Wilson of Britain and Hungary's Istvan Gulyas.

Americans fared better in men's doubles competition, with Perry and Roger Werksman, also of Los Angeles, ousting Thairland's Felix Batista and Nestor Gramatica 7-9, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 while Fisher and Cliff Richey of Dallas advanced by default.

The United States sent seven girls who drew opening day byes and first-round victor Tory Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., into today's second round play in women's singles. The American girls are led by fourth-seeded Nancy Richey of Dallas, who meets Ursula Smith of Norway.

Margaret Smith of Australia is the favorite to unseat countrywoman Lesley Truner, the 1963 titlist.

NFL Okays Benefit Policy

NEW YORK (UPI)—A farmer, an investment broker and a restaurateur were assured of an income in their old age today because of a liberal benefit policy approved by National Football League owners.

The trio — Charley Conerly, Bobby Layne and Alan Ameche —became eligible for league pensions at age 65 as a result of a $1,228,000 player benefit package approved by the owners at Wednesday's league meeting.

The one-time NFL greats come under a retroactive clause that made 110 former players, who were in the league for at least five seasons, eligible to collect about $437 a month when they reach retirement age. They had to play in 1959 to qualify.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle said the package deal also included a $20,000 life insurance policy as well as a year-round $20,000 accidental death policy for players, and for the first time will include all coaches, trainers and equipment managers.

MY ANSWER

QUESTION: Can't we worship God better in an outdoor setting than we can in a stuffy church? Didn't Jesus, the Son of God, pray in the wilderness, and on the Mount of Olives? Why is it so necessary to go to church? —M. N.

ANSWER: Former President Theodore Roosevelt said "You may worship God anywhere, at any time, but the chances are you will not do so unless you have first learned to worship Him somewhere in some particular place, at some particular time."

Certainly you can worship God in the great out of doors, but do you? Yes, Christ prayed in the garden and in the desert, but He did not neglect the church. The Bible says, "He went to the synagogue as was His custom." He made it a habit to go to church.

The Bible also says "Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it . . ." He wouldn't have given His life for it, if it had not had great importance. We can worship God any place but I find as others have found, that we can worship Him better in the church.

Chipita Park News

By CAROLYN McADAMS — MU 7-9065

Contributions to the Pine Tree Spray Fund project in Chipita Park must be in by June 1. An estimated $1,500 is needed to spray some 750 infected trees in the Park area which will call for a $10 contribution from each interested property owner. This will augment the budget of the State Forestry Service, which can allow $2 per tree for the cost. All the trees in Chipita Park are vulnerable, although some properties have no infected trees at this time. Preventing the spread of the beetles with those trees now harboring them will protect all the area. Make checks payable to the Chipita Park Homeowners Association, Pine Tree Fund, Box 419, Chipita Park, Colo. 80811. The Association has agreed to act as the agent for the receipt of donations, and will make disbursements to the State Forestry Service at the rate of $2 per tree sprayed, provided sufficient funds are received to carry out a complete program of spraying. If sufficient funds are not received, donations will be refunded to all identified contributors, and then each property owner will have to make his own arrangements for spraying and defraying the costs thereof.

Charles Stull, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 26, accompanied 22 members of the troop to the Boy Scout Camp-O-Ree, May 15-16-17, at Ft. Carson. Arriving at 6:30 p.m., the first evening was spent in setting up camp and getting ready for the big workout all day Saturday. The morning session was First Aid demonstrations followed by a contest tying 8 different kinds of knots, which the group from Troop 26 did in 2 minutes, breaking all records. Semaphore signals, compass problems, a treasure hunt mystery event, an obstacle race, and following a nature trail were all on the program of events for Saturday afternoon. There were 53 patrols in all at the Camp, participating in the Scout programs. The first grades given were for participation, second scores were for standard work in events and proficiency grades given for better than standard and far above average. The Flying Eagle Patrol of Troop 26, scored 1317 number of points, which was the highest score made at the Camp-O-Ree with a proficiency grade.

Members of the Patrol are Randy Weatherington, leader, Layne Van Arsdale, Terry Thomson, Bob Brooks and Roy Musser. Roy was unable to go to Camp, so did not perform with the patrol. The other Patrols in Troop 26 that attended were Buffalo with David Mayfield, Leader, Ronnie Slaven, assistant, Robbie Blosser, Chuck Minoan, David Kaufman. The Crying Ravens with Paul Tanner, leader; Lance Rossi assistant, Eric Johnson, Roger Holman, John Spencer, John Woods, David Hey and Leonard Yoe who did not go. The "Raccoon" Patrol comprises the Tenderfoot Scouts, with Lee Van Arsdale assistant leader, Jeff Isle, Steve Henricks, Bill Anderson, Bill Rasner. C. H. Crumbaker, Field Commissioner, was head score keeper and Woody Young camp director. Frank Van Arsdale, assistant Scoutmaster, attended Saturday. A song fest around the camp fire Saturday evening ended with taps at 9:30 and the entire camp was fast asleep with no difficulty. Robbie Blosser brought a pedometer to measure the distance that would be traveled during the events, and found that from beginning to end 14 and 3-10 miles had been registered. An 8:30 a.m. church service Sunday was followed by a Flap Jack frying contest. Each Scout took a turn, fried a cake, flipped it in the air over a 7 foot line and landed it back in the pan. Another Scout was required to eat the flap jack, whether it landed on the ground or in the pan. They all returned home late Sunday afternoon mighty tired, proud and happy.

The awards banquet for the Ute Classic Scratch Bowling League was held May 15 at San Down Lounge with 34 present. Kenneth Lofland was MC and gave trophies to the following: Rex Speckman for the most improved bowler for men, and Pat Penman for the women. Ruth Ryan was awarded the high series for 648 score, and Alice Adamsneck for high game of 235. Mrs. Barbara Lofland was re-elected secretary for next year's league.

The Ute Lanes gave a door prize to the bowlers in the Senior Citizens League that could bowl a score of 100 over their age. Arthur Orcutt hit 183, exactly the number needed and got the prize which was a package of flower seeds. Runners up were Wm. McLeod, 177 and Cy Bovard 167. Ladies making a 500 scratch series last week were Wini Kraas and May B[illegible]. Scratch series for the men were made by Russ Walker 548 and Robert M[illegible] 541. Pop[illegible] Oliver and Wm. McLeod both picked up their split 3 and 10 pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvill Shores will run their donut shop for the second year at their home at Fountain and the Old Highway Roads, at the bridge coming into Green Mountain Falls. Mrs. Shores will also open her Green Thumb Garden Shop in the stone house, for the sixth year at the same location. A reunion for Mothers Day with the Shores were her sons Rev. Sam Spearman, of Coffeeville, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sperman and family, with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Howe and family from Wichita, Kan. Mrs. Howe is a daughter of the Shores. The Rev. Ed Huston, from Great Bend, occupied his vacation cottage "Huston's Habitat" for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walker returned home May 1, from an 8,000 mile, three months vacation trip, traveling through 18 states in their camper. They report the experience was wonderful, especially when they reached the farthest point, traveling the longest street in the world, from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean, ending in Key West, Florida where they stayed a week. In Orlando, Fla., they visited Mrs. Walker's sister, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tyler, another sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horner in Jacksonville; a sister Miss Lucille Thorniey and a brother T. E. Thornley in Hampton, Virginia and a brother of Dave's, Harold Walker, in Cincinatti. In Washington, D.C. they visited the International OES Temple and Dave attended the Washington Memorial Temple Masonic Lodge meeting. Reaching Cincinatti, they visited the Golden Jubilee meeting and Official Inspection meeting of the Madisonville Chapter No. 373 OES on April 25. We welcome our travelers back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell spent Mothers Day in Oakley, Kan., visiting her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Medlin. They were away four days. Mrs. Mitchell was a patient in Penrose several days for observation and treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Roberts of Wichita, Kan., arrived last week to occupy their cottage on Mountain Road. Among other arrivals were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cortelyou of Tuscon, Ariz., who opened their "Where Away" residence on Mt. Road. They will be here until October.

Oldest Alumnus Of Harvard 102 Years Old

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward Everett Cauthorne, Harvard's oldest alumnus, celebrated his 102nd birthday today.

Chipper, spry and with a mind as keen as his tongue is sharp, he toured the World's Fair recently to gather material for a lecture today at the home for the aged where he lives. The visit to the fair was a part of his birthday observance.

His reaction: "My Lord, what will there be a the next World's Fair?"

Cauthorne is probably one of the few who have seen the 1964-65 fair who also can remember the New Orleans Exposition of 1884.

In a report to the 25th reunion of his Harvard class of 1892 he wrote that his early training was "punching cattle in western Texas and the then Indian nation, handling wild, fighting long-horned cattle, riding dangerous horses, and in contact with 'bad men' from all parts of the earth, for Texas, in the '70s, was the rendezvous for them, all of which made the chances of hanging on to life about fifty-fifty."

Cauthorne then sold and published Masonic books, did research on trips to Europe, wrote and lectured. He said he had a hand in the revision of "Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry."

At the fair, he paused to look at a full-sized model of the X15 rocket plane. He asked how fast it could fly and was told 4,104 miles an hour.

"Well, that beats walking," said Cauthorne.

Mother Says She Agreed to Killing Children

CROSSVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A sheriff has quoted Faye Reed Matthews as saying she agreed to go along with the slaying of her two children until they were taken from her arms and about to be thrown into a septic tank.

Murder charges in the slaying of Rose Marie Reed, 5, and John Anthony Reed, 4, have been filed against the 21-year-old mother and the couple with whom she has lived for more than a year, Sammie Earle Ammons, 29, and his wife, Barbara, 27.

Mrs. Matthews has accused Ammons of killing the children "to get them out of the way because the Ammons kept saying the children were sick and crazy and they were better off dead than alive."

Mr. and Mrs. Ammons told a reporter in a Monday interview copyright in the Nashville Tennessean that the children died separately of natural causes and the bodies were disposed of in two trips because the mother feared an investigation.

Ammons was one of the FBI 10 most-wanted men until he and his wife were captured after trying to cash a check at a Rome, Ala., supermarket Friday night, officers said. Mrs. Matthews was arrested later at the Ammons home in Gadsden, Ala.

The three face a hearing [illegible] Thursday. All are being held without bond.

The children's partly decomposed bodies were found last September in the septic tank at an abandoned resort hotel 22 miles east of this town on the edge of the Cumberland Mountains.

Ammons, a 290-pound, itinerant bus-truck driver, steadfastly maintained his innocence in the interview.

Ammons said the boy became ill while the group was living in Marietta, Ga., and Mrs. Matthews "kidnapped him out of the hospital before he was ready to come home."

He said the child died last April or May while they were driving from Gadsden to Chamblee, Ga.

The Ammons said the girl died later in Mrs. Matthews' bedroom in their Gadsden home "in maybe late July" after "she got sick."

Ammons said it was the mother's idea of disposing of the bodies in the septic tank.

The Ammons have six children. Mrs. Matthews, who according to Mrs. Ammons married Matthews, a 19-year-old plasterer, in February, is expecting a child in October.

Rocky Steps Up His Attacks on Sen. Goldwater

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he doesn't believe a majority of his party's voters will regard Sen. Barry Goldwater's political philosophy as "responsible Republicanism."

The New York governor, with the campaign field all to himself, stepped up his attacks on his lone opponent in California's presidential primary — a test he said could make or break their battle for the nomination.

"This is it, in my opinion," he said of the June 2 election in a radio program Tuesday.

Earlier he said that if Goldwater wins the race for California's 86 delegate votes it might put him over the 655 needed for the nomination at the Republican National Convention in July.

But he added, "if Goldwater doesn't cinch it on the first ballot, then he won't get it at all."

The Arizona senator expects to go into the San Francisco convention with more than 500 delegates. Rockefeller has 28, but is counting on all of New York's 92.

Goldwater headed back to Wahsington Monday and doesn't plan to return until next Monday. Rockefeller has scheduled four days of campaigning this week and five more next week.

Opening his final swing in Southern California, Rockefeller repeatedly singled out instances where he said Goldwater differed with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and other "responsible" party leaders.

He said his upset victory in Oregon, where he ran ahead of Henry Cabot Lodge and Goldwater in a six-way contest, indicated the direction the voters want the GOP to take.

"At stake is whether the Republican party shall remain a party of progress, moderation and responsibility, or whether it shall leave the mainstream of American political thought and action and represent the narrow, doctrinaire views of a small minority," he said in a statewide television appearance from Los Angeles Tuesday night.

In a speech prepared for California Baptist College in Riverside today, Rockefeller said that Goldwater is out of step with his party and the times.

Rockefeller also cited Goldwater's statements that he favors quitting the United Nations if Red China gets in.

"Would these steps help to preserve peace and extend human freedom in the world?" he asked.

"I certainly do not think so, and I do not believe the overwhelming majority of the people of California or the nation will think so."

After a swing through Riverside, San Bernardino and Anaheim today, the governor moves on to Fresno, Stockton, Oakland and San Francisco. He plans to fly home for the weekend.

Mahon Says He Is Middle Of Road Man

To Eliminate Government Middlemen

[illegible] Buchwald [illegible] much [illegible] much [illegible] we are in fa- [illegible] even if [illegible] Capital Punishment [illegible] Buchwald [illegible] kidding. And [illegible] contends that he has [illegible] that it has to [illegible] a new tax scheme [illegible] government [illegible] acceptable to [illegible] in paying [illegible] in your [illegible] a fund for [illegible] new tax [illegible] your money [illegible] the percentage [illegible] Washington [illegible]

The alleged new departure in taxation is simply a suggestion made by Buchwald with [illegible] tongue in cheek that taxpayers should have the right to designate what their tax money is to be used for. And actually that has long been our principal objection to taxation — that it denies the individual the right to decide where his money should go. It simply takes his money and leaves him impoverished. Then the government decides where the money ought to be spent.

[illegible] view this process is one that sets the government up as a kind of middle-man which performs no useful service. And it is the process that we reject.

Well, Buchwald objects [illegible]. And he wants each taxpayer to append to the check which accompanies Form 1040 a statement as to where the dollars are to go. So much for a new highway in your town, so much [illegible] much the same [illegible] business men and [illegible] can charge enough postage to pay for all the post office buildings they can afford. Chances are that this procedure would immediately reduce both postal rates and taxes.

As for [illegible] research [illegible] These interested [illegible] send their support money [illegible] to any one of several [illegible] scientific research organizations which are supported privately.

And of course, private selection of the nation to which you would like your share of foreign aid money to go, would only be fair. Some may prefer to help bolster the economy of Yugoslavia and others may prefer West Germany.

In fact, at one point some months ago we suggested that a taxpayer might be assigned the particular person to whom he is required to make welfare payments and make them direct. No point in involving the government here. If Mr. Jones is supposed to receive $100 a month in welfare payments of some kind, Mr. Smith would be assigned [illegible] pay [illegible] Mr. Jones' house and hand over the money. It would save an infinite amount of bookkeeping and reveal to Mr. Jones just who his real benefactor was.

If we have to concede a bit of originality to Buchwald we'll do it here. He has suggested that a person might inadvertently send in his tax money for some project which the government would disapprove. In that case the money would be returned to the taxpayer.

And if taxation has to be continued, this idea does offer the possibilities of a major break - through. Buchwald suggests, for instance, that he might decide to ear - mark his payment in favor of supporting Cuban military expenditures, a program which would have the distinct disapproval of the State Department (he presumes). In this case, the government would be required to return the check.

One can glimpse many pleasant vistas in this kind of procedure. It would have the merit of stimulating the imaginations of senators and representatives who, for the most part, in re-

[illegible] having plans to [illegible] Robin Hoodery [illegible] at [illegible] and [illegible] pur- [illegible]

The much publicized war against poverty, it has been [illegible] will cost not more than [illegible] per cent of the GNP and this line is as old as the [illegible] but it suits the purpose of any party hack seeking to perpetuate himself in office as long as the earners and investors decline to think.

First let me remind you that the GNP indicates the value of all the goods and services in the general market place. I use the word "general" because it also includes such things as give aways to foreign governments and all types of welfare costs at home and abroad. While it ostensibly includes profits, the percentage of net profit can diminish to absolute zero while the GNP climbs and in the case of governmental bookkeeping this becomes an obvious fact since the national debt continues to climb and the end is not yet.

Right here we have a key to some of the oddities which occur in the stock market. Sales may be up, profits may have increased but tucked away in small print we discover that the percentage of profit is down appreciably and this is of vital importance.

From a slightly different point of view, we can reduce this to simple terms. If the percentage of profit is less than can be earned by savings in building and loan associations only speculators are active in the stock market, except for those who refuse to see the signs and portents. This situation exists today and it has existed for several years with large investors bolstering up the market every time it shows signs of [illegible] and occasionally because of fear.

Now each of the activities of Robin Hood government may amount to only a small percentage of the GNP but added together, the total amounts to a percentage higher than the prevailing percentage of profit earned by workers after taxes. All of this is plainly reflected in the growing cost of government and when any politician tries to tell you the cost of government is not growing, he is ignoring the truth, to put the case in the mildest possible terms. Those who presently mismanage the affairs of the government of this country dare not tell the truth and probably do not dare to recognize the truth even as they stare only at their own eyes while shaving.

The basis of the Keynesian mishmash of economic hogwash is more hogwash, lies, half-truths, propaganda and a dependency upon the faith of the unthinking, and those who should know better dare not think for fear that only a slight increase in thinking will upset the status quo apple cart, burst the balloon and fully explode the immature nonsense to public view. If you care to reduce the entire situation to basic simple terms, a bankrupt economy is being barely held together by wishful thinking.

Buried deeply in the war on poverty, the compassionate approach, you will find that politicians are not concerned with the poverty stricken from a humanitarian point of view but from the insensate greediness of a tax collector. Government wants those poor people to pay more taxes in a nice fat hurry, just as if the poverty stricken were not now horribly overtaxed. The truth, of course, is that those in the lowest income tax brackets pay the bulk of the taxes, and don't ever forget it. More than $80 in federal income taxes on a taxable amount of $500 for two people indicates that compassion from tyrants, rulers and others deeply involved with the dirtiest game on earth, is just around the corner, where it will forever remain.

Good luck and good health to you in Freedom.

The American Way

We Could Become Undone

By TOM ANDERSON

[illegible] Pravda [illegible] years according to a [illegible] theorists [illegible] machines [illegible] people.

And these [illegible] machines really [illegible] turning [illegible] White House. And [illegible] machine [illegible] now [illegible] the American people.

[illegible] Now these [illegible] did not [illegible] It was [illegible] Uncle Tom [illegible] named Rastus.

Rastus was telling his boss why he was for Huey Long.

He gonna divide up all de money equal and make ever man a king.

But Rastus, the boss reminded, don't you know that you'd get your nose in the jug on Saturday night, end up in a crap game and lose it all.

Maybe so, replied Rastus, but as I understands it Mr. Huey gonna divide it up equal again ever Monday mawnin'.

EQUAL ON MONDAY

This antipoverty plan is somewhat more honest than Mr. Johnson's, naturally. Instead of stealing an additional $10 billion from the haves to give to the have-nots, this antipoverty program steals on an every-Monday basis. Instead of stealing from the rich to give to the poor, this plan would eliminate the [illegible] except [illegible] everything. The only place in our country where there will be no unemployment is in the government.

This plan of course would end the need for a federal graduated income tax. A government which steals from everybody [illegible] from nobody.

UNREMEMBERED

In keeping with [illegible] thinking, there are a number of refinements which should be made in this momentous proposal by Rastus and the economists who stole his idea [illegible] has [illegible]

[illegible] feasible. Has our State Department cleared it with Mr. Khrushchev and Mr. Tito and Mr. Fulbright? Does it have the blessing of the three Big Businessmen who own the Johnson Wheeler Deal — Billie Sol Estes, Bobby Baker and Walter Reuther? And Rastus fails to take into consideration man's innate desire for challenge and incentive. Since millions [illegible] will have to undergo forced [illegible] ness and riches, wouldn't it be un-American to deny the [illegible] willing to be the most [illegible] make the most money [illegible] would be an appropriate [illegible] for those who insisted [illegible] instead of double-pay [illegible] hardships. Instead of making [illegible] dollars [illegible] make [illegible] enemies [illegible] make them [illegible] ers who [illegible] time would [illegible] made system be [illegible]

The things [illegible] Rastus [illegible] Baker's apartments [illegible] secretaries.

Question Box

Question: [illegible] what we [illegible] confusing and [illegible] word.

Answer: [illegible] certainly is [illegible] we [illegible] authority [illegible] people [illegible] primitive [illegible] It was always we.

When people use the word [illegible] they really mean the government, and [illegible] they do not even [illegible] what government they mean. The word "we" is much [illegible] More people are [illegible] government [illegible] taking away [illegible] individual [illegible] rights to [illegible] rights to make [illegible] [illegible] said that [illegible] was a socialistic collectivist word.

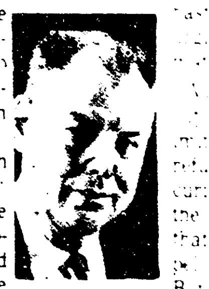
So the next time you hear someone say "we should do this and we should do that," [illegible] exactly what they mean by we — whether they mean the government. And if they do mean government which has nothing and is a taker, how do they propose that the government will get the means to take care of other people, not only in this nation but all over the world? The more we use the word "we" the more we are confused.

Questions are limited to general human relations questions that will improve the well-being of all mankind on this earth.

These Days

The Naked King

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN



Arthur Krock, the veteran editor [illegible] columnist [illegible] in the New York Times, has just given the [illegible] who called attention to the king's nakedness a run for his money.

Quoting an article by Cambridge University professor Alfred Avins in the 1964 winter issue of the Cornell Law Review, Mr. Krock cites the ban of the 13th Amendment against "involuntary servitude," which guarantees to every person the right to refrain from working for any other person. According to Mr. Krock's presentation of Dr. Avins's argument, the "right to refrain from working" covers barbers, hotel clerks, shoeshine men, sales clerks, waiters and waitresses just as much as fieldhands, cotton-pickers and farm laborers.

In other words, if you run a store or a hotel or a restaurant or a barber shop, you don't have to render service to anybody against your will. The 13th Amendment stays so. So we need, not a mere enactment of Congress to force a civil rights public accommodation law, but a new constitutional amendment to define an exception to the 13th Amendment.

I don't know where this leaves you, but it leaves me strung up between by humanitarian feelings and my fears that the cause for logical rigor in the use of language is lost to modern man. The truth is that the child who called attention to the king's nakedness could have a field day if he were to go to work for Dr. Avins and Arthur Krock.

THE DRAFT

For example, what would the child be compelled to say if he were to stack the draft act legislation (which President Johnson is going to get rid of in the next "decade") up against the 13th Amendment? The truthful child would have to observe that any young man inducted into our armed forces against his will is not enjoying the protection of a law against "involuntary servitude." I once heard no less a person than Martha Taft, the wife of Senator Bob Taft, make this point at the home of a [illegible] As a [illegible] creature who did not [illegible] [illegible] the king was naked. Mrs. Taft hastened to add that she wouldn't [illegible] the Senate.

[illegible] Krock's [illegible] imitate the [illegible] refused to collect the social security tax on her employees [illegible] the government [illegible] that nobody could legally [illegible] her to be a tax [illegible] But the 13th Amendment did not serve to keep the [illegible] from attaching her bank account.

Then there is the anti-gun law that Senator Tom Dodd is trying to get passed. There is also the New York Sullivan law [illegible] Personally, I don't go for guns and would just as soon have laws on the books to protect me from gangsters carrying concealed weapons or to keep an assassin from ordering a rifle through a mail order house. But my sense of logic tells me that anti-gun laws are unconstitutional. Our ancestors wrote it into the basic law of the land and the right to bear arms shall not be infringed. The child who called attention to the king's nakedness would have to tell Senator Dodd that he should be asking for a new constitutional amendment to define exceptions to a right that is 170-odd years old.

PRAYER RULING

The recent anti-prayer decision of the U.S. Supreme Court outraged me for several reasons. One [illegible] the court decision was based on my concern [illegible] language. The First Amendment to the Constitution merely says that Congress shall pass no law establishing a religion or preventing the free exercise thereof. It does not say a single word that contravenes the right of a school board or a state or a municipality to permit voluntary prayers. Where is our protection if we have judges who can't read?

What bothers me in all this is that my temperament is forced to quarrel with my feeling that words should convey meaning. Like Martha Taft, I don't relish being the child who says the king is naked. I don't like being conspicuous. But as a wordman I feel that language should be both used and interpreted logically. After all, it's my living.

COLORADO SPRINGS
GAZETTE TELEGRAPH
Your Freedom Newspaper
Ever striving for the Pikes Peak Region to be an even better place to live.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is self-control, no more, no less. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The Antlers Of a Dilemma

Now that most of the shouting and excitement has died down we'd like to take up the big debate recently raised over the possible disposal of the Antlers Hotel.

The Antlers is a land mark. Its presence at the head of Pikes Peak Avenue dominates the downtown district. It has been the home of many famous people and it stirs a host of memories and an air of nostalgia for many who are here and many who come visiting.

However, in recent years the Antlers Hotel has come upon hard days. It isn't that patronage has slipped, for it hasn't. A number of fine activities go on there every day and there's a host of friends the Antlers has made who continue to patronize the place.

But the world is changing. New towering structures like the Broadmoor South beckon enticingly. There are highway facilities in this day of the motor car such as Palmer House, the Embers Motel and the new Ramada Inn, presently under construction, which lure the visitors. And so much of the ample space available in the Antlers simply remains available as newer attractions multiply.

All of which is true, yet it is scarcely the point.

What is the point is that when the word leaked out that the Antlers Hotel might be sold or even razed, movements got under way in various parts of town to try to offset whatever it was that was going to be done. Actually, no one yet knows officially what the ultimate destiny of the fine old showplace is to be. But the real point is this.

The Antlers Hotel is private property. The owners of the hotel have the full and exclusive right to decide what its use is to be. If they decide to raze the hotel, they have a right to do so. If they wish to sell it, their right includes a sale. If they wish to re-build, or to conduct some other business on the site, that too is within their purview. Or if the owners fancy the space as a parking lot, that too is their right.

If it so happens you do not approve of what the owners propose to do with the building, you too have a right. You have a right to offer to buy it from the owners and then, once you are the owner, of doing anything with the hotel you want to do.

This is the idea that has made America the great place it is. It is the concept that the owner of property has full and exclusive right to do whatever he wishes to do with those items of property he rightfully and honestly has acquired.

But your rights as a non-owner are not neglected. If you don't have enough money yourself so that you can honestly purchase the property, you have a right to seek to attract others to your side so that together you can pool your resources to accomplish the objective. You may, in fact, do anything and everything within moral bounds to seek to have the property preserved, or torn down, or converted, or anything else you are willing to pay for or to provide the money for.

But you have no right to use force, either to take the property away from the rightful owners, or to take money away from taxpayers so that your particular ideas can be made permanent in respect to property you do not own. And this is the real problem. For in instances where major changes respecting the downtown area are suggested or appear to be in the offing, there is an all-too-ready tendency to call on the taxpayers by using city hall or some other government agency.

This is where we come to grief.

Like many others, we too will miss the sight of those massive walls of reassuring brick if the Antlers goes the way of gravity. But we would prefer a society wherein the owner is presumed to know best about what he owns than one in which force is used to impose another decision upon him. If the Antlers goes, something better can appear in the same place. And if you don't think so, then you may proceed to buy the property yourself and maintain it the way it is for all of us.

Actually, the rumor (and it is still in the rumor stage) was sired by the fact that local government regulations demand certain modifications in the existing structure which it would be economically disastrous to provide.

It is local government and economic reality that are pushing the Antlers. Let's not us join in the push. Let the owner decide what is best for him, in view of all the circumstances.

And let's keep in mind that any time we don't like his decision, we can always trade places with him and become the owner ourselves.

Investment

The human mind is the greatest factory of all. To educate the person is to make a capital investment of the greatest magnitude.

To Eliminate Government Middlemen

Art Buchwald is getting quite a lot of fame and a bit of good fortune out of a tax plan which he says he has originated. Appearing in his book, "I Chose Capital Punishment," Buchwald contends that he has invented a new tax scheme which will be entirely acceptable to any and all taxpayers.

Our contention is that Buchwald didn't invent anything in the way of a new tax gimmick and is simply re-phrasing what we've been saying for years on these pages.

The alleged "new departure" in taxation is simply a suggestion made by Buchwald, with possible tongue in cheek, that taxpayers should have the right to designate what their tax money is to be used for. And, actually, that has long been our principal objection to taxation ....that it denies the individual the right to decide where his money should go. It simply takes his money and leaves him impoverished. Then the government decides where the money ought to be spent.

To our view, this process is one that sets the government up as a kind of middle-man which performs no useful service. And it is the process that we reject.

Well, Buchwald objects, too. And he wants each taxpayer to append to the check which accompanies Form 1040, a statement as to where the dollars are to go. So much for a new highway in your town; so much for a new post office; so much for atomic research, so much for foreign aid.

Quite seriously we are in favor of this procedure even if Buchwald is only kidding. And we don't think that it has to be handled through government at all.

If you want to assist in paying for the new highway in your town, why not set up a fund for it and contribute your money directly to that fund?

It would save the percentage raked off by the Washington bureaucracy, not to mention the postage.

If you want a new post office, why not work much the same way? Let the post office be purchased by private businessmen and then they can charge enough postage to pay for all the post-office buildings they can afford. Chances are that this procedure would immediately reduce both postal rates and taxes.

As for atomic research, we're all for it, on a voluntary basis. Those interested can send their support money directly to any one of several fine scientific research organizations which are supported privately.

And, of course, private selection of the nation to which you would like your share of foreign aid money to go, would only be fair. Some may prefer to help bolster the economy of Yugoslavia and others may prefer West Germany.

In fact, at one point some months ago we suggested that a taxpayer might be assigned the particular person to whom he is required to make welfare payments and make them direct. No point in involving the government here. If Mr. Jones is supposed to receive $100 a month in welfare payments of some kind, Mr. Smith could be assigned the chore and simply go to Mr. Jones' house and hand over the money. It would save an infinite amount of bookkeeping and reveal to Mr. Jones just who his real benefactor was.

If we have to concede a bit of originality to Buchwald, we'll do it here. He has suggested that a person might inadvertently send in his tax money for some project which the government would disapprove. In that case, the money would be returned to the taxpayer.

And, if taxation has to be continued, this idea does offer the possibilities of a major break-through. Buchwald suggests, for instance, that he might decide to ear-mark his payment in favor of supporting Cuban military expenditures, a program which would have the distinct disapproval of the State Department (he presumes). In this case, the government would be required to return the check.

One can glimpse many pleasant vistas in this kind of procedure. It would have the merit of stimulating the imaginations of senators and representatives who, for the most part, in recent years have largely been parroting already existing socialist formulae. And, of course, it would tend to make refund checks rather common, a distinct advantage.

However, returning to the serious side, we really see no reason for routing our payments for projects the government has not approved through the big offices in Washington. Once more the direct approach, minus the Washington brokerage fee, seems the best course of action.

Banks of the Region

By RUFUS L. PORTER

Considering the rapid growth of the region, it is not surprising that a new bank is organized and put into operation every few years. Bank deposits and bank clearings have shown a steady annual increase since 1920, with the more spectacular gains occurring since 1955.

Total bank deposits in the Springs area as of December 31, 1959, were $16,532,456 and total clearings for the year were $54,745,104. The same figures for 1963 show total deposits at $167,807,304 and clearings at $444,799,677. Source: secretary, Colorado Springs Clearing House.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City reported that in 1963 bank debits to demand deposit accounts totaled $1,672,830, an increase of 10 per cent compared with similar figures for 1962. These same debits increased 12 per cent in 1962 as compared with 1961.

Statistics courtesy Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce.

These figures certainly point to a healthy financial climate for the Pikes Peak Region. It wasn't long ago, in the early '50s, that the idea of a new bank in the area met with rather strong resistance from some of the already established banking institutions. When the Pikes Peak Commercial Bank, now the Pikes Peak National Bank, was first organized on the West End it was three years, what with one thing and another, before it was granted permission to open its doors.

Two Christmas seasons in a row West End businessmen had signs in their windows reading, "All we want for Christmas is a bank." They finally got it and the record of its growth has been phenomenal. And it cannot be said that it "hurt" the older banks in the region, for their growth has kept pace with the growth of the area.

Perhaps the old David Harum type of banker has disappeared from the American scene, but I doubt it. He has just moved into better offices in a more modern building, dresses like the man in the street, and still dispenses knowledge and wisdom on financial matters much in the same manner as old David Harum himself.

The banks in the Springs area are constantly on the alert for new ways to serve the public and are continually coming forward with new ideas that contribute to the growth of the community. I have known quite a few bankers and have never met a "crusty" one yet, such as is sometimes depicted in cartoons. When you get to know them, they are surprisingly human.

Including the Bank of Fountain Valley, the Bank of Manitou, and the First National Bank of Cripple Creek, there are now 11 banks in the area. Four of these are fairly new. These are the Central Colorado Bank, the Northern National Bank, the Pikes Peak National Bank and the Southgate State Bank.

The old timers, of course, are the downtown Colorado Springs banks. These include the Colorado Commercial Bank, the Colorado Springs National Bank, the Exchange National Bank and the First National Bank, all of which have been with us for a long, long time. And these old timers are as modern and resourceful, as up to date in every way, as the newer ones. This includes building improvements as well as in financial matters.

To this rather impressive list are to be added two more new banks in the near future. One is a "first" for Woodland Park. This is a state bank, I believe, that was organized by a few Ute Pass enterprisers. The other new bank is the Western National Bank of Colorado Springs that was announced in the Gazette Telegraph, on May 12.

The Cripple Creek Bank was due to fold up a year ago, but was bought out by a Missouri businessman who has faith in the old gold camp. The building has since undergone major improvements, the personnel have been upgraded, a new president has been elected and the banking methods modernized. Needless to say, all this has given a great boost in morale to the old gold district that was beginning to lose faith in its future. Things would have looked dismal indeed without the familiar First National Bank on Bennett Avenue.

A first-class bank — or a number of them, depending on the size of the community — certainly adds prestige and an aura of prosperity to a town.

GNP in the News Again

By GEORGE BOARDMAN, PhD

Politicians, laying plans to practice more Robin Hoodery, for their own glory, at the expense of every earner and investor, use the words gross national product as a club which they can swing in any direction at any time and for any purpose.

The much publicized war against poverty, it has been declared, will cost not more than 1 per cent of the GNP, and this line is as old as the economics but it suits the purpose of any party hack seeking to perpetuate himself in office as long as the earners and investors decline to think.

First let me remind you that the GNP indicates the value of all the goods and services in the general market place. I use the word "general" because it also includes such things as give aways to foreign governments and all types of welfare costs, at home and abroad. While it ostensibly includes profits, the percentage of net profit can diminish to absolute zero while the GNP climbs, and in the case of governmental bookkeeping this becomes an obvious fact since the national debt continues to climb and the end is not yet.

Right here we have a key to some of the oddities which occur in the stock market. Sales may be up, profits may have increased but tucked away in small print we discover that the percentage of profit is down appreciably and this is of vital importance.

From a slightly different point of view, we can reduce this to simple terms. If the percentage of profit is less than can be earned by savings in building and loan associations, only speculators are active in the stock market, except for those who refuse to see the signs and portents. This situation exists today and it has existed for several years, with large investors bolstering up the market every time it shows signs of decline and, occasionally, because of fear.

Now each of the activities of Robin Hood government may amount to only a small percentage of the GNP but added together, the total amounts to a percentage higher than the prevailing percentage of profit earned by workers, after taxes. All of this is plainly reflected in the growing cost of government and when any politician tries to tell you the cost of government is not growing, he is ignoring the truth, to put the case in the mildest possible terms. Those who presently mismanage the affairs of the government of this country dare not tell the truth and probably do not dare to recognize the truth even as they stare only at their own eyes while shaving.

The basis of the Keynesian mishmash of economic hogwash is more hogwash, lies, half-truths, propaganda and a dependency upon the faith of the unthinking, and those who should know better dare not think for fear that only a slight increase in thinking will upset the status quo apple cart, burst the balloon and fully explode the immature nonsense to public view. If you care to reduce the entire situation to basic, simple terms, a bankrupt economy is being barely held together by wishful thinking.

Buried deeply in the war on poverty, the compassionate approach, you will find that politicians are not concerned with the poverty stricken from a humanitarian point of view but from the insensate greediness of a tax collector. Government wants those poor people to pay more taxes in a nice fat hurry, just as if the poverty stricken were not now horribly overtaxed. The truth, of course, is that those in the lowest income tax brackets pay the bulk of the taxes, and don't ever forget it. More than $80 in federal income taxes on a taxable amount of $500 for two people indicates that compassion from tyrants, rulers and others deeply involved with the dirtiest game on earth, is just around the corner, where it will forever remain.

Good luck and good health to you, in Freedom.

It's Up to You

A Terrible Wrong

By H. E. KERSHNER, L.H.D.

Sukarno's renewed and continuing threats to crush the peaceful state of Malaysia again emphasize the terrible wrong against civilization which our country has perpetrated in bringing this left-wing tyrant to power and supplying him with money, food, and arms to continue his depredations against civilized communities.

First of all, our government took the lead in forcing our longtime friends, the Dutch, out of Indonesia in order that this pro-Communist dictator might come to power. Then our government supplied him with arms to crush the Christians in the Moluccan Islands who wished to be independent. Although Indonesia has not the remotest claim upon West New Guinea, again we forced the Dutch out of that territory in order that Sukarno might have it. We even refused to allow Dutch planes communicating with West New Guinea to refuel at American bases. The Dutch are a kindred civilization which has contributed a great deal to the strength of America. Nevertheless we have insulted them and wronged them in order to take the part of the anti-Christian, left wing, Communist - leaning Sukarno. At this very moment the guerrillas who are invading and fighting on Malaysian territory are armed and equipped with supplies which our country has sent to Sukarno. Just as we financed the overthrow of the Christian regime in Katanga so we are making it possible for Sukarno to extend his dominion in southeast Asia by threats of violence and aggressive action against peaceful surrounding peoples.

No words of condemnation are strong enough in criticism of the policy our government has long followed of opposing right-wing rulers and regimes while upholding, financing, and promoting left-wing rulers in many parts of the world.

To the Editor:

It always amazes me when we begin to take stock of our files to find the tremendous amount of publicity we have received from your press.

We want you to know that we appreciate you doing this for us and we could not continue our program of rehabilitation if it were not for friends such as you to help us tell the story.

There are not sufficient words to tell you how much we appreciate this, so just a great big thanks!

God bless you.

The American Way

We Could Become Undone

By TOM ANDERSON

If you're unemployed, relax and enjoy it. Practically everybody is going to be jobless within five years, according to a group of fanatical theorists who claim machines will soon do most of the work now done by people.

Are these cybernetic frenetics right? Can machines really do almost everything now done by and for man? Like turning off lights in the White House? And, if a machine could find out how to do this, could it tell the American people?

The only solution, these "social scientists" claim, is for the government to divide up all the money equally and give every person an equal amount each payday, work or not. Now these cybernetic crackpots did not invent this panacea. It was invented way back in Uncle Tom days by a Negro named Rastus. Rastus was telling his boss why he was for Huey Long.

"He guina divide up all de money equal and make ever' man a king!"

"But Rastus," the boss reminded, "don't you know that you'd get your nose in the jug on Saturday night, end up in a crap game and lose it all?"

"Maybe so," replied Rastus, "but as I understands it, Mr Huey gonna divide it up equal again ever' Monday mawnin'!"

EQUAL ON MONDAY

This anti-poverty plan is somewhat more honest than Mr. Johnson's, naturally. Instead of stealing an additional $10 billion from the "haves" to give to the "have-nots," this anti-poverty program steals on an every-Monday basis. Instead of stealing from the rich to give to the poor, this plan would eliminate the rich, except for the corporate Socialists who would run everything. (The only place in our country where there will be no unemployment is in the government.)

This plan, of course, would end the need for a federal personal income tax. A government which steals from everybody equally might as well steal from nobody.

UNREMEMBERED

In keeping with "progressive" thinking, there are a number of refinements which should be made in this momentous proposal by Rastus and the "economists" who stole his idea. First, it has to be politically feasible. Has our State Depar ment cleared it with Mr. Khr shchev and Mr. Tito and M Fulbright? Does it have th blessing of the three Big Bus nessmen who own the Johnso Wheeler Deal — Billie Sol E tes, Bobby Baker and Walt Reuther? And Rastus failed take into consideration man innate desire for challenge ar incentive. Since millions of will have to undergo forced id ness and riches, wouldn't it un-American to deny the peop willing to be the most idle make the most money? The could be an appropriate pena for those who insisted on wor ing, of half-pay for overtim instead of double-pay. Inste of slowdowns, there could backups. Instead of making b lions of dollars of goods make more and more forei enemies, why not buy the thin our enemies have made and make them here? And unwor ers who unmade the most thin in the most amount time would, under our union made system, be unlaid off.

The things our mass unpr ducing system could unmak could be stored in Billie Sol E tes' empty bins and in Bobb Baker's apartments for deser ing secretaries.

In fact, why not do away wi these halfway measures? I stead of passing out mone equally, why not do away wi money? Then money would longer be the root of all ev Government would be

Question Box

Question No. 504: "Is the word 'we' a confusing and dangerous collectivist word?"

Answer: It certainly is because no one knows who "we" includes. Who has the authority to speak for other people? It is going back to primitive idea when the tribes didn't even have a word for "I." It was always "we".

When people use the word "we" in most cases they really mean the government, and oftentimes they do not even clarify what government they mean. The word "we" is much more acceptable than "government" to most people who do not see the need of using mathematical words. More people are getting frightened of the government because it is taking away from each and every individual more and more of his rights to life, that is, the rights to make decisions.

Rose Wilder Lane said that "we" was a socialistic, collectivistic word.

So the next time you hear someone say "we" should do this and "we" should do that etc., make them tell exactly what they mean by we — whether they mean the government. And if they do mean government, which has nothing and is a pauper, how do they propose that the government will get the means to take care of other people, not only in this nation but also all over the world? The more we use the word "we," the more we are confused.

Questions are limited to general human relations questions that will improve the well-being of all mankind on this earth.

These Days

The Naked King

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Arthur Krock, the veteran editorial page political columnist for the New York Times, has just given the child who called attention to the king's nakedness a run for his money.

Quoting an article by Cambridge University professor Alfred Avins in the 1964 winter issue of the Cornell Law Review, Mr. Krock cites the ban of the 13th Amendment against "involuntary servitude," which guarantees to "every person the right to refrain from working for any other person." According to Mr. Krock's presentation of Dr. Avins's argument, the "right to refrain from working" covers "barbers, hotel clerks, shoeshine men, sales clerks, waiters and waitresses just as much as fieldhands, cotton-pickers and farm laborers."

In other words, if you run a store or a hotel or a restaurant or a barber shop, you don't have to render service to anybody against your will. The 13th Amendment stays so. So we need, not a mere enactment of Congress to force a civil rights public accommodation law, but a new constitutional amendment to define an exception to the 13th Amendment.

I don't know where this leaves you, but it leaves me strung up between by humanitarian feelings and my fears that the cause for logical rigor in the use of language is lost to modern man. The truth is that the child who called attention to the king's nakedness could have a field day if he were to go to work for Dr. Avins and Arthur Krock.

THE DRAFT

For example, what would the child be compelled to say if he were to stack the draft act legislation (which President Johnson is going to get rid of in the next "decade") up against the 13th Amendment? The truthful child would have to observe that any young man inducted into our armed forces against his will is not enjoying the protection of a law against "involuntary servitude." I once heard no less a person than Martha Taft, the wife of Senator Bob Taft, make this point at the home of Alice Longworth. As a soci creature who did not enjo emulating the child who sa the king was naked, Mrs. Ta hastened to add that she wasn urging her husband to press th matter in the Senate.

Vivien Kellems, the Connect cut industrialist, once did try t imitate the truthful child. Sh refused to collect the social s curity tax on her employees fo the government on the groun that nobody could legally con pel her to be a tax collecto But the 13th Amendment di not serve to keep the federal from attaching her bank a count.

Then there is the anti-gun la that Senator Tom Dodd is try ing to get passed. There i also the New York Sullivan law. Personally, I don't go for guns and would just as soon hav laws on the books to protect m from gangsters carrying con cealed weapons, or to keep a assassin from ordering a rifl through a mail order house. But my sense of logic tells m that anti-gun laws are unconst tutional. Our ancestors wrote i into the basic law of the lan and the right to bear arm shall not be infringed. The chil who called attention to th king's nakedness would have t tell Senator Dodd that he shoul be asking for a new constitu tional amendment to define ex ceptions to a right that is 170 odd years old.

PRAYER RULING

The recent anti-prayer deci sion of the U.S. Supreme Cour outraged me for several rea sons. One of my objections t the court decision was base on my concern for lan guage. The First Amendment t the Constitution merely say that Congress shall pass no law establishing a religion or pre venting the free exercise there of. It does not say a singl word that contravenes the righ of a school board or a state o a municipality to permit volun tary prayers. Where is our pro tection if we have judges wh can't read?

What bothers me in all this i that my temperament is force to quarrel with my feeling tha words should convey meaning Like Martha Taft, I don't relish being the child who says th king is naked. I don't like be ing conspicuous. But as a word man I feel that language shoul be both used and interprete logically. After all, it's my liv ing.

Southern Baptists Urge 'Rights' For Negroes

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A Southern Baptist commission recommended today that the denomination's convention go on record in support of legislation guaranteeing legal rights of Negroes.

The commission apparently considered the recommedation the closest thing to endorsement of civil rights legislation that might be adopted by the convention, whose action is not binding on member churches.

The topic goes to the convention floor Thursday and is certain to cause heated debate.

Northern Baptists were urged by a Negro leader Tuesday night at their convention to take a more active roll in the civil rights fight.

The Rev. Dr. Ralph B. Abernathy of Atlanta, a Baptist minister and associate of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said: "It is a tragic fact that for too long the church has not been a voice, but rather an echo."

Racial issues have claimed a big part of the discussions of both the American (Northern) and Southern Baptist Conventions, meeting separately.

The civil rights recommendation was made by the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, largest Protestant denomination in the United States, with more than 10 million members.

"We pledge to support the laws designed to guarantee the legal rights of Negroes in our democracy and to go beyond these laws by practicing Christian love and reconciliation in human relationships," the recommendation said.

In an explanatory statement, the commission said that "in the midst of frustrating confusion and blurred issues, we would hereby affirm without ambiguity our conviction that the truths of God relate relevantly and redemptively in this (racial) crisis.

"Our failure to create a climate of Christian good will has resulted in the racial protest movements which have been used for the redress of legitimate grievances. Indeed we have contributed to the belief of many Negroes that these movements offer their only avenue of recourse."

'Closed Doors' Are Slated for Baker Probe

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate committee investigating Bobby Baker goes behind closed doors Wednesday to consider a proposed report that blames the Senate for putting Baker and others in places of responsibility without imposing enforceable standards of honesty.

To remedy the situation it urges a strict set of ethical regulations for Senate employes and Senators.

The report, submitted to the Rules Committee by its special counsel, L. P. McLendon, also holds that as a Senate employe Baker was guilty of gross improprieties but finds he was not legally guilty of conflict of interest.

Baker, 35, resigned as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority last Oct. 7 after conflict of interest allegations.

The report was submitted to the committee 10 days ago and was released to newsmen Monday. Wednesday's closed meeting is for members to go over the draft and offer suggestions.

Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., has said he expects the committee to make some changes in the proposed report before submitting it to the Senate.

The committee's Republican minority, which has attacked the Democrats' handling of the investigation, was reported drawing up a separate report.

Prisoners Must Agree to Line-Up

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal judge has forbidden use of prisoners in line-ups unless police have the prisoners' permission.

Dist. Court Judge Abraham L. Freedman ruled Tuesday there was substantial merit in suits filed by two prisoners at the City Detention Center in Holmesburg. They contended forced participation in a line-up violated their constitutional rights.

Rep. Jeannete Rankin of Montana was the only woman in Congress to vote for women's suffrage.

'Closed Doors' Are Slated for Baker Probe

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate committee investigating Bobby Baker goes behind closed doors Wednesday to consider a proposed report that blames the Senate for putting Baker and others in places of responsibility without imposing "enforceable standards of honesty."

To remedy the situation, it urges a strict set of ethical regulations for Senate employes and senators.

The report, submitted to the Rules Committee by its special counsel, L. P. McLendon, alleges that as a Senate employe Baker was guilty of gross improprieties but holds he was not legally guilty of conflict of interest.

Baker, 36, resigned as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority Oct. 7 after conflict of interest allegations.

The proposed report said disclosures in the Senate investigation "convincingly prove the existence of a breeding ground of practices inimical to the public interest."

"No amount of sophistry," it said, "can relieve the Senate of the public criticism now directed against it.

"The Senate, as a body, and senators individually have suffered the loss of much respect and prestige because of conditions this investigation has brought to light."

To put the situation to right, McLendon's report urges:

1. A system of compulsory public disclosure of the identity of the financial interests of all senators, officers and employes.

2. Compulsory prohibition "of all associations by senators, officers and employes with persons and organizations outside the Senate who are engaged in conducting business with the government or have business before the government officers or agents."

3. A requirement by the Senate, as a matter of permanent policy, that all senators respond to requests from any of its committees to appear and testify about any knowledge they have of a subject under investigation.

The report was submitted to the committee 10 days ago and was leaked to newsmen Monday. Wednesday's closed meeting is for members to go over the draft and offer suggestions.

Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., has said he expects the committee to make some changes in the proposed report before submitting it to the Senate.

The committee's Republican minority, which has attacked the Democrats' handling of the investigation, was reported drawing up a separate report.

Prisoners Must Agree to Line-Up

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal judge has forbidden use of prisoners in line-ups unless police have the prisoners' permission.

Dist. Court Judge Abraham L. Freedman ruled Tuesday there was substantial merit in suits filed by two prisoners at the City Detention Center in Holmesburg. They contended forced participation in a line-up violated their constitutional rights.

Rep. Jeannete Rankin, of Montana, was the only woman in Congress to vote for women's suffrage.

NOT WATERED

DURBAN, Natal Province, South Africa (AP)—It was not water that suddenly began coursing down the dry bed of a stream at Edendale, near Pietermaritzburg, in the Natal Province. But a cow standing listlessly on the bank was not to know that.

She took a few tentative licks—and then began drinking with extraordinary enthusiasm. The result was a hangover that lasted for days.

The source of her jag? Up-stream a squad of policemen had emptied nearly 3,000 gallons of moonshine into the bed of the stream. They discovered the illicit liquor in 64 44-gallon drums buried in the ground over a distance of 150 yards. Only the tops of the drums were visible.

The size label on a sheet represents the size of the sheet before it is hemmed. The hemming usually shortens the sheet by about five inches.

Danny Kaye steps aside at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas June 9 to make way for Maurice Chevalier. That burned foot didn't stop Kaye. He's singing and dancing all over the place.

Robert Scheerer, Danny's young TV director, is the same lad who caught my eye as a juvenile singer-dancer in the Hollywood revue "Lend an Ear," also the birthplace of Carol Channing and the Gower Champions. After his debut in that, Bob spent a few years playing juvenile leads in Broadway musicals, left a $600 a week acting job for $60 per week as a production assistant. Last year he did the Andy Williams show, then got offers from most all the musical variety programs on all the networks.

Well whatta you know, the Pomona Valley Shakespeare festival gets the first preview of "Iguana" in Claremont June 12. And Sue Lyon will be present. The other stars couldn't be bothered.

Remember when the word "orgy" was used only in foreign films? New York censors passed an uncut version of an American "La Dolce Vita" called "Orgy at Lil's Place."

Judy Garland goes to the Palace to sing at their big gala. Not Buckingham — Monaco. She's creating riots in Australia.

Martin Jurow made a deal for three TV shows at Desilu in '65. He says a producing unit these days must work in all mediums. He wants me to see the cars, rockets and torpedoes he's built for "The Great Race."

Bridegroom May Help Finance June Wedding

WASHINGTON (AP) — [illegible] June wedding [illegible] Africa [illegible] bridegroom help finance the wedding.

The word comes from the National Geographic Society [illegible]

Telling of the African tribal custom of [illegible] bride-payment, the society says in a news release timed to the commencement of the June wedding season: "Before consenting to the engagement, the father of the prospective bride [illegible] every possible cattle out of the would-be [illegible] and uses part of the [illegible] to help meet expenses."

But apparently some of the prospective bridegrooms are too stuffy for their future fathers-in-law because the society also says: "Even in primitive societies of Africa and Asia the father of the bride often runs himself into near-bankruptcy to pay for a lavish wedding and feast."

Here's some more wedding data to pass on as you wait your turn in the reception line.

The term bridegroom comes from Anglo-Saxon. It was the custom for the husband to wait on the bride at the wedding feast, and so he was called the "groom" or "servitor."

The still-popular custom of tying old shoes to the honeymoon car is a carry-over from ancient Egypt where the father in giving away the bride would hand the bridegroom one of his daughter's sandals, signifying that from this day forward she was in the young man's care.

The term honeymoon derives from a custom of the Norsemen. Each day for a month after the wedding the newlyweds took a sip of mead, a fermented drink made of honey, to bring them good luck and health.

Rice throwing is a legacy of the custom of the ancient pagans, who brought grain to the wedding ceremony to invoke fertility.

Lawyers to Defend Civil Rights Group

NEW YORK (AP) — A "lawyers corps" has been formed to defend civil rights demonstrators in the South this summer.

Seven major civil rights groups announced Wednesday the formation of the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee. A spokesman said 60 volunteers will spend at least two weeks each in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida, serving without pay.

Bette Davis Sued By Paramount Studio

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Paramount Pictures Corp. has sued actress Bette Davis for $7,000 damages, claiming she has refused to report for filming one added scene for the picture "Where Love Has Gone."

The suit asked that Miss Davis be restrained from working in any artistic endeavor.

TONY RANDALL'S ALLERGIC — TO A 600-POUND LION

HOLLYWOOD—They're making bets at Universal-International on who'll win out:Tony Randall or Fluffy, the 600-pound lion. After starting work on the picture, Tony discovered he's allergic to cats, so a doctor stands by to give him anti-lion shots. When Fluffy comes, Tony's down and out with an asthmatic attack. He has three more weeks to go, and has to spend most of that time in bed with Fluffy.

Never rains but it pours, and Dana Andrews is caught in his own deluge. His $2½ million apartment complex in Garden Grove opens this week, but he's in Spain making "A Crack in the World." Spends his nights trying to get through to his business office here. I know about that telephone service — I spent 48 hours trying to make a call. Dana had planned on taking wife Mary and their three kids on a European tour, but Otto Preminger invited him to Honolulu for "Harm's Way" and that's where he'll go.

Liz Taylor's talking to Ray Stark about going back to work. She wants a million to star in Tennessee Williams' biggest flop (it didn't even make Broadway), "Condemned." I heard they'd even get Burton to direct, but that ain't so. George Roy Hill gets the job if the picture's ever done — which I doubt.

Gypsy Rose Lee gets roasted and toasted by the Masquers on Friday. Pat Buttram and Bette Davis lead the fun, and I'm joining them.

Merle Alderman, a 75-year-old bachelor, pleads with Hollywood to keep Shirley Jones as she is. "I saw Shirley play the girl of my dreams back in Iowa. She put me back in the spirit of romance like I've never experienced before or since. Please get her into a fitting picture of the 'Music Man' caliber for people like me who will see the movies in hell rather than patronize sex-potism and debasement. The wholesome angle of life is getting a raw deal. Save Shirley."

Robert Scheerer, Danny's young TV director, is the same lad who caught my eye as a juvenile singer-dancer in the Hollywood revue, "Lend an Ear," also the birthplace of Carol Channing and the Gower Champions. After his debut in that, Bob spent a few years playing juvenile leads in Broadway musicals; left a $600 a week acting job for $60 per week as a production assistant. Last year he did the Andy Williams show, then got offers from most all the musical variety programs on all the networks.

Bridegroom May Help Finance June Wedding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just in time for the June wedding season comes this tip for the financially harassed father of the bride: Be like the African tribesman dads and make the bridegroom help finance the wedding.

The word comes from the National Geographic Society, faithful recorder of odd and not-so-odd customs the world over.

Telling of the African tribal custom of "Lobola"—or bride-payment—the society says in a news release inspired by the imminence of the June wedding season: "Before consenting to the engagement, the father of the prospective bride squeezes every possible cent out of the would-be bridegroom and uses part of the booty to help meet expenses."

But apparently some of the prospective bridegrooms are too shifty for their future fathers-in-law because the society also says: "Even in primitive societies of Africa and Asia, the father of the bride often runs himself into near-bankruptcy to pay for a lavish wedding and feast."

Here's some more wedding data to pass on as you wait your turn in the reception line:

The term bridegroom comes from Anglo-Saxon. It was the custom for the husband to wait on the bride at the wedding feast, and so he was called the "groom" or "servitor."

The still-popular custom of tying old shoes to the honeymoon car is a carry-over from ancient Egypt where the father, in giving away the bride, would hand the bridegroom one of his daughter's sandals, signifying that from this day forward she was in the young man's care.

The term honeymoon derives from a custom of the Norsemen. Each day for a month after the wedding the newlyweds took a spi of mead, a fermented drink made of honey, to bring them good luck and health.

Rice throwing is a legacy of the custom of the ancient pagans, who brought grain to the wedding ceremony to invoke fertility.

Sparks May Fly at GOP County Assembly Saturday

By GLENN URBAN
Gazette Telegraph Staff Writer

Sparks are expected to fly Saturday at the El Paso County Republican assembly but they may not be brightly visible.

The assembly is scheduled to open at 10 a.m. in the Broadmoor's International Center. The sparks w[illegible] sive clashes [illegible] politicians, amateur and professional [illegible] eye.

The [illegible] Goldwater [illegible] supporting [illegible] Arizona Sen. Barry M. Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination [illegible]

[illegible]

William Warren, Denver, [illegible] chairman of the Colorado Lodge campaign, announced that his group, which supports Henry Cabot Lodge, current ambassador to South Viet Nam and vice presidential nominee four years ago, will cooperate with workers for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton.

The stage is thus set for the drama to be played out in El Paso County Saturday and in the 62 other county assemblies in the state.

The assembly is part of the [illegible] of the party and is one in a series of party gatherings [illegible]

These start with the precinct meetings at which members of the party [illegible] in the precinct and attend the meeting [illegible] men and women [illegible] delegates [illegible]

[illegible]

El Paso County has [illegible] precincts and a total of [illegible] delegates are [illegible] for the assembly.

The delegates to the county assembly select the county's delegates to the state convention that selects delegates to the national convention which in turn will select the Republican nominee for President. Colorado will have [illegible] of a total of [illegible] delegates at the national convention.

This year the state convention will be held June 6 at the State Fairgrounds in Pueblo. The national convention will be held at San Francisco starting [illegible]

El Paso County will have [illegible] delegates to the state convention and [illegible] alternates [illegible] to attend [illegible] of absentees [illegible] 100.

According to Laura the Goldwater forces intend to take the majority of those delegates.

Of course not all Republicans in this county are in favor of Goldwater.

You may recall that earlier this year — in fact even last year — there was talk about Sen. Gordon Allott or Gov. John A. Love being the favorite son candidate to be submitted by Colorado at the national convention.

The idea was that the state then would be free to shop and swap after voting on the first ballot for the favorite son.

Some people thought that was a great idea, the Goldwater people kept quiet, and kept working.

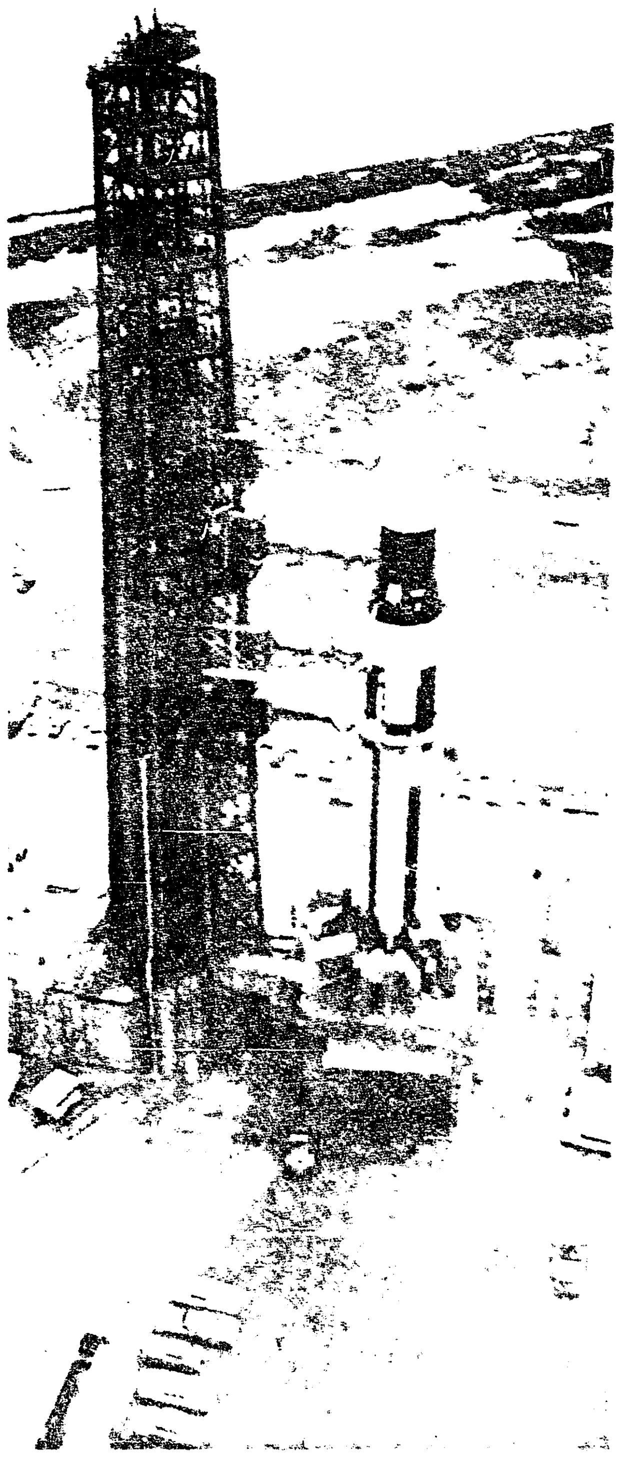
All that has now changed. The state will send an officially uninstructed delegation, but the fight is now between those who want a delegation loaded with Goldwater backers and those who don't. Laura sees Goldwater people dominating the uninstructed delegation.

While the fight already has been held in the precincts it will flare up again Saturday over the [illegible] routine - type task of naming a committee to pick those [illegible] delegates and [illegible] alternates.

[illegible] remain neutral.

Laura also expects proceedings to be smooth [illegible] We certainly intend to conform to the party's wishes but we will make it clear where we stand. We have the [illegible] and the support.

[illegible] Goldwater forces [illegible] the committee they can [illegible] the naming of the delegates. A slate of delegates has [illegible] approved by the convention [illegible] be able to dominate the committee probably also will have the majority vote of the assembly.



Everest Climber To Address Boy Scout Meet

James W. Whittaker [illegible] Mount Everest [illegible]

Sparks May Fly at GOP County Assembly Saturday

By GLENN URBAN

Gazette Telegraph Staff Writer

Sparks are expected to fly Saturday at the El Paso County Republican assembly, but they may not be brightly visible.

The assembly is scheduled to open at 10 a.m. in the Broadmoor's International Center. The sparks will come from the abrasive clashes of determined politicians, amateur and professional who don't see eye to eye.

The fight will be between Goldwater people — those supporting the campaign of Arizona Sen. Barry M. Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination — and those who support any other candidate.

The Goldwater forces expect to win, though they are as reticent to brag about their belief in victory as they are determined to get it.

Atty. Robert Laura is chairman of the Goldwater Committee in El Paso County. He is confident, but not cocky.

"We have of course made some effort without in any way trying to destroy the party organization," he said, commenting on the amount of control the Goldwater forces have achieved in this county.

"We are part of the party and don't want to upset it," he explained, and added: "We elected delegates to the county convention from many precincts."

"I will say this," he went on, "the majority of the delegates will be Goldwater supporters, even though they might not say so right now."

Referring to the El Paso delegation to the state convention, Laura said: "We are confident the majority of them will be Goldwater supporters."

The Saturday confrontation has been made more sharp by recent developments.

All across the country, the national GOP campaign has shaped up as Goldwater against the other contenders. It was made at least semi-official in Colorado last week.

William Warren, Denver, co-chairman of the Colorado Lodge campaign, announced that his group, which supports Henry Cabot Lodge, current ambassador to Viet Nam and vice presidential nominee four years ago, will cooperate with workers for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton.

The stage is thus set for the drama to be played out in El Paso County Saturday and in the 62 other county assemblies in the state.

The assembly is part of the regular activities of the party, and is one in a series of party gatherings that begin in the grass roots and go on up to the top.

These start with the precinct meetings at which members of the party who live in the precinct and attend the meeting elect committee men and women and also elect delegates to the county assembly.

Precinct strength at the county assembly varies in accordance to a formula that rewards effort in the past election.

El Paso county has 87 precincts and a total of 467 delegates are allowed for the assembly.

The delegates to the county assembly select the county's delegates to the state convention, that selects delegates to the national convention, which in turn will select the Republican nominee for the presidency. Colorado will have 18 out of a total of 1,308 delegates at the national convention.

This year the state GOP convention will be held June 6 at the State Fairgrounds in Pueblo. The national convention will be held at San Francisco starting on July 13.

El Paso county will have 100 delegates to the state convention, and also will name 100 alternates, who will be allowed to attend and vote only in case of absences among the first 100.

According to Laura, the Goldwater forces intend to have the majority of those delegates.

Of course not all Republicans in this county are in favor of Goldwater.

You may recall that early this year — in fact even last year — there was talk about Sen. Gordon Allott or Gov. John A. Love being the favorite son candidate to be supported by Colorado at the national convention.

The idea was that the state then would be free to shop and swap after voting on the first ballot for the favorite son.

Some people thought that was a great idea; the Goldwater people kept quiet, and kept working.

All that has now changed. The state will send an officially uninstructed delegation, but the fight is now between those who want a delegation loaded with Goldwater backers and those who don't. Laura sees Goldwater people dominating the uninstructed delegation.

While the fight already has been held in the precincts it will flare up again Saturday over the little routine-type task of naming a committee to pick those 100 delegates and 100 alternates.

Atty. Weldon Tarter, county chairman, says things will go off smoothly. Officially he must remain neutral.

Laura also expects proceedings to be smooth, but he added: "We certainly intend to conform to the party's wishes, but we will make it clear where we stand. We have the organization and the support."

If the Goldwater forces can control the committee, they can control the naming of the delegates. A slate of delegates has to be approved by the convention, but the side able to dominate the committee probably also will have the majority vote in the assembly.

Everest Climber To Address Boy Scout Meet

James W. Whittaker, first American to conquer Mount Everest, will give an address tonight in Cleveland, Ohio, at the 54th annual meeting of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Whittaker, who lives in Redmond, Wash., is a former Star Scout and at one time was stationed here at Ft. Carson.

Representing the Pikes Peak Council will be Col. Howard H. Cloud Jr., president of the council; Scout Executive Ray M. Ryerson, Earl Schwab, Don M. Alexander, Dr. Lee Steele and Bill Smartt. Mrs. Alexander will accompany here husband.

The main address at the closing banquet Friday will be given by Robert Moses, president of the New York World's Fair Corporation.

The meeting will be attended by 2,500 men representing the 524 Scout councils which serve 5,446,910 members in 136,844 units. Joseph A. Brunton Jr. will make his annual report as the Chief Scout Executive.

Whittaker will be the principal speaker tonight at the Scouter Appreciation Dinner in the Cleveland Public Auditorium. The coveted Lorrillard Spencer Award will be presented to the region with the largest per cent increase in membership, registration of units, and use of Boys' Life magazine in the program.

Other speakers will be William Harrison Fetridge, a vice president of the National Council, whose topic will be "Why I Am A Volunteer;" Eagle Scout Thomas Y. Davis III of Newark, Del., who called on President Johnson at the White House during Boy Scout Week, and whose topic will be "Thank You, Boy Scouts of America;" Eagle Scout Randolph Scott of Clairton, Pa., who was deputy national conference chief to 3,105 members attending the 48th anniversary national conference at the University of Illinois last August, will speak on "Thank You, Mr. Committeemen;" Explorer Bill Waller of Nashville, Tenn., an Eagle Scout who has been chosen national chairman of the Second National Explorer Delegate Conference of 1,200 selected Explorers of the nation to be held in August at the University of Kansas. He will talk on "Thank You, Mr. Scoutmaster."

At the closing banquet, the National Court of Honor will present the "Award of the Silver Buffalo" for distinguished service to boyhood on a national or international level. Names of recipients will be announced later.

Teenager Groups Meet On Hollywood Boulevard

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This is Hollywood Boulevard—and the boulevard will be swinging tonight, this being Friday.

The convergence of teen-agers each week has become a local ritual that is a bother for residents and a headache for the police.

Nobody knows how it started. Two or three years ago, crowds of kids began appearing on the boulevard on Friday nights. Their numbers grew until the boulevard would become a bumper-to-bumper mass of hot rods and family cars packed with youngsters out for fun—or trouble.

"Friday night is a problem," says Police Capt. Otho C. Woods. "It has become a mobile lonely hearts club, with carloads of boys driving up and down the boulevard trying to make contact with carloads of girls.

"We have to police the boulevard pretty closely. When you get that many kids together in one area, there is bound to be some trouble. The patrolmen watch for thrown eggs, hooliganism and faulty equipment on cars. And we have to keep traffic moving, which is pretty difficult at times."

What attracts the kids to Hollywood is a puzzle. Most of them seem to come from outlying areas—the San Fernando Valley, West Los Angeles, the East Side—in search of excitement. Hollywood is a central location and the magic of the name lends allure.

But as one veteran police officer remarked: "There isn't a damned thing for them to do when they get here."

Ten is the curfew hour in Los Angeles and the crowd begins to lessen. By midnight the teen-agers have returned home or to other haunts, and the oldtimers who people the hotels and rooming houses can reclaim the boulevard.

The intensity of the invasion is oddly seasonal.

"The last two months of the year are the most critical," reported Woods. "The kids descend in greater numbers then and we have to put four to six two-man mobile units in the field. The rest of the time we can get by with half that number."

He had no explanation why November and December bring a greater influx. It might be the rah-rah spirit of the football season, or the attraction of Christmas. It might be anything.

Jury Finds For Defendant In Injury Suit

A District Court jury returned a verdict Wednesday night in favor of the defendant in a $57,598.75 personal injury suit and awarded the plaintiff no damages.

Vera Mae Hamm, Woodland Park, was suing Stephen H. Wells, Imperial Beach, Calif., for alleged injuries received in an accident July 27, 1962. According to the complaint the defendant drove his vehicle into another car in which the plaintiff was a passenger.

The incident was said to have happened 3.7 miles north of Lake George on Park County 77.

A companion jury case which was scheduled to be heard this morning was settled out of court a few minutes before going to trial. No details of the settlement were made.

Edwin F. Howard, 1511 E. Platte Ave., the driver of the car in which Miss Hamm was a passenger was suing Wells for $22,600.41.

It was alleged that the Wells car was on the wrong side of the road and collided with the plaintiff head-on injuring him.

In a counter-claim Wells said Howard caused the accident as he was driving in "an intoxicated condition." Wells alleged he was injured and requested $16,500 damages.

Sandra Viets Will Attend CSU Institute

Miss Sandra Viets, a French teacher at the Air Academy High School has been invited to take part in an eight-week Language Institute, June 17-August 11, at Colorado State University in Fort Collins.

She is one of 18 teachers from Colorado to attend the CSU institute. A total of 40 teachers were chosen from more than 200 applicants.

The institute is one of 69 summer institutes scheduled at various colleges and universities for the improvement of language teaching. Sponsored by the Language Development Program of the National Defense Education Act of 1958, the institutes are supported by funds from the U. S. Office of Education in contract with host institutions. Participants from public schools receive a stipend of $75 a week, plus allowances for dependents.

Warm Weather Covers Most Areas of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was chilly from the Great Lakes region to the northern and middle Atlantic States today but fairly warm weather was reported in most other parts of the nation.

Showers sprinkled areas in the South and Far West but generally dry weather prevailed in most other sections.

The cold air and brisk winds which held temperatures to the 40s in some northern Midwest areas Wednesday cleared the skies of rain clouds and clear weather was reported in most of the chilly belt.

Temperatures in the 30s were reported in some northern areas from Michigan to Maine. Frost warnings were posted for parts of New England and northeastern New York, with scattered frost indicated in Lower Michigan, northern Ohio and the deep valleys of western Pennsylvania.

In contrast to the unseasonable cool weather, it was warm in the northern Plains with early morning temperatures in the 70s after soaring to nearly 100 degrees Wednesday. The mercury for the third straight day hit the 100 mark in the arid Southwest. The 90 reading in Kansas City and the 89 in Casper, Wyo., Wednesday tied the record highs for the date.

Thundershowers fell in the Carolinas, in the southern tip of Texas, and in sections of the Lower Mississippi Valley. A cold front spread showers along the northern Pacific Coast.

Banquet Set For Future Unlimited

The ninth annual Future Unlimited banquet will be held tonight at the Palmer Room of the Antlers Hotel. The dinner and presentation of awards begins at 6:30 o'clock.

Program for the affair includes the presentation of adviser pins, officer awards, scholarships, and other honors to persons who participated in the Junior Achievement program in Colorado Springs.

Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the Reader's Digest Foundation Award to a local youngster who has played an important role in the JA program. The $300 award is one of seven presented in the United States.

All Kinds of Folks Are A Lot Happier Because They Use
Gazette Telegraph Classified Ads

Folks just like you have discovered how easy it is to solve problems with Classified Ads. They've rented rooms, hired dependable help, found their lost articles. And almost all of them have more and do more because they use result-getting Classified Ads to bring in a steady flow of extra cash by selling worthwhile things around their homes the minute they discover they're no longer being used or enjoyed.

Try it. It works! Go through your home today. Make a list of the no longer used items you find. Furniture, appliances, Hi-Fi, musical instruments, clothing, tools, toys. All these things and the others are worth good, hard cash to someone else.

When you have your list dial 632-4641 for a friendly Ad Writer. That's all there is to it. Your investment? It's low. Just $2.60 for a 10 word ad for 7 days.

Decide to join the "happy people" who are enthused about the amazing results Gazette Telegraph Classified Ads bring them. Get your fast-action Ad started today.

B-BUT HOW CAN "SNIFFLE" BLAME "UNCLE" JOE FOR HIS PUNK SON GETTIN' TH' WORST OF IT, TRYIN' T'KILL A COUPLE O' COPS?
"SNIFFLE" ISN'T A REASONIN' MAN!
5-21-64
'PEARS FOR TEN YEARS NOW, ANYTHING GOES WRONG, HE JUST NATALLY BLAMES JOE! SO TH' WORD IS HE'S PUT OUT A CONTRACT, AS THEY SAY, ON JOE!
TURNED IT OVER TO PROFESSIONAL KILLERS?
YEP! BUT FINDIN' JOE, UP IN THIS HIDEAWAY, MAY STUMP 'EM A BIT!
DON'T KID YERSELF, AL! NOBODY CAN HIDE FROM THOSE GUYS FOR LONG! THAT THING'S LOADED I HOPE!

THIS IS TOTALLY UNBELIEVABLE.
IT'S EASY TO SEE WHY THE CAMERAS FAILED. THEY WERE NEVER TURNED ON — LOOK.
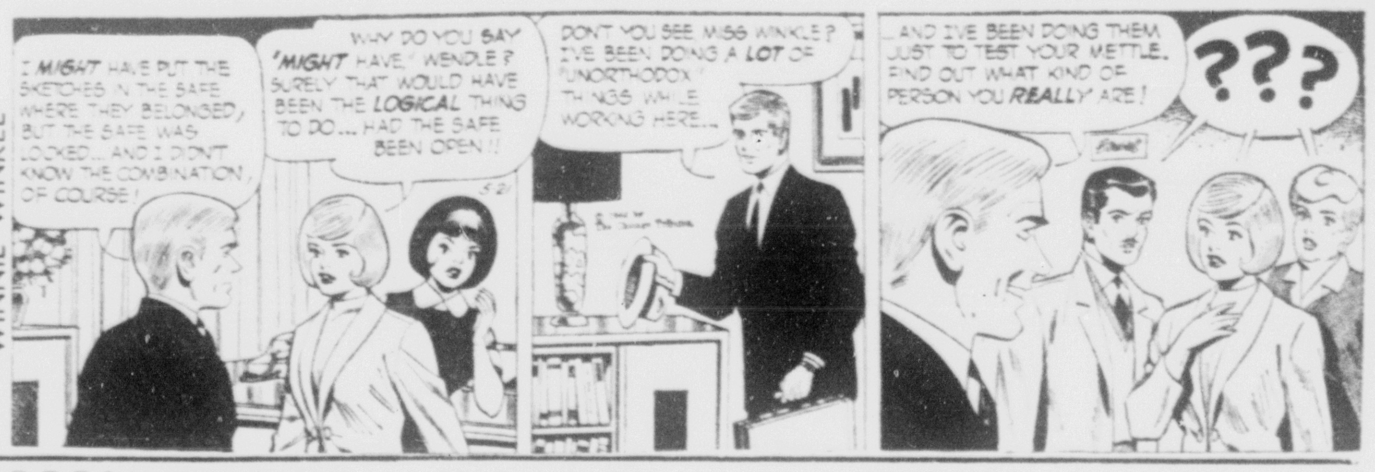
PEOPLE WON'T BELIEVE US.
OH, YES, THEY WILL. WE'RE GOING TO TAKE VITAL PARTS BACK WITH US



WINNIE WINKLE
I MIGHT HAVE PUT THE SKETCHES IN THE SAFE WHERE THEY BELONGED, BUT THE SAFE WAS LOCKED... AND I DIDN'T KNOW THE COMBINATION, OF COURSE!
WHY DO YOU SAY 'MIGHT HAVE,' WENDLE? SURELY THAT WOULD HAVE BEEN THE LOGICAL THING TO DO... HAD THE SAFE BEEN OPEN!!
5-21
DON'T YOU SEE, MISS WINKLE? I'VE BEEN DOING A LOT OF "UNORTHODOX" THINGS WHILE WORKING HERE...
© 1964 by The Chicago Tribune
...AND I'VE BEEN DOING THEM JUST TO TEST YOUR METTLE. FIND OUT WHAT KIND OF PERSON YOU REALLY ARE!

Teenagers Don't Like Breaking In on Beatles

CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS recently broke into a Beatle-ish [illegible] and roll act on the Red Skelton show with a news report on the Indiana primary vote. Its reward was a spate of furious mail from teenagers.

A carefully balanced report on the cigarette controversy brought forth amusing mail — about evenly divided between letters accusing the same program of being weighted on the anti-cigarette side and strongly favoring the tobacco interests.

Walter Cronkite appeared on Wednesday night's program to report ruefully that he had been accused of revealing Communist and fascist bias in letters from viewers of a single show. Harry Reasoner read a letter from an irritated viewer complaining about his pronunciation of several words including "water."

It was all part of an experimental network program called "Dear CBS," consisting of a sampling of its viewer mail — pleased, angry, critical and crank — and done in a good-humored fashion.

The program obviously is an effort to establish something in television comparable to the "letters to the editors" department of newspapers and magazines. Certainly it was interesting [illegible] and [illegible] be repeated from time to time.

The great comedienne Beatrice Lillie will visit Friday night's Jack Paar show (NBC, 10-11). And on Sunday, CBS's Jackie Gleason will finally change the format of his variety hour, even having Frank Fontaine playing a different character.

CBS plans to present a half-hour documentary series on World War I called "The Great War" on Tuesday nights next fall. It will use film shot during the 1918 period—silent, of course—supplemented by new material shot to amplify and explain events and reactions.

Pat Boone and comedian Woody Allen will serve as substitute program hosts on NBC's Johnny Carson show when Carson leaves on July 6 for three weeks to fill a Las Vegas nightclub date.

Lauritz Melchior Will Marry at 74

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Lauritz Melchior, 74, retired opera star, will be married on Saturday—two weeks before he leaves for the North Pole and a polar bear hunt.

Melchior and Mary Markham, 30, took out their marriage license Wednesday at Santa Monica and announced they would be wed at Melchior's nearby estate in a chapel built especially for the ceremony.

Miss Markham said they would fly to Hawaii for a honeymoon.

Then, boomed Melchior, "I'm going on a polar bear hunting expedition to the North Pole on June 5."

His bride, he said, will join him July 12 in New York City.

The bungalow type of dwelling originated in India.

Keeler Case Rocked Britain One Year Ago

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI) — The Speaker of the House of Commons nodded in the direction of the government bench and War Minister John Profumo [illegible] his feet.

The date was March 22 [illegible] and the curtain was [illegible] the [illegible]

The War Minister [illegible]

[illegible] Ward [illegible] meeting [illegible]

[illegible] government [illegible] feeling [illegible] Stephen Ward.

What [illegible] rumors [illegible] a minister was linked [illegible] Miss Keeler [illegible] apartment.

"I understand my name has been connected with the rumors," the War Minister said with a flick of his eyes towards the gallery where his beautiful wife, film star Valerie Hobson, sat.

"I would like to take this opportunity of making a personal statement about these matters."

A personal statement is a [illegible] in Parliament. By tradition it must be accepted as the absolute truth. It can't be challenged or debated.

Profumo denied he had had anything to do with Miss Keeler's flight to Spain. He said he and his wife had met her at the stately home of Lord Astor in July 1961 in a party which included Dr. Stephen Ward, a playboy artist and osteopath, and Capt. Eugene Ivanov, a Soviet naval attache.

When he sat down, MacMillan led the congratulations while Wigg and other Laborites, muzzled by the personal statement ruling, glowered across the chamber. Then Profumo went off to the races with his wife and Queen Mother Elizabeth.

The MacMillan government was convinced the time bomb was a dud. But it turned out to be a delayed action fuse which exploded in a series of chain reactions that almost toppled the Tory regime.

For Miss Keeler, scenting a windfall, began peddling a letter written to her by Profumo on official stationery.

[illegible] who had sketched members of the royal family, was getting nervous, too.

The society folk who patronized him as an osteopath were staying away because of reports Scotland Yard was interested in his exact relationship with Miss Keeler and another party girl, Mandy Rice-Davies, both of whom had used his apartment.

In mid-May Dr. Ward panicked and threatened the government. He said he would reveal that Profumo had committed adultery with Miss Keeler unless the inquiry into his activities was stopped.

On May 30, Labor leader Harold Wilson presented MacMillan with a dossier on the scandal collected by Labor M.P.'s.

That did it. On June 5, Profumo resigned in disgrace with the unprecedented admission that he had lied to the House of Commons in his personal statement. He also quit Parliament and asked Queen Elizabeth's permission to give up his place on the Privy Council which she granted [illegible] request [illegible]

At this point it looked as if Miss Keeler [illegible] Profumo [illegible]

[illegible] seeds of her own destruction as a witness in Criminal Court against an [illegible] her West Indian sweethearts, [illegible] "Lucky" Gordon.

The cast of characters was [illegible]

[illegible] where are they today [illegible]

Miss Keeler is in [illegible] was [illegible] sentence [illegible] perjury [illegible] she said [illegible] and beat her. She was tired of him and wanted [illegible] the way.

Gordon's three-year sentence was quashed by the Court of Criminal Appeal and he is back singing jazz in clubs frequented by Jamaicans.

Profumo and his wife live quietly here and abroad and are just beginning to pick up the threads of their social life. He runs a multi-million dollar [illegible] insurance company. Many of their friends remained loyal because they felt he had been stampeded by his party into a senseless lie.

Dr. Ward took poison July 31 during his trial on vice charges and died Aug. 3, not knowing he had been convicted of living on the immoral earnings of Miss Keeler and Miss Rice-Davies.

Mandy has been appearing in European night clubs and is rehearsing for her role in a film version of the bawdy novel "Fanny Hill."

[illegible] is serving seven years for shooting at Miss Keeler.

Ivanov is reported to be in Moscow, presumably awaiting reassignment.

MacMillan resigned Oct. 17. His departure followed a major operation and was not a result of the Profumo affair. But the weeks of strain and the dramatic debate on the scandal in the House of Commons in June — one of the tensest since the war — did his health no good.

As Lucky Gordon once said of his former mistress:

"That girl is nothing but trouble."

Boost in Negro Vote Sought For Georgians

ATLANTA (AP) — [illegible] Negro [illegible] State [illegible]

[illegible] Wednesday [illegible] the Senate [illegible] questions posed to illiterates.

But House Speaker George T. Smith predicted that it will be at least two weeks before his chamber will get the proposal.

The Senate [illegible] a third [illegible] amendment [illegible]

[illegible] The amendment was substituted for a section that required illiterates to answer 20 of 30 more difficult questions correctly.

Less than one per cent of the Negroes applying under the 30-question standard have been able to register, Johnson said.

Johnson's amendment included these questions: name the president of the U.S., the vice president, the two U.S. senators from Georgia, governor of Georgia, members of the General Assembly who represent you, and the sheriff of your county.

The questions now used include:

On what day and how often is the general election held in Georgia at which members of the General Assembly are elected; what is a republican form of government; how does the Constitution of the United States provide that it may be amended; what does the Constitution of the United States provide regarding the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus.

Smith declined to predict how the proposal might fare in the House but said: "I think the 30 questions are ridiculous and there should be some changes. I'm in favor of something along that line but I wouldn't want to be stuck with those exact questions before we get a chance to look at it."

However, the rural-dominated House probably will quickly return to the more stringent tests.

There was no estimate of the number of new Negro voters who would be able to register if the new set of questions is approved.

QUAD CALVES MAKE NEWS

OBER-ILLNAU, Switzerland (AP)—Quadruplet calves born in this farm village near Zurich have been the object of much pride and curiosity among natives and visitors. The three bulls in the group have been named Ami, Pius, and Paul, and the heifer is called Rageli.

Is it proper to call for Gordon's by name in English Pubs?

It's not a matter of being proper. It's unnecessary. For when most Englishmen ask for gin, they expect to get Gordon's. After all, its distinctive dryness and delicate flavour have been a part of English life for 195 years. Americans, however, have been enjoying Gordon's for a somewhat shorter span of time. So it is wise (and proper) to specify Gordon's by name. Your first sip of a Gordon's martini will tell you why it's the biggest selling gin over here as well as in England and the rest of the world.

Rival Gangs Battle In London Streets

LONDON (AP) — The Mods and Rockers, Britain's rival teenage cults, battled in main streets of at least 10 London suburbs Wednesday night. More than 50 youngsters were arrested.

Police used 40 dogs to break up a battle in Peckham.

Fighting between the Mods—short for moderns—and Rockers began during the Easter weekend and erupted in full force at South Coast resorts during last weekend's three-day Whitsun holiday.

The Mods won the battle of the beaches, and the Rockers are looking for revenge.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER DEMONSTRATION — A demonstration of putting out many different kinds of fires was made recently for foremen of City Street Department. Here Walter Banks is shown putting out a stubborn blaze in a burning tire as other supervisory personnel of the department watch. The demonstrations were conducted by Tim Miller, city safety engineer, and Roy Griffith, safety educator with the State Industrial Commission. The foremen will pass on the information received to other department employes. Safety on the job is becoming more and more of a by word for city workers.

Rocky Charges Demo Policy Is Bankrupt

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller accused the Democratic administration today of "bankruptcy" in its policies in Southeast Asia.

Such bankruptcy, he contended, may be blamed for recent Communist successes in jungle warfare.

Rockefeller accused the Democrats of "temporizing, neutralizing, tranquilizing and rationalizing" in the face of the crisis marked by the Communist push in the strategic Plaine des Jarres in Laos.

The New York governor, in a statement in the midst of a campaign tour for support in California's fast-approaching primary, warned that if Laos falls, Thailand will be next and it may shake Malaysia's ties with the West.

Rockefeller urged these steps:

1. That the United States insist the neutrality it negotiated for Laos be respected by all signatories, and that it should no longer tolerate the use of that country as a sanctuary for guerrilla action in South Viet Nam.

2. That the administration should make it clear it will support the territorial integrity of Thailand and should be prepared, if necessary, to offer U.S. military aid.

3. That if the Communist advance continues, the U.S. should move to secure the Mekong River Valley, the border between Laos and Thailand.

4. The U.S. should give "all practical support" to end the use of Laos as a sanctuary for the war in South Viet Nam.

Rockefeller said these actions might include immediate warnings that South Vietnamese planes would bomb Viet Cong supply lines in Laos unless that country quits allowing guerrillas to operate from there.

"It is high time," Rockefeller said, "the Democratic administration in Washington learns that the aggressor will never choose a point of attack where it is most convenient for us to respond."

It is time, too, he said, to "close the leadership gap in Washington and to end the retreat of freedom in the world."

Rockefeller, commenting that you fight a little harder when you're behind, continued his charging drive today to pull off another Oregon victory in California.

Keeler Case Rocked Britain One Year Ago

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI)—The Speaker of the House of Commons nodded in the direction of the government bench and War Minister John Profumo rose to his feet.

The date was March 22, 1963, and the curtain was about to host sensational political scandal of the century.

The War Minister, slender, elegant, very rich, looked tired. What the house did not know then was that he had been summoned from bed to a meeting and cross-examined about his relations with a red-haired call girl, Christine Keller.

He had been up most of the night—but so had others of his colleagues in the MacMillan government. There was the feeling they were all sitting on a time bomb as the result of a remark thrown into debate by laborite George Wigg.

Wigg had obliquely mentioned rumors that a minister was linked to the failure of Miss Keller to appear as a witness against John Edgecombe, one of her Negro lovers accused of trying to shoot his way into her apartment.

"I understand my name has been connected with the rumors," the War Minister said with a flick of his eyes towards the gallery where his beautiful wife, film star Valerie Hobson, sat.

"I would like to take this opportunity of making a personal statement about these matters."

"A 'personal statement'" is a high privilege only infrequently claimed in Parliament. By tradition it must be accepted as the absolute truth. It cannot be challenged or debated.

Profumo denied he had had anything to do with Miss Keeler's flight to Spain. He said he and his wife had met her at the stately home of Lord Astor in July, 1961, in a party which included Dr. Stephen Ward, a playboy artist and osteopath, and Capt. Eugene Ivanov, a Soviet naval attache.

When he sat down, MacMillan led the congratulations while Wigg and other Laborites, muzzled by the personal statement ruling, glowered across the chamber. Then Profumo went off to the races with his wife and Queen Mother Elizabeth.

The MacMillan government was convinced the time bomb was a dud. But it turned out to be a delayed action fuse which exploded in a series of chain reactions that almost toppled the Tory regime.

For Miss Keeler, scenting a windfall, began peddling a letter written to her by Profumo on official stationery.

who had sketched members of the royal family, was getting nervous, too.

The society folk who patronized him as an osteopath were staying away because of reports Scotland Yard was interested in his exact relationship with Miss Keeler and another party girl, Mandy Rice-Davies, both of whom had used his apartment.

In mid-May, Dr. Ward panicked and threatened the government. He said he would reveal that Profumo had committed adultery with Miss Keeler unless the inquiry into his activities was stopped.

On May 30, Labor leader Harold Wilson presented MacMillan with a dossier on the scandal collected by Labor M.P.'s.

That did it. On June 5, Profumo resigned in disgrace with the unprecedented admission that he had lied to the House of Commons in his personal statement. He also quit Parliament and asked Queen Elizabeth's permission to give up his place on the Privy Council which advises her—a request so rare as to be historic.

At this point it looked as if Miss Keeler, a country girl whose sordid career started at 16, would be the only one to come out of the affair with any profits—the $80,000 she was estimated to have made on her memoirs. But by coincidence, on the very day Profumo resigned, she was planting the seeds of her own destruction as a witness in Criminal Court against another of her West Indian sweethearts, Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon.

The cast of characters was now complete.

And where are they today—a year later?

Miss Keeler is in Holloway Prison serving a nine-month sentence for perjuring herself when she said Gordon kicked and beat her. She was tired of him and wanted him out of the way.

Gordon's three-year sentence was quashed by the Court of Criminal Appeal and he is back singing jazz in clubs frequented by Jamaicans.

Profumo and his wife live quietly here and abroad and are just beginning to pick up the threads of their social life. He runs a multi million dollar family insurance company. Many of their friends remained loyal because they felt he had been stampeded by his party into a senseless lie.

Dr. Ward took poison July 31 during his trial on vice charges and died Aug. 3, not knowing he had been convicted of living on the immoral earnings of Miss Keeler and Miss Rice-Davies.

Mandy has been appearing in European night clubs and is rehearsing for her role in a film version of the bawdy novel "Fanny Hill."

Edgecombe is serving seven years for shooting at Miss Keeler.

Ivanov is reported to be in Moscow presumably awaiting reassignment.

MacMillan resigned Oct. 17. His departure followed a major operation and was not a result of the Profumo affair. But the weeks of strain and the dramatic debate on the scandal in the House of Commons in June—one of the tensest since the war—did his health no good.

As Lucky Gordon once said of his former mistress:

"That girl is nothing but trouble."

Boost in Negro Vote Sought For Georgians

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A proposed change in election laws that could add thousands of Negroes to Georgia's voter rolls by making it easier to register has been steered through the State Senate by its lone Negro member.

An amendment offered by Sen. Leroy Johnson of Atlanta—the only Negro lawmaker in Georgia since Reconstruction, was approved Wednesday by the Senate 35-2. It would simplify questions posed to illiterates.

But House Speaker George T. Smith predicted that it will be at least two weeks before his chamber will get the proposal.

The Senate is not yet a third of the way through the long election code revision, which now includes Johnson's amendment, and the House also must finish work on a proposed new state constitution before taking up the new election rules.

The Johnson amendment provides that registrars approve prospective voters who answer correctly four of six comparatively easy questions. The amendment was substituted for a section that required illiterates to answer 20 of 30 more difficult questions correctly.

Less than one per cent of the Negroes applying under the 30-question standard have been able to register, Johnson said.

Johnson's amendment included these questions: name the president of the U.S.; the vice president; the two U.S. senators from Georgia; governor of Georgia; members of the General Assembly who represent you, and the sheriff of your county.

The questions now used include:

On what day and how often is the general election held in Georgia at which members of the General Assembly are elected; what is a republican form of government; how does the Constitution of the United States provide that it may be amended; what does the Constitution of the United States provide regarding the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus.

Smith declined to predict how the proposal might fare in the House, but said, "I think the 30 questions are ridiculous and there should be some changes. I'm in favor of something along that line, but I wouldn't want to be stuck with those exact questions before we get a chance to look at it."

However, the rural-dominated House probably will quickly return to the more stringent tests.

There was no estimate of the number of new Negro voters who would be able to register if the new set of questions is approved.

Good Literature Still Is Read, Probers Claim

By G. K. HODENFIELD

WASHINGTON (AP)— Comic books, television and other forms of instant culture notwithstanding, American high school students still are getting substantial exposure to good literature.

That's the conclusion to be drawn from a recent survey by the Educational Testing Service. ETS asked 691 public, Roman Catholic and independent high schools across the country what major works of literature they offer their students.

Shakespeare, in this 400th anniversary of his birth, had the two top entries in all three categories of schools—"Macbeth" and "Julius Caesar."

The most popular works of literature in the public schools, those taught in at least 30 per cent of the schools surveyed, are: "Macbeth" 90 per cent, "Julius Caesar" 77, "Silas Marner" 76, "Our Town" 46, "Great Expectations" 39, "Hamlet" 33, "The Red Badge of Courage" and "A Tale of Two Cities" 33, and "The Scarlet Letter" 32.

In the Catholic schools the most popular are: "Macbeth," 96 per cent, "Julius Caesar" 83, "The Merchant of Venice" 80, "Silas Marner" 60, "The Red Badge of Courage" 51, "A Tale of Two Cities" 48, "Great Expectations" and "Hamlet" 44, "Our Town" 38, "The Scarlet Letter" 37 and "Pride and Prejudice" 32.

In the independent schools: "Macbeth" 89 per cent, "Julius Caesar" 78, "Hamlet" 66, "The Scarlet Letter" 50, "A Tale of Two Cities" and "Huckleberry Finn" 47, "Silas Marner" 45, "Great Expectations" 44, "The Merchant of Venice" and "The Odyssey" 43, "Oedipus the King" 38, "The Red Badge of Courage" 37, "Romeo and Juliet" 36, "Return of the Native" 34, and "Pride and Prejudice" 31.

Lauritz Melchior Will Marry at 74

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Lauritz Melchior, 74, retired opera star, will be married on Saturday—two weeks before he takes off for the North Pole and a polar bear hunt.

Melchior and Mary Markham, 40, took out their marriage license Wednesday at Santa Monica and announced they would be wed at Melchior's nearby estate in a chapel built especially for the ceremony.

Miss Markham said they would fly to Honolulu for a honeymoon.

"Then," boomed Melchior, "I'm going on a polar bear hunting expedition to the North Pole on June 5."

His bride, he said, will join him July 12 in New York City.

The bungalow type of dwelling originated in India.

Is it proper to call for Gordon's by name in English Pubs?
It's not a matter of being proper. It's unnecessary. For when most Englishmen ask for gin, they expect to get Gordon's. After all, its distinctive dryness and delicate flavour have been a part of English life for 195 years. Americans, however, have been enjoying Gordon's for a somewhat shorter span of time. So it is wise (and proper) to specify Gordon's by name. Your first sip of a Gordon's martini will tell you why it's the biggest selling gin over here as well as in England and the rest of the world.

Egyptians Race To Convert Desert to Farm

By DAVID BISHAI

CAIRO (UPI) — The United Arab Republic, which has only 7 million acres of fertile land to feed a population of 27 million, is engaged in an ambitious race to reclaim land from the desert at least as fast as the population increases.

The outcome is still uncertain, but if all goes as planned the country should have an additional 5 million acres by 1972, when the population is expected to reach 30 million or more.

The most highly publicized of the land reclamation projects is the Aswan High Dam, which will provide an additional 2 million acres by 1968.

Other schemes are under way from the barren western desert to the Nile valley.

Egypt is four-fifths desert but the country can hope to salvage a maximum of 25 to 30 million acres of it. The rest is unmanageable because of rocky terrain, excessive salt content or lack of subterranean water.

One of the reclamation schemes already giving results is the long-heralded Liberation Province project, designed to cultivate 150,000 acres west of the Nile delta. Lack of experience delayed the project beyond schedule, but now 50,000 acres are yielding crops in the province and the rest should begin producing within three or four years.

Then there is the scheme by which Egypt hopes to create a new valley in the western desert that would run parallel to the Nile valley, eventually link up with it and provide 2 million new acres of arable land.

So far, 32,000 acres in the new valley have been reclaimed and are giving food. The entire project is scheduled for completion in 1972.

In the Nile valley, or along its fringes, another 505,000 acres have been reclaimed.

At the Salhai desert, south of Port Said between the Suez Canal and the Nile delta, a project for reclaiming 312,000 acres is underway. The government also is draining parts of the northen lakes along the Mediterranean and hopes to get 278,500 acres cultivated there after the soil has been sufficiently desalinized.

With technical help and financial assistance from the United States, Egypt has reclaimed 38,000 acres along the fringes of Fayyoum and Buheira provinces in lower Egypt. Called the Ibis project, this aims at ultimately reclaiming 80,000 acres.

At Wadi El Natroun, south of El Alamein where the famed World War II battle took place, 8,500 acres were reclaimed simply by digging a few artesian wells. The success of this experiment encouraged the government to probe further into the desert and encourage nomadic Bedouins to settle down and take up agriculture. Engineers dug 843 new wells south of the Mediterranean coast in the western desert and the government gave them free of charge to interested Bedouins. The result is 10,000 new arable acres and many thousands more expected if enough Bedouins go for the idea.

Along with increasing the cultivated area, Egypt is trying to reach maximum yield in every acre already cultivated. Mechanization has largely replaced the Pharaonic-old tools still used by peasants for irrigation and tilling. Cooperatives have been set up in most rural areas to help peasants with small ownership give better attention to their acres.

The nuclear research center at Inshass has been experimenting with radioactive cobalt and exposing various species of plant to gamma rays in an effort to get better products. And the 1964 budget for agriculture is 660 million pounds ($1,518,000,000) an all-time high and nearly 10 times as much as Egypt's entire budget in the years preceding the revolution.

Egypt imports wheat, meat and other products from the United States, the Sudan, Yugoslavia, Somalia, Communist China and Japan. This costs hard currency, of which Egypt is in short supply.

Also, President Gamal Abdel Nasser wants to depend on imports as little as possible.

Even with completion of the projects now under way, Egypt would still need to import food, although much less perhaps than it does today—unless population growth wipes out the gains from the land reclamation projects.

This is what has government officials worried and convinces them that land reclamation is not the ultimate solution to the problem.

The only effective solution to the food problem, in the view of government authorities, is effective birth control. Concentrated government efforts so far, particularly in rural areas have given slight results.

But officials hope that time and education will help convince the fellah to do some family planning.

NEED LONGER REST

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—"Thirty days," said Circuit Court Judge John J. Sullivan Jr. to Michael Gurn, 78, who had pleaded guilty to intoxication.

"Just a minute, your honor," said Gurn. "I don't feel good and I can't walk. I'd like to ask for 60."

The startled judge agreed to revise the sentence.

NO TRESPASSING

In primitive areas of New Guinea, roads serve as neutral ground between warring tribes and natives walk in the exact center of the road to avoid trespassing.

U.S. Carrier Raised From Saigon Harbor

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The U.S. aircraft carrier Card was nudged down the Saigon River by American tugs today, 18 days after she was sunk by the Communist Viet Cong. Departure of the 9,800-ton World War II baby flattop was a carefully guarded secret.

"We didn't want the Viet Cong to have another crack at her," an American spokesman said.

The Card presumably is going to the United States for repairs.

The Card was raised from Saigon harbor several days after an explosive ripped a hole in her side below the waterline. The hole was temporarily patched and the water was pumped out to refloat the vessel, which was being used to ferry aircraft.

A Vietnamese confessed from his hospital bed that he threw the grenade which wounded himself and eight Americans the day the Card was sunk, security sources said. His confession led to the arrest of four other Vietnamese.

Informants said the Vietnamese rode past on a bicycle and tossed the grenade into a group of Americans strolling in downtown Saigon. It went off before he could get out of reach and shrapnel wounded him in the legs.

Six of the American victims have been released from the hospital after treatment for shrapnel wounds. Two others were sent to Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines for further traatment.

'Penalty' Plan Is Proposed for Contract Talks

BERNE, Ind. (AP)—An agreement that could cost union members up to six weeks' pay and management a comparable amount if they let future negotiations collapse was ready today for final signature.

The contract, called the first of its kind in the history of collective bargaining, is to be signed in New York Thursday by Harold D. Sprunger, president of the Dunbar Furniture Corp. of Berne, and Sal B. Hoffman, president of the Upholsterers' International Union.

Local union and management officals signed the agreement in Berne Tuesday. Present wage scales were not disclosed.

Dunbar employs about 300 workers, 70 per cent of them union members. The only strike at the plant, in 1959, was settled one day short of six weeks.

This is the way the contract works:

For a period up to 12 weeks beginning with the start of negotiations, 50 per cent of employes' wages and a matching amount from company funds will be paid to the First Bank of Berne, which will donate its services.

If agreement is reached within six weeks, all the money held by the bank is returned. If a settlement is arrived at within nine weeks the payoff is 75 per cent. Up to 11 weeks it drops to 50 per cent, the 12th week to 25 per cent.

If the 12-week period expires without an agreement all the money goes to a community or charitable project, with the Berne Ministerial Association to determine the recipient if union and management cannot agree.

After 12 weeks the union may strike or the company may impose a lockout, but only after giving advance notice. Otherwise the previous agreement is renewed automatically for one year.

Sprunger said the agreement would take the consumer out of the middle in industrial disputes by requiring workers to stay on the job while bargaining continues.

Credit for development of the plan was given to the late Lynn W. Beman, labor consultant for the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers.

South Viet Nam Wants Cambodia Peace Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A South Vietnamese spokesman at the United Nations says his government wants border talks with Cambodia and would welcome U.N. help to arrange them.

Pham Khac Rau, charge d'affaires of the South Vietnamese Embassy in Washington, stated this position in an interview Tuesday night after the Security Council opened debate on a charge by Cambodia that South Vietnamese raids across its border constituted aggression by South Viet Nam and the United States.

Rau denied the aggression charge. He said the border incidents arose because the Viet Cong Communists fighting to overthrow his government "have been able to use Cambodian territory as their sanctuary."

Rau said his government wanted to "remove the causes of these border incidents."

"We have offered several times to have bilateral conversations with the Cambodian government to that effect," he said, "and we are ready to cooperate fully with the Security Council in order to find a peaceful solution to the past incidents."

South Viet Nam's Foreign Ministry issued a communique in Saigon today accusing Cambodia of failing to cooperate in settling the dispute.

South Viet Nam sent a delegation to Cambodia last March to discuss the border situation, but the negotiations collapsed after South Vietnamese planes attacked the Cambodian village of Chantrea on March 19 and killed 17 inhabitants. South Viet Nam apologized for the attack and said it occurred during aerial pursuit of guerrillas.

With the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia voting no, the Security Council voted 9-2 Tuesday to let South Viet Nam join in the debate. The Saigon government first must send credentials authorizing a representative to speak for it since South Viet Nam is not a member of the U.N.

The debate was recessed until Thursday to await word from Saigon.

The U.S. post office at Penasse, Minn., was the northernmost in the United States before Alaska's admission to the Union.

Red China Will Take Only One Step in Laos

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

If Red China is trying to prove that the United States is a paper tiger in Laos, a confused and dangerous world uproar is in the making.

Chances are the Red Chinese will not venture quite that far. It could make the prospects extremely uncomfortable for the United States and the Soviet Union, but Red China's strategy is a ste-by-step affair.

Peking probably holds the key to what is going to happen in the mixed-up, tortured little Indochinese kingdom. The Communist North Vietnamese now are in the Laotian act with a bang and, in the matter of pushing forward the violent world revolution, Peking is calling the shots for North Viet Nam's Ho Chi Minh.

The critical question is how far the Communist-led Pathet Lao plans to advance.

It has been headed toward the Laotian administrative capital at Vientiane controlled by the right-wing forces, and the Mekong River border with Thailand. Should the Communist march get too close, the United States could hardly let the threat to Thailand go unchallenged, any more than it did two years ago when 6,000 American Marines and airmen were hustled to Thailand to counter a Communist threat to the Mekong frontier.

The Communists are not likely to cross the Mekong. Their approach to it is enough to instill fear in the Thai government, a member of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Like the war in South Viet Nam and other Red Chinese enterprises, the Pathet Lao drive fits in with Mao Tze-tung's strategy of nibbling away, of "defeating U.S. imperialism piecemeal."

Lacking an effective challenge to the nibbling away process, the United States faces the prospect of being driven out of Southeast Asia completely.

HELD FOR JURY

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — A sailor today faced grand jury action in the death of his year-old son police said died of internal injuries and a broken neck.

Alan Leroy Anderson, 22, was ordered held for the grand jury Friday in the death last weekend of his son. Police accused Anderson of beating the infant to make him stop crying.

Reply

No. Rheumatoid arthritis is more likely to occur in young persons.

Dental Films

Mrs. C. R. writes: Is it harmful for a 7-year-old child to have yearly X-rays of the teeth?

Reply

No, but annual X-rays may not be needed unless the youngster has an unusual dental problem.

BE ALERT TO BREAST "LUMPS"

Cancer of the breast continues to kill 25,000 annually. It is the leading cause of death among women between 40 and 60. What is the solution to this problem? Self-examination of the breast once a month and consulting the family physician when an abnormality is found.

Self-examination is ideal for women who are tumor conscious. The more alert find these lesions sooner. The woman who is not breast conscious may fail to feel a tumor until it is 6 to 12 months old. Further delay may follow, especially by those who are jittery or believe all cancers are incurable.

Others dislike running to the physician with every little ailment, including a small breast tumor. The sensible seek treatment at once because the chance of complete recovery is good if the growth has not spread beyond the breast.

X-ray (mammography) also has been suggested as a method of detecting the condition, especially in stout women. Time will tell whether this procedure can be adapted to mass cancer detection.

Removal is the best treatment. The breast and glands in the armpit are dissected away when microscopic examination reveals a malignancy. X-ray therapy may be given over the area to eliminate any stray cells that might have been missed. Various drugs, hormones, and chemicals slow the growth of the tumor and prolong life, even in advanced cancer.

A relationship exists between female sex hormones (estrogen) and breast cancer; they encourage multiplication of the cancer cells. When these hormones no longer are secreted, improvement occurs. Removal of ovaries, adrenal glands, and the pituitary at the base of the brain is recommended occasionally. Now and then testosterone is given to neutralize the effects of estrogen.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

Shaking Palsy

A. E. writes: Are palsy and parkinsonism one and the same?

Reply

There are different types of palsy. In the past, parkinsonism was called shaking palsy or paralysis agitans. The word paralysis was used in ancient Greece in the broad sense to denote loss of strength or disabling of the limbs.

Nausea From Odor

Mrs. J. B. writes: My son stayed overnight at his chum's house. He came home next day nauseated and he said the room where he slept had smelled of mothballs. Could this have caused his discomfort?

Reply

Yes. Some people are overly sensitive to odors. Poisoning usually stems from eating mothballs but the odor is harmless.

Young Arthritic

L. H. writes: I'm 23 and my fingers are stiff and swollen when I wake up in the morning. Isn't arthritis unusual at my age?

Reply

No. Rheumatoid arthritis is more likely to occur in young persons.

One-Day Walkout Planned in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Construction unions plan a one-day work stoppage and a demonstration at a federal project in New York City on May 28.

Peter J. Brennan, president of the New York Building and Construction Trades Council, said Tuesday it will call attention to the use of nonunion labor at the project and to growing unemployment in construction trades.

He estimated that 10 per cent of the city's 210,000 building trades workers are idle.

The contractor for the federal project, which involves alterations to the U.S. Courthouse on Foley Square, denied that nonunion men were working there.

SUPERINTENDENT'S "STAND-IN" — Air Force Reserve Maj. Gen. John B. Montgomery, Mobilization Assistant to Air Force Academy Superintendent Maj. Gen. Robert H. Warren, discusses operation of the Cadet Wing with its commander, Cadet Col. Trusten A. McArtor. Gen. Montgomery just completed a two-week's active duty tour at the Academy. The general's assignment during his yearly duty tour, and in case of mobilization, is the same — to assist the Superintendent in all phases of Academy operation. Gen. Montgomery is president of the Daystrom Corp., Murray Hill, N. J. (Air Force Photo)

Storm Clouds Reported in Baker Probe

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Storm clouds appeared to be closing in today on the proposed report on the Senate's Bobby Baker investigation.

The Rules Committee, which conducted the probe into the affairs of the former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, called a meeting to discuss the draft report, but apparently only Democrats were to be on hand.

Republican members sent word they probably wouldn't make it because they have to attend a Republican senatorial conference on proposed amendments to the civil rights bill.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., one of the committee's three GOP members, said he was sure the Republicans will draft a minority report protesting any conclusion that an exhaustive investigation has been carried out.

Balked in their efforts to have White House aide Walter Jenkins and others called as witnesses at the hearings, Republicans have cried "whitewash."

Democrats have accused the Republicans of trying to keep the investigation going in hopes of making political hay before the November elections.

Despite the likely absence of the Republicans, Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., decided to go ahead with a discussion among the Democratic members of the findings and recommendations as drawn up by special counsel L. P. McLendon.

Jordan said in an interview that he regards the draft report as well done, although he said he does not agree with it fully. He declined to pinpoint where he disagreed.

McLendon's draft, which was leaked to the press two days ago, condemned as "gross improprieties" Baker's money-making deals while on the Senate payroll.

But it said the Senate could not escape blame for putting Baker and others in places of responsibility without imposing on them "enforceable standards of honesty and integrity."

Deaths

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—Warren P. McGoldrick, 53, an associate attorney for the Hearst Corp.'s legal department for 30 years, died Tuesday.

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur H. Bunker, 68, retired chairman of American Metal Climax, died Tuesday. He was a past president of the Climax Molybdenum Co., one of the largest producers of the metal that is used to toughen steel. Bunker, brother of Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to the Organization of American States, was born in Yonkers, N.Y.

COLLAPSING COLOSSEUM

After withstanding nearly 2,000 years of earthquakes and plunder, Rome's famous Colosseum now is threatened by vibrations from motor vehicles and Rome has restricted traffic around it, inserting steel bars into weakened walls and columns.

Bob Kennedy Says He Has No Other Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says he has had conversations about the possibility of running for the U.S. Senate from New York next fall but, "All things being equal it would be better for a citizen of New York to run for the position."

Kennedy told a news conference Tuesday that friends had raised the possibility of his seeking Democratic nomination to the Senate.

"I have no plans other than staying on as attorney general until after the November election," he said.

New York Democrats are looking for a candidate to oppose Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating in November.

Congress Needs More Time, Monroney Says

By WILBUR MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — "This is one year you really should have time to give everything a good hard look," Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., said today. "But it's going to be hard to do."

He was talking about money. The money Congress is asked to appropriate each year to finance government operation and programs.

"It just doesn't look like we're going to have the time we need."

Monroney is a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee and chairman of a subcommittee of this group.

The Senate has been tied up for 11 weeks in debate on the civil rights bill, and there's a logjam of legislation swiftly building.

Appropriations bills, in particular. The House has passed seven. The Senate committees haven't even got through a quick look at most.

"We need two weeks," Monroney said. "If the Senate would give us two weeks, or let the appropriations committees meet during the time the Senate is in session."

Unanimous consent has been given to do this in years past, but not this time.

While the Senate considers the civil rights bill daily, no committee can meet. Some of them have been trying to get in sessions of an hour or two before the gong rings in the chamber.

The government's money year closes June 30. A number of authorized programs also run out.

If the Senate legislative machinery is still silent by the time this happens, no government worker is going to miss a paycheck. It's happened before, and Congres usually authorizes by resolution continued spending at the same rate as the previous year.

But there are a good many branches of government which say they need more money this year to provide the same or expanded services.

"Don't forget, we'll need at least a week, maybe a week and a half of floor debate even after these appropriations bills get out of committee," Monroney said.

"I don't know when we'll get a chance on the money bills," Monroney said, "but I'll bet we'll be back here after the Republican convention—in mid-July—and probably after the Democratic convention—in late August."

Survivor of Ship Disaster Reaches Long Beach

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — "Oh, God, I love you, honey. I'm glad you're safe."

At this greeting, Randi Schjeldrup fell into the embrace of her Aunt Josephine after the nightmarish burning of a ship at sea, in which one died and nine others were missing.

Mrs. Schjeldrup, 29, her three small children and her husband, Sindre, were among 45 survivors from the Norwegian freighter Sandanger, on which Schjeldrup was chief engineer.

The 45 arrived here Tuesday night aboard their rescue ship, the German freighter Bodenstein.

The Bodenstein raced to aid the stricken Sandanger in the predawn hours Monday, less than an hour after the Sandanger was ripped by an explosion that ignited her cargo of baled cotton and wood pulp. The Bodenstein's crew plucked the survivors from liferafts near the burning ship.

As the rescue ship eased into port, the Sandanger was reported listing and sinking, still ablaze, 20 miles off the coast of Baja California, Mexico, 450 miles south of Long Beach.

Unknown was the fate of the ship's captain, John Kellmer, two stewardesses and six California passengers. The body of one woman passenger, tentatively identified as Juanita M. Benoy, 57, Alamo, Calif., was pulled from the sea by a Japanese ship, the Boston Maru.

Repeated explosions and the intense heat from flames have held up attempts to board the Sandanger to search for the nine missing.

They apparently were trapped in their cabins on the second deck amidships, said Relv Kruger, Sandanger second officer.

The cause of the explosions is not known.

Gauchos, or South American cowboys, played an important part in the development of Argentina and Uruguay.

Congress Needs More Time, Monroney Says

By WILBUR MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — "This is one year you really should have time to give everything a good hard look," Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., said today. "But it's going to be hard to do."

He was talking about money. The money Congress is asked to appropriate each year to finance government operation and programs.

"It just doesn't look like we're going to have the time we need."

Monroney is a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee and chairman of a subcommittee of this group.

The Senate has been tied up for 11 weeks in debate on the civil rights bill, and there's a jam of legislation swiftly building.

Appropriations bills in particular. The House has passed seven. The Senate committees [illegible] even got through a quick [illegible]

"We're [illegible] weeks," Monroney said. "[illegible] the Senate would [illegible] weeks [illegible] the appropriations committees meet during the time the Senate is in session."

Survivor of Ship Disaster Reaches Long Beach

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — [illegible] I love you [illegible] [illegible] safe."

At this greeting Rand[illegible] [illegible] into the embrace of [illegible] after the [illegible] burning of a ship [illegible] sea in which one died and [illegible] were missing.

[illegible] among 45 [illegible] the Norwegian [illegible] Sandanger [illegible] was [illegible] engineer.

[illegible] arrived here Tuesday [illegible] rescue ship, [illegible] freighter B[illegible]

The B[illegible] raced to aid [illegible] Sandanger in the [illegible] hours Monday, less than an hour after the Sandanger was ripped by an explosion [illegible] cargo of baled [illegible] and wood pulp. The B[illegible] crew picked the survivors from lifeboats near the burning ship.

As the rescue ship eased into [illegible] the Sandanger was reported listing and sinking, still ablaze, 20 miles off the coast of Baja California, Mexico, 450 miles south of Long Beach.

Unknown was the fate of the ship's captain, John Kellmer, two stewardesses and six California passengers. The body of one woman passenger, tentatively identified as Juanita M. Beney, 57, Alamo, Calif., was pulled from the sea by a Japanese ship, the Boston Maru.

Repeated explosions and the intense heat from flames have held up attempts to board the Sandanger to search for the nine missing.

They apparently were trapped in their cabins on the second deck amidships, said Relv Kruger, Sandanger second officer.

The cause of the explosions is not known.

Gauchos or South American cowboys played an important part in the development of Argentina and Uruguay.

Ernest Truex Does Not Feel Like Patriarch

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "With actors like Charles Coburn and Edmund Gwenn gone now, people look to me as a patriarch," said Ernest Truex. "But I don't feel like a patriarch."

For proof, he patted his flat stomach and flexed the muscles of his calf. "Exercise is what does it," he said. "I'm a nut about golf, I love to fish, and I work among my avocado trees. I'm good for a few more years."

So impressed was Universal that the studio wanted Truex to mark his 70 years as an actor by riding a lion. Truex is appearing in "Fluffy," with Tony Randall, Shirley Jones and an overgrown tabby named Zamba. The script called for Truex to demonstrate the lion's gentleness by riding it down a trailer ramp.

"You'll have to get yourselves another boy," said Truex. A stunt man was ordered, and his leg was scraped badly on the door of the trailer.

Truex is known to movie audiences as the fussy, often henpecked character of dozens of film comedies. The typing is unfair and unfortunate, since he is one of the theater's most versatile actors.

He relishes telling the story of how his career started. How his doctor-father treated a ham actor stranded in Kansas City. How the ham paid his fee by teaching young Ernest soliloquies from "Hamlet."

"I made my debut in 1894 at the age of 5—the youngest Hamlet in the American theater," he said.

After his parents' divorce, his mother took him and a girl on tour as a pint-sized Romeo and Juliet. At 11, he had graduated to the Elitch's Gardens Playhouse in Denver and by 17 he was ready to assault Broadway. That was his starvation period, but in 1908 he landed a role as a jockey in "Wildfire" with Lillian Russell.

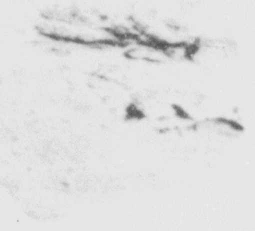
Fifty-three plays followed over the years, including two-year runs in such shows as "Lysistrata," "Six-Cylinder Love" and "Very Good Eddie." He took "The Fall Guy" to London in 1925 and stayed five years in a variety of plays.

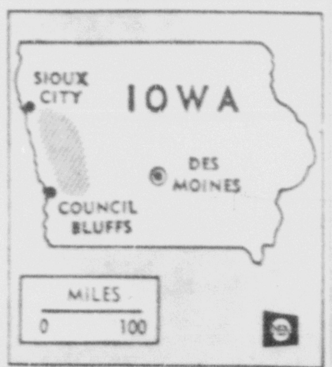
His movie career started 50 years ago. He had been playing on Broadway in "Good Little Devil" with a girl named Mary Pickford. They were offered a chance to make it as a film for Adolph Zukor's new company.

He made a few other early films but devoted himself mostly to the theater. Later he returned to talkies and he counts that period the low point in his career.

"My first wife had died and I married a younger girl, which was a mistake," he said. "I stayed here too long, taking whatever parts I could get. It was the first time I hadn't been a star."

Television helped him turn the corner, he said. Now he picks and chooses, spending his non-working time at the avocado ranch he shares with third wife Sylvia Field at Fallbrook, Calif.





MOON STONE HUNT—"Project Moon Harvest"—a hunt for unusual stones that might be chips knocked off the moon by "shooting stars"—is being conducted in Iowa during the spring plowing season. Federal officials say the lunar fragments may provide clues to the exact make-up of the moon's surface, information which space engineers would like to know before designing landing mechanisms for space ships. Farmers and school children are hunting for moonstones in an area between Council Bluffs and Sioux City.

SIGNAL FOR BLIND—This is one of the new traffic lights for the use of blind persons that has been installed at Gedera, Israel, near Tel Aviv. Some 150 residents of the nearby Malben Village for the Blind have been given keys to traffic light standards. A bell rings to tell the blind person when he can cross safely and the bell continues to ring as he crosses.

Reruns Take Over Against Nation's TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Reruns have pretty well taken over the nation's television screens and the 1963-64 season has just about run its course.

The season will be well remembered for the coverage of the terrible events that started when shots rang out in Dallas on Nov. 22.

But it may be a memorable year in TV history for another reason: Negro performers began to turn up frequently in leading, supporting and extra roles in television dramas, and the sponsors began using Negroes in their commercials.

"East Side, West Side," which was canceled after a season, had a young Negro actress as a prominent regular in the cast. One of the teachers in "Mr. Novak's" high school was a Negro and the series was renewed for another season.

There were Negro nurses in "The Nurses'" hospital and "Dr. Kildare" had a difficult case involving the [illegible] of a Negro [illegible].

Reginald Rose, creator and in charge of scripts for "The Defenders," which has always used Negro performers as principal characters—judges, [illegible] and defendants—said recently that although the situation had improved enormously in this area, there was still a way [illegible]

He said he did not feel free to [illegible] a Negro in a [illegible] and suggested that [illegible] the Negro's [illegible] would [illegible] complaints from the sensitive.

It seems that New York has [illegible] of its few dramatic shows. The series moved to the West Coast after a local union strike shut down production.

Plautus Productions President Herbert Brodkin said on Monday that "The Defenders" and "The Nurses" would be produced in Hollywood indefinitely. Tuesday, however, a vice president said both shows would return to New York after shooting one episode each in Hollywood. "The sudden uprooting of the cast" was the principal reason given for the sudden change of mind—plus a promise of union cooperation.

The two-network boycott of next Monday's Emmy Awards show on NBC is not expected to interfere much, if any, with the star-gazing aspects of the program, usually the most interesting part. NBC expects all nominees for awards—or their chosen alternates if they are unable to get there—except for 13 ABC and CBS employes nominated in news, public affairs or documentary categories.

DOLL BIRTHDAY

Little girls always like to copy their mothers, so why don't you let your child give birthday parties for her "children"—her dolls. Have your child mark down the date she received the doll and when the anniversary rolls around she can give her very own party. This will make her take better care of her dolls, also, since she will want them to last for many birthdays.

U.S. Soldier Killed In South Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—An American soldier was killed and an American officer wounded in an ambush Tuesday night while on operational patrol 45 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

The officer, a member of the U.S. Army Special Forces, was flown to a hospital in Saigon and was reported in good condition.

The death of the Special Forces enlisted man brought to 132 the numer of Americans killed in combat in Viet Nam since late 1961. The total of American deaths since then number 230.

Video Awards May Never Be the Same

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The television industry's annual awards binge was given a rousing send-off a fortnight before the event via blasts from CBS news and ABC. Next Monday NBC will telecast the Emmy awards, but it's likely that the Television Academy will never be the same.

Motives for the blasts have been cause for speculation in the industry.

Was CBS news mad because NBC's Chet Huntley and David Brinkley collect Emmies each year with the regularity of swallows checking into Capistrano?

And was ABC disgruntled because its emphasis on filmed entertainment series always places the network third in Emmy totals?

Regardless of reasons behind them, the double complaints reflect the continuing concern within television over the illogic of the awards structure.

Three elements mitigate against an orderly selection of television awards:

1. Lack of uniformity. There seems to be little rhyme or reason in many categories. Specials are pitted against series, actors against actresses, stars of a single special against a star who plays the same role 30 times a season.

2. Abundance of categories. The classifications have been trimmed in recent years, but there still is a tendency to try and reward every type of creative effort. Some sportscasters were even campaigning this year for a sports award.

3. Inability to judge. The greatest fallacy in the presentation of television awards is the belief that voters can view all the candidates. It is humanly impossible.

Television's First Lady, Lucille Ball, told me: "I'm still a member in good standing of the academy, but I gave up voting long ago. I couldn't really do a conscientious job because it was impossible for me to see all the nominees."

That must be true for most of the academy's 6,000 members. The result is that nominations and awards often go to those who take out the most trade-paper ads, who are the most popular with their co-workers, or who get the most awards from other sources.

The best system of awards might be to have a committee of industry members of prestige and insight who would be compelled to see all major contenders and render their decision like a Pulitzer Prize committee. There is not the least likelihood that this system will be adopted.

Easternmost town in the United States is Lubec, Maine.

Edison News

By MRS. HARRY GEIST

Commencement Exercises were held Thursday evening at Edison, with the stage beautifully decorated by the seniors in green and white, with a large silver "E" in the center of the stage. Class colors were mint green and silver, with the sterling silver rose the class flower. "Excellence comes not in doing extraordinary things, but in doing ordinary things extraordinarily well" is the class motto. Seniors were Dorothy DeVorss, Karen Lindt, John Devorss and Larry Paul. Eighth graders, Polly Appleman, Colette and Colleen Bellmyer, Trudy Carter, Douglas Neely and Pamela Rasner.

Miss Roycee Cooper played the Processional and Recessional. The Rev Freddie Kitch, of Highland Baptist Church, gave the Invocation, the Rev. Deverle Cooper of the Kendrick Bible Church the Benediction. Miss Connie Rumsey sang the special music, accompanied by Margarate Gieck. Pamela Rasner was the eighth grade salutatorian and Trudy Carter the valedictorian. Dorothy DeVorss, the senior salutatorian, and Karen Lindt, the valedictorian. Duane Edenborough introduced the speaker, Byron Parks, who was the superintendent where Mr. Edenborough taught school, but who is now with the State Department of Education in Denver. Mrs. Dorothy Baker presented the eighth graders and Mr. Edenborough the seniors to Mr. Jay Yoder, president of the School Board, who presented the diplomas to both grades. Mr. Edenborough presented 16 perfect attendance certificates to Roger Rasner, Carolyn and Marilyn Sullivan, Karen Lindt, Betty Anderson, Charlene Carter, Corrine Kinkade, Janice Kunau, Joanne Kinkade, Dorine and Debby Baker, Quentin and Trudy Carter, Kenny Anderson, Susan Devorss and Steve Kitch. Fred Geist received the math award, Corrine Kinkade - Science, Penny Gieck - History, Carolyn Sillivan, English, Betty Anderson, Commercial, Dorothy DeVorss, salutatorian and Karen Lindt, valedictorian awards. The students selected those who they thought contributed the most to sports this year and the athletic awards went to Karen Lindt and Fred Geist. Carolyn Sullivan and Betty Anderson were the junior escorts.

The Ellicott grade boys defeated the Edison boys Friday in the baseball game called off during the tournament last week because of the bad weather. Thus Ellicott took both first places and the Edison boys and girls both seconds.

Mrs. Dorothy Baker, Ruth Rumsey and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wager took the seventh and eighth grades to town for their school trip Saturday. They toured Glen Eyrie, Air Force Academy, where they saw the chapel, Visitors Center and the planetarium and returned to Colorado Springs for roller skating.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kinkade, Joanne and Corrine Kinkade entertained the High School with a hamburger fry and the trimmings Tuesday evening.

Louis Busch died Monday and services were held Thursday afternoon at the Swan Funeral home. Mr. Busch was a 4-H leader at Edison for 25 years and I'm sure many of the young boys will always remember the help he gave them. Also many county leaders and officials will long remember how he was ready to help in any job he could do.

The ninth and twelfth graders treated the tenth and eleventh graders to a hay ride and weiner roast at the sand hills Friday night. This was the losing side of the magazine sales last fall treating the winning side. Virgil and Charles Gieck furnished tractor and wagons for the ride. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Edenborough and boys attended also.

Sandra Gieck attended a meeting at Barbara Haase's house Tuesday night in Colorado Springs. They were planning the banquet in honor of Miss Ruth Applethun, who is retiring in July, after many years of service to El Paso County.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rasner and Pamela Thursday and attended commencement exercises.

Fred Geist and David Bevens, of Miamip attended a meeting at American Legion Hall in Colorado Springs Tuesday night. They will both attend Boys State in Boulder, June 7 to 13.

Mrs. Cora Melbuer has been visiting her daughter and family, the Art Rasners. Sunday Mrs. Melbuer, Juanita and Jeannie Rasner were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Melbuer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whittemore Sr. visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rasner Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bensik, of Pueblo, and Johnny McKay, of Boone, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sopko Sr. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rumsey and Connie, Mrs. Texie Whitney and Calvin were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Barbee in Pueblo Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hambilton are visiting from Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crum, of Alamosa, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Brown and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Glaue visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whittemore Sr. Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dora Krocesky, John and Tim visited Mr. and Mrs. Jay Yoder and Scott over the weekend. Mr. Lacy Durham returned to Buena Vista with his daughter for a few days visit. Mr. Durham came home from Memorial Hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. Trester and family, Donald Joiner, Mrs. Aletta Saucerman and Leslie McCurdy visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown Sunday afternoon and they all spent the afternoon at the Sand Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jergensohn visited Mr. and Mrs. Wally Brown and family Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Whittemore and Charlotte spent the weekend in Denver with Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cowger. They also attended Judy's girl friend's wedding.

Mrs. C. Edenborough entertained Friday afternoon, Olive Kunau, Kate Anderson, Annie Eichmna, Evelyn Corum, Jeannie Wager and Shirley Eichman, Edith Glaue, and Pearlie Geist enjoyed coffee and desert with Cleva.

Janie Kunau spent Friday night with Penny Gieck. Bernice Kunau called at Virgil Gieck's Saturday morning and took Janice home.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gieck and Penny visited their children in Colorado Springs Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Corey, Peggy Gieck and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gieck and boys.

Livestock projects were toured Sunday afternoon by members of the Edison Drylanders. Pat Neely has two steers and he demonstrated the Daily Care of Show Calves. Dave Hamilton has two steer and he demonstrated grooming for show. Butch, Nancy and Nadine Schubert have a steer each and Nadine demonstrated how to prepare the tail. Roger Rasner has two steers and he demonstrated leading a calf. Boby Anderson has two steers and he also demonstrated grooming for show. All ended with Paul and Fred Geist, where cookies and lemonade were served. Bob Anderson, Bill Kinkade and Art Rasner furnished transportation for the kids. District Demonstration Day will be June 12.

The Edison Lucky Lassies will meet all day May 26 at the schoolhouse. Barbara Gieck and Mary Kinkade, assistant leaders will be in charge as Pearlie Geist will not be here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sams and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rasner and Pam Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gieck and girls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Correll and Fred Sunday, then called on Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tanner in the evening. Mr. and Mrs Jim Corey have announced the arrival of Scott Russell, who came Sunday night. Mrs. Corey is the former Patsy Gieck.

Mrs. Arlie Hamilton and Mrs. Maxine Hamilton., Tim, Jack and Ellen were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Davis and family in Denver Sunday. Later they saw Ellen off to Hawaii where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gossage and girls spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hamilton and Dave.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Hamilton visited Mrs. Arlie Hamilton Saturday on their way to Boulder.

TITLE WINNER — Jacqueline Gayrod may be a student of economics in the university, but she majors in beauty. She won the title "Mademoiselle France" during the Paris camping exhibition.

Pakistan Soldiers Killed in Conflict

NEW DELHI, Kndia (AP)—Four persons killed in an outbreak of shooting Monday night in Kashmir were Pakistani soldiers trying to gain a position within Indian army lines, an Indian Defense Ministry spokesman said today.

Radio Pakistan said in a broadcast from Rawalpindi Tuesday that the victims were civilians killed in an Indian army raid across the cease-fire line dividing the disputed Himalayan state.

EFFECTIVE EDUCATION

So effective was Oklahoma's first education system, established by its Five Civilized Indian Tribes in the 1830s, that many Cherokees, Chickasaws, Choctaws, Creeks and Seminoles could read Greek and Latin while white traders and trappers who dealt with them could not sign their own names.

Cascade News

By CAROLYN McADAMS — MU 7-9065

Santa Claus Land at the North Pole on Pikes Peak Highway, starting at Cascade in the shadow of Pikes Peak, was officially opened for the season, Saturday, May 16, with a daily schedule from 9:30 to 5:30, through May. Starting June 1 hours will be 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Visitors will find new landscaping around the parking lot, where several hundred evergreen trees have been planted. Another big improvement this year is the enlargement of the souvenir shop to twice its former size. Hazel Foushee, of Woodland Park, is shop supervisor, and Max Hapner, the magician, for his third year. Seven shops are on the grounds in addition to the Enchanted Forest, covering some 10 acres, which was a popular attraction last year, when it was started. Courtesy cards have been placed in all box holders at Cascade, Green Mountain Falls and Woodland Park Post Offices, for a free admission to be used by June 15, and then will become a season pass. Over 400,000 visitors registered last year. This was 100,000 increase over the previous year. A visit to the North Pole is an experience of a lifetime for young and old who believe in Santa.

Mrs. Betty Reasonover served ags chairman of the Past Presidents Social Committee, for the Woodland Park Lioness Club's luncheon meeting held Thursday, May 14, at Browncraft Steak House, Highway 24, with 37 reservations. Mrs. Margaret Jackson, junior past president, presided, in the absence of Mrs. Mary Linda Mills, president, who was in California attending the wedding of her sister. Prizes were won by Sophia Hall, Polly Lamb, Hazel Stephens, Carol Beach and Florence Salisbury. Special guest at the meeting was Virginia McConnell, who gave a book review on the recently published volume, "The Springs of Manitou." Mrs. McConnell and Mrs. Bettie Marie Daniels were co-authors of the book, which contains 96 pages of historical records, pictures and the legend of Manitou Springs, named for the Indian God, Manitou, who supposedly dwelt beneath the waters of Soda Springs, at the foot of Ute Pass, still a favorite attraction for visitors to the area.

Mrs. Joyce Woolston, den mother of Cub Scouts Den 1, Pack 33, met with her group, Tuesday after school in the Cascade Firehouse. It was Marvin Slaven's and Eddie Burns turn to conduct the flag ceremony. Den Chief Ronnie Slaven had roll call with each member saying the Scout Law, while they all sat in pow-wow fashion on the floor for the meeting. Closing with the living Circle and a candy bar treat, they enjoyed a ball game before going home. Billy Rasner a Webelo Scout belonging to Den 1, attended the Boy Scout Camp-o-Ree at Ft. Carson over the week end.

The meeting of Den 2 was cancelled last week because of illness of the Den Mother, Mrs. Fay Schumacher.

Den 3 met Monday at the home of Mrs. Sharaon Ernst, co-den mother, who had planned a surprise on Mrs. Polly Bartley in apprecation of her taking care of all the meetings alone, while Mrs. Ernst became the mother of a baby son March 19 and was absent for several meetings. The Cub Scouts were all dressed in their Indian costumes, forming a circle around Mrs. Bartley and crowning her Akela with a feather head-dress. A wooden salad bowl set was presented her as a gift of appreciation. Seven members are in the Eagle Den and all were present. Mark Leighton a former member has moved to Youngstown, Ohio. Den 3, is practicing a play they will give at the May 21st Pack meeting.

Hundred per cent attendance of the 21 Brownies was marked in the record book by Mrs. Phyllis Giles and Mrs. Shirle Johnson, co-leaders, at the May 14 meeting. The girls completed their Mothers Day gifts, which were decorated bottles filled with bath salts. Fourteen members went on an all-day outing Saturday, May 16, held at Sky High Girl Scout Camp, accompanied by Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Maxine Van Arsdale and Mrs. Lillian Witham. They met at 9:15 a.m. at Cascade Firehouse and returned at 4 p.m., a tired and happy group. The third grade girls had a mile hike to the Greenwood campsite and played the Girl Scout games, "Zig-Zag" relay, "Around the Mountain" and "Strut Miss Lucy." Second grade girls enjoyed a treasure hunt and each made a "Nature College" picture on the ground with pine cones, rocks and twigs showing a forest scene, which is a good idea for bored youngsters this summer, who wonder what to do. The day was complete with a sack lunch, soda pop and singing songs until their voices gave out.

Junior Girl Scouts had 17 at their weekly meeting on Wed- Johnson and Jonell Ewart. They spent the hour practicing the games that would be played at the Sky High Camp. Twenty members went on the all-day trip last Saturday and started the day by standing at attention as a troop for the flag ceremony. Then all the Scouts were split up into 6 units, with about 20 girls in each group. A one hour hike to Dam 2 was taken by some, where a Forest Ranger was on duty to explain the purpose of the earth dam for soil erosion, conservation of water and later on to be a fishing spot for the Sky High Camp. After a sack lunch under the trees at noon, a group gave a demonstration of setting up tents, making a trench fire and cooking a one pot meal. After playing games, having a songfest around a camp fire, closing with taps, the day ended at 3 p.m. Mrs. Johnson and and Mrs Ewart leaders, counted their group back into the camper for the return journey home, all mighty tired but wonderfully happy over the outing.

Tommy Giles was chosen as guide for the Trail Ride May 17, sponsored by the Ute Pass Saddle Club. Starting at noon at the Chipita Ranch the trail wound above the ranch in a serpentine path, with majestic pines, boulders and a mountain stream keeping company all the way. A sack lunch was enjoyed on a plateau near the Rampart Range Road before the return trip at 3 p.m. Those on the ride were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Giles; Carol Giles; Mrs. Jan Pettit and children Kim, Lynn and Jill; Mrs. Barbara Gafford and children Karen, Kathy and Clay; Jennifer Juth; Peggy Longacre and Myrna Lindholm, 15 in all.

Mrs. Joe Gault was hostess for a style Show luncheon, May 14, at the Broadmoor Hotel, honoring Miss Jeanne Cowen a June bride-elect. Other guests were Mrs. Jane Cowen, Miss Kay Cowen and Miss Marilyn Skolich. A miscellaneous shower for Miss Jeanne Cowen was given Saturday morning, at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. George Knox, Canon Road, in Cascade, starting with a coffee brunch. The guest list included Mrs. Joe Gault, Mrs. Lewis Johnson, Mrs. C. B. Horn, Mrs. Kevin McCarville, Mrs. Jack Waymire, Mrs. E. J. Allton, Mrs. H. M. Pfalmer, Mrs. Wm. Tillerson, Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. Carol Hunt, Mrs. Hazel Lisiecki, Mrs. Donald Doren, Mrs. Harry Pole, Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mrs. Phillip Tracy, Mrs. Richard Dugdale, Mrs. Claude Treece, Mrs. Gilbert Nixon, Mrs. Herbert Berendt, Mrs. Jane Henricks, Mrs. James Goodwin, Mrs. Frank Sanborn, Mrs. Nick Sanborn Jr. and Miss Catherine Sanborn. The wedding of Miss Jeanne Cowen and Cadet Kenneth Helmig has been set for June 4 following graduation of Cadet Helmig, a first classman of the United States Air Force Academy.

A coffee brunch TV party was given Monday, May 11 at 9 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Hazel Lisiecki, to watch the NBC Concentration program which had Mrs. Wini Pyle appear as one of the contestants at the last few minutes. They all came back the next day to see Wini complete her appearance in the show. Those who were present were Esther Berendt, Eleanor Pole, Helen Dugdale, Danna Shoemaker and Madie Smith. Rev. and Mrs. Pyle will be returning home from a 4 months stay in New York, the week of May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dugdale entertained guests Saturday night with a supper followed by cards at their home. Present were Mrs. Gilbert Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pole, Mrs. Hazel Lisiecki and Mrs. Carol Hunt.

Observers say that no bird or animal is willing to eat a zebra butterfly because of its unpleasant odor.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

WARREN COMMISSION: The Warren Commission, which is investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, announced Tuesday that it has "unanimously cleared all of the members of its staff to handle classified information."

Although no names were mentioned, this presumably was a clearance for Norman Redlich, a consultant accused by two Republican members of Congress of having been a member of a Communist-front group.

Staff director J. Lee Rankin refused to answer questions about the statement and would not say if Redlich still holds his $100-a-day job.

A statement inserted into the Congressional Record by Rep. Ralph F. Beerman, R-Neb., and a speech to the Senate by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., identified Redlich as a member of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. Mundt called it "one of the most notorious Communist fronts in the country."

NATIONAL DEBT: Informed sources say the Treasury is expected to ask Congress to raise the national debt ceiling to $320 billion or more for the fiscal fiscal year that starts July 1.

The present temporary debt limit is $315 billion but this is scheduled to stop automatically to $309 billion on June 30. Unless Congress acts, the limit will revert the next day to the permanent ceiling of $285 billion.

The national debt now is $309.2 billion.

WAGE-PRICE: The AFL-CIO again has challenged President Johnson's appeal for labor and business to hold the wage-price line.

"Neither wage nor price restraints are tolerable in a free society except in the gravest national emergency, and then only when coupled with stringent restraints upon excess profits," the labor group's Executive Council said in a statement Tuesday.

PAPERWORK: Unnecessary reports to the government can cost a small businessman $3,000 to $5,000 a year, a spokesman told a House subcommittee on Government Statistics today.

George J. Burger, vice president of the National Federation of Independent Business, set this price in testimony prepared for the subcommittee's hearings on reduction of paper work.

CLARK-CONGRESS: A leading critic of congressional machinery, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, says "a great deal of public prodding" is needed to restore the government's legislative branch to "vigorous, working, democratic health."

But the Pennsylvania Democrat says he doubts what he calls "the congressional establishment" will be of any help. His views, generally a restatement and elaboration of previous stands, are contained in a book called "Congress: The Sapless Branch," published today by Harper & Row.

FOR THE BIRDS

There are a number of bird feeders which are easy to make and which will attract many colorful birds. Woodpeckers will be attracted by a mesh bag filled with suet and hung on tree branches. Pine cones filled with suet will bring other meat eaters. Chickadees love a peanut butter log. Just stuff a small log with peanut butter by drilling holes in the log and then filling.

You can also make a feeder out of an empty tin can filled with sunflower seeds. However, in cold weather this type of feeder is dangerous. If the metal is wet, the birds' feet and wings may freeze to the feeder.

Baptist Meeting Focuses Talk On Race Issue

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —The nation's Baptists focused on the racial issue today as they began meetings which will culminate in a joint celebration of the 150th anniversary of Baptist work in America.

Northern and Southern Baptists are meeting separately. About 40,000 Baptists are expected for activities this week, including joint meetings of seven U.S. Baptist groups.

The American (Northern) Baptist Convention, which has taken strong stands against racial discrimination in the past, gets down to work today.

The group will be addressed tonight and Wednesday by two leaders in the civil rights movement, the Rev. Dr. Ralph Abernathy and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., both of Atlanta.

The racial issue likely will hit the Southern Baptist Convention floor Thursday when the Christian Life Commission makes its report. There have been indications that an effort will be made to get endorsement for a strong Southern stand against segregation.

Harold E. Stassen, president of the American Baptist Convention, called Monday night for a middle-of-the-road policy on civil rights.

"Segregation or discrimination on the basis of race or color is clearly wrong; on the other hand the forceful insistence upon complete fulfillment of rights as individually interpreted is not sustained by our religious principles as I see it," said Stassen.

"Demonstrations which endeavor to enforce an interpretation of rights when there are feasible means of determining and enforcing the rights through the courts, and when the rights of others are inevitably violated by the demonstrations, are in my view beyond the limits of religious expression," he said.

"Likewise, the enforced transportation of school children away from their normal neighborhood school is an overreaching which I do not find supported in our religious principles."

Radio Free Europe Still Window to Free World

By TOM A. CULLEN
European Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

MUNICH, Germany (NEA) — What do Sophia Loren, David and Goliath, Julius Caesar, Telstar and the Beatles have in common?

The answer is that they are all code names adopted by listeners behind the Iron Curtain in writing to Radio Free Europe (RFE), which has its headquarters in Munich.

Julius Caesar writes to complain about the gagging of intellectuals in Poland. David and Goliath tell of the wretched conditions of workers in Romania. Sophia, of Budapest, wants Radio Free Europe to broadcast more American jazz.

Their letters are just a sampling of the mail which RFE receives daily from Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania and Bulgaria.

Altogether this private American network has an estimated 16 million listeners among the 80 million people in its five target countries.

More significantly, FRE is now reaching for the first time the urban populations of these Eastern European satellites, thanks to the fact that RFE broadcasts are no longer jammed as vigorously as before. Previously it was confined by ground jamming to rural areas largely, and hence to a peasant audience.

"It means that we no longer have a foot in the door, but we are in the kitchen, talking to the urban housewife," says Gordon W. Davis, program director, who is a native of Boston, and who is on loan to RFE.

"And not only the housewives —we have the ear of the young intellectuals, the factory workers, even of the Communist elite."

Most RFE programs are aimed at young people, who suffer most from restrictions on freedom, and who have shown the greatest desire to change the present Communist regimes.

In Poland, for example, three-quarters of the population are under 35 and half under 25.

A recent hour - long RFE broadcast to Poland featured interviews with the Beatles. The response was overwhelming. Young Poles wrote in demanding more. According to the latest reports, Beatle wigs are now the rage in Warsaw.

But light entertainment such as the Beatles is only a small part of RFE's total output. The bulk of its programs are made up of straight news, political co-talks.

They are prepared by exiles from the Eastern European countries who are now working as free men here in Munich. These include experts like Stephen Bede, who once served as Hungarian ambassador to Great Britain, and Jan Nowak, a one-time leader of the Polish Resistance against the Nazis.

A nonprofit organization supported by the contributions of American citizens, RFE first went on the air in July 1950. The station had a 7 kilowatt portable transmitter and broadcast only 10 hours a week. Today there are 5 stations broadcasting with a power of more than a million watts from a system of transmitters in West Germany and Portugal.

It broadcasts 18 hours daily to Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary, and five hours daily to Romania and Bulgaria — and only in the languages of those countries.

Unlike the Voice of America, the official U.S. government radio network whose broadcasts are worldwide, RFE concentrates only on its five target astellite countries. Explains Richard V. Burke, director of policy and an expert on East European affairs:

"We provide the only clear voice of opposition to the satellite regimes. Our aim is to break the Communist monopoly of new and information by reporting objectively what is happening on both sides of the Iron Curtin."

One of the measures of RFE's effectiveness is the frequency and violence with which it is attacked by the Communist bosses of Eastern Europe. Another yardstick is the volume of letters from grateful listeners. Typical of these is one from a Czech girl who is 22: "I live in a small town. I was not allowed to go to university . . . Your broadcasts are my only window on the world."

AX-OGENERIAN — Most 87-year-old women are content with crocheting or reading, but Mrs. Leona Lykins of Nashville, Mich., enters wood chopping contests. The winner of this contest held during a spring festival in Vermontville, Mich., cut through a six-inch log in 34 seconds. Mrs. Lykins took considerably more time, but the crowd gave her the biggest hand.

BENT HIS EAR

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (AP)— It may have been coincidence, but after listening to well-wishers and office seekers during his first two days in office, Mayor James F. Dawson had to be treated by a doctor for an earache.
